MRS. HIDDEN HEARD

National Suffrage Convention Is Described.

WOMEN URGED TO DO GOOD

Rooms of Woman's Club Attractively Decorated and Musical Programme Is Followed by Reception for New Members.

Mrs. M. T. L. Hidden, who was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Portland Woman's Club yesterday, gave an interesting address on the great convention of the National Suffrage Association held recently in Philadelphia. Mrs. Hidden was representative from Oregon and was one of the speakers who helped to emphasize the true value of suffrage. In commenting upon the franchise, Mrs. Hidden said: "Let us hope that women will make good and show that they have gained the ballot or the good they can do." While taking part at the convention, Mrs. Hidden told of the work that had been done in this state and took occasion to exploit the merits of Oregon and its broad institutions. She met with a cordial reception and had the pleasure of hearing and becoming acquainted with some of the most prominent women of the Nation. In speaking of the effects of gaining the ballot Mrs. Hidden cautioned her audience from becoming imbued with extreme ideas, upholding the highest standards of womanliness and patriotism.

and an informal tea. The clubrooms were made attractive with decorations of pink carnations. The gowns of the reception committee were unusually pretty. Mrs. Harry Chipman, chairman of the party, was in a delicate pink and white Dresden suit. Mrs. Frederick Egbert, president of the club, was distinguished in blue broadcloth. Mrs. Hidden wore violet broadcloth and white Dresden suit. Mrs. Herbert G. Reed and Mrs. N. T. Palmer, who poured, were both attired in blue charmuse. Assisting in the social part of the day were: Mrs. Frank Van Duyn, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. A. Wurzweller, Mrs. A. Gieslich, Mrs. W. W. Bruce, Mrs. G. F. Frankel, Mrs. J. Francis Drake, Mrs. Nathan Harris, Mrs. D. M. Watson, Mrs. John Toft, Mrs. R. P. Clerin and Mrs. J. C. Bryant.

Mrs. G. W. Blackwood was hostess at luncheon on Tuesday, honoring Mrs. W. L. Leland and Mrs. William Lesch, who will leave on Monday for Southern California. The dining-room and table were attractively decorated in red carnations and asparagus fern. The place cards were miniature figures holding "tabletalk" messages from the hostess. The honored guests received letters to be read while on their journey. An hour at bridge followed the repast. Those who shared the pleasures of the affair were: Mrs. Lesch, Mrs. Leland, Mrs. Alexandra Riddell, Mrs. Carl Liebe, Mrs. M. L. Kline, Mrs. Paul Yates, Mrs. J. T. Langley, Mrs. W. G. Lloyd, Mrs. F. E. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Lawrence and Mrs. Pearl Norman, of Los Angeles.

The fortnightly meeting of the Self Culture Club met last evening at the studio of Mrs. Ella Bales Jones, in the Russell building. Three applications for membership were received. The subject of discussion was "The Home Life of the Germans," as presented in the Chautauque home reading course. Professor R. M. Wheeler assisted Mrs. Jones with the musical programme. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. W. Woods, 616 East Main street, January 31.

The Athletic Association of the Lincoln High School gave a successful dance last night at the school. About 150 young people were in attendance. William P. Tuerck is president of the association. He was assisted by the following committee: Ruth Brand, Tom Greer, Vitz Ramsdell, Jess Bloch, Marjorie McCollom, Olga Spill, Ruth Graham. The patrons and patronesses of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. V. Borleske, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Garman, Miss Gladys Smith and Edward O. Tabor.

SALEM TO HEAR CONCERT
Portland Symphony Orchestra Going to Capital Next Month.
Salem is making big plans to receive the Portland Symphony Orchestra on the occasion of its first concert there Sunday afternoon, February 2. The 56 members of the Portland orchestra will leave on a special car Sunday morning, arriving in time to give a short concert for the inmates of the Hospital for the Insane before luncheon. At 3 o'clock the full programme, given tomorrow at the Heilig, will be repeated at the Grand Theater of that city.
Messages were read this week before both the Senate and the House, praising the character of the organization and its aims, along educational lines, and urging the members to take advantage of their opportunity to hear the concert. The message was as follows:
"This city is to be favored on February 2 by a concert to be given by the Portland Symphony Orchestra of 56 pieces at the Grand Theater. This unselfish body of musicians has given several free concerts in Portland to the school children and newboys and others and while in this city they will give a free concert at one of our state institutions. The leading commercial bodies of Portland have endorsed the work of the orchestra and recognized its value to entertain and as an educational and advertising force. The encouragement of this body is especially desired and it is hoped that the members will avail themselves of this opportunity."

PHYSICAL CULTURE URGED
North Portland Women Indorse Dredging of Columbia Slough.

Establishment of courses of study in physical culture in the Portland high schools where boys and girls may be trained to become physical instructors, is urged by the Women's Auxiliary of the North Portland Commercial Club.

The matter was considered at the meeting of the auxiliary held Thursday night at Albion fire hall, when the proposal was indorsed at the request of girls and boys who desire to become proficient. The auxiliary will request the Board of Education to take this step.
