DIVINE SARAH'S DAILY ROUTINE IS STRENUOUS
Actress Is Busily Engaged in Various Duties 17 Hours Each Day—Companions Devoted to "Their Queen."

MADAME BERNHARDT'S awake day begins at 10 A. M. and ends at 3 o'clock the next morning. With the "Divine Sarah" two-day-a-day vaudeville is a workaday life and she is tied to routine one would deem impossible for her to follow. Her actual sight of her movements convince that she is up, about and around for 17 hours out of the 24. The special train of Madame Bernhardt rolled into the terminal yards Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock and while railroad hands by the dozen holed, scrubbed and wiped her car, Madame Bernhardt, seated in the first-class car, made her first appearance at 10 o'clock sharp, peeped through the car window to read the weather story told by the sky, ordered her maid to discard her hat and by the time the last dish has been put away the "Divine Sarah" has yet to remain in her dressing room. From midnight until 3 o'clock in the morning she plays dominoes, or maybe checkers, with Monsieur Lou Tellegen, her leading man, and Mr. Sullivan. Not until the stroke of 3 does Madame Bernhardt say, "bon nuit."

DISEASE NOT WIDESPREAD

State Health Officer Investigates Problem of Sewage at Western State Asylum in Pendleton and Discusses Big Plant.

Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer, returned yesterday morning from a brief visit to Pendleton, where he went to investigate the sewage problem of the Western State Asylum and to examine Judge G. W. Phelps, who is seriously ill with smallpox. "I found Judge Phelps very low with smallpox," said Dr. White. "His temperature was 101 degrees and he was delirious, but I have hopes of his recovery. Judge Phelps thinks that he contracted the disease at La Grande, where there has been a slight epidemic of smallpox. He has not been vaccinated for years and his vaccination did not take. The value of vaccination as a preventive of smallpox is demonstrated in the Judge's family. His daughter, who was vaccinated when her father's disease was made known, has had a very light attack, but Mrs. Phelps and her sister escaped entirely. The new Western State Asylum, of which Dr. W. D. McNary is superintendent, is a magnificent up-to-date building. The present Legislature is asked to provide funds for a sewage plant. The sewage now empties into the Umatilla River. "All the patients but one were happy. That one is a mathematical genius. The windows instead of having bars have glass. This patient has figured out that there are 6520 windows and that it would take one man a year and seven months to wash all the windows. What a little fellow he is! "Bars would be better, as they weren't washed where we came from."

INDIGESTION AND RHEUMATISM

People With Good Digestion Do Not Have Rheumatism. The blood is the product of digestion. Whatever sort of food is digested in the stomach is absorbed into the blood. If the food is badly digested, the food acids in the stomach before digestion, or during digestion, the acids are absorbed into the blood produce a condition known as rheumatism. The acids are liable to produce microscopic crystals. These crystals are deposited in the ligaments and cartilages, causing rheumatism of the joints. Sometimes in the bones, producing periodic pains every time a storm approaches. In the morning, the joints are stiff, and sometimes in the neck, myalgia, and muscular rheumatism generally. Pe-ru-na Corrects Digestion. The reason that Pe-ru-na relieves such cases is easy to understand. Pe-ru-na corrects digestion. Pe-ru-na corrects digestion partly by hurrying it. Pe-ru-na does not furnish any artificial digestant, it simply assists Nature in doing her own work. In this way the products of digestion are more normal. The blood is not filled with imperfectly digested food. No acids accumulate in the stomach while Pe-ru-na is being taken. Thus rheumatism is prevented. It is a great deal better to prevent a disease than to try to cure it. But even after rheumatism has begun the condition that caused it ought to be removed if possible. Good Digestion Stops Rheumatism. The first thing to do is to secure good digestion, then if it is necessary specific medicine for rheumatism may be taken. But until the digestion is made perfect it is of little or no use to take medicines for rheumatism. To produce good digestion Pe-ru-na should be taken. Pe-ru-na, Man-a-lin and Lu-ca-pu are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia. Their proper combination makes a remedy invaluable for stomach relief. We are so certain that there is nothing so good for stomach ills as such specially designed for this particular ill that we guarantee to refund your money if you try them on our risk. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community.
