

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL IN SENATE

Increased Appropriations as Recommended by Engineers Are to Be Indorsed.

COMMITTEE WILL REPORT

House, However, Will Resent Amendments, Especially One in Favor of Cello Canal for Fund of $1,200,000.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 29.—The river and harbor bill was sent to the Senate today and referred to the commerce committee for a report. Before it is returned to the Senate amendments will be made and various new items added. Senator Bourne, who is a member of the commerce committee, will offer an amendment increasing the appropriation for the Cello Canal from $600,000 provided by the house to $1,200,000 recommended in the special report of the Army engineers, so as to hasten the completion of the canal and have it ready before the San Francisco exposition.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED

Four Cars of Southern Pacific Go Off at Pulp Siding.

OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Traffic on the Southern Pacific Railway was delayed this morning as the result of four cars of a northbound freight train being derailed at Pulp Siding, three miles south of this city. One car that was derailed was derailed two miles before the trainmen knew of the accident. Just before the train passed New Era the rear truck of one of the cars was derailed and the engine and the car struck a cattle guard that the trainmen realized it was off the track.

EDITOR WELCOMES ACTION

Kansas City Judge Cites Nelson for Article on Law's Delay.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 29.—William R. Nelson, editor and owner of the Kansas City Star, was cited today by the Circuit Court of Jackson County to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt for a publication in a paper which said that fees of $50 each were awarded to three attorneys in a divorce suit which was dismissed in the Circuit Court without coming to trial. The article said that the fee was granted in a ruling by Judge Gulbrink of that court.

MAN PAYS $250 FOR KILLING

W. R. Smith Fined for Accidentally Shooting Carnahan for Deer.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—W. R. Smith, a young rancher residing near Wahkiacus, who accidentally shot and killed Lewis W. Carnahan, mistaking him for a deer, while hunting in the Big Kllickit canyon last November, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault in the second degree before Judge William T. Darch in the Superior Court and was fined $250 and costs.

CAPTAIN PECK REINSTATED

Officer Dismissed from Army in 1910 Restored by President.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Orders from Washington have been received here restoring to rank Robert H. Peck, a Captain in the Twenty-fourth Infantry, U. S. A. Captain Peck was dismissed from the service after a court-martial in August, 1910. He is placed at the foot of the list of Captains.

M. H. YOUNG DIES ON CAR

Seattle Banker Succumbs While Returning From Evening Call.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—While seated beside his daughter, Mrs. Thomas A. Fransioli, on a streetcar, returning home at midnight after an evening call, M. H. Young, aged 68, banker, street railway builder and business man of Seattle, died almost instantly from heart disease. He was a descendant from an old New England family and a native of Groton, Mass.

Denied enlistment shortly after passing the Harvard entry examinations, being then 16 years old, he re-enlisted in the same year and served through the Civil War as a private in Company I, Eighth New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry. He was wounded in the Red River campaign. After the war he crossed the plains to San Francisco, but later returned to Boston, where he married and settled in Seattle in 1883 and was president of the old Union Trunk Line, purchased by Stone & Webster in 1889. Mr. Young amassed a large fortune. Mrs. Young died eight years ago. Three daughters, Mrs. Phillip Morrison, Mrs. Fransioli and Miss Edith R. Young, survive.

MISS LA FOLLETTE AIDS

SENATOR'S DAUGHTER TESTIFIES IN STRIKE CASE.

Woman Champion of Garment Workers Fined for Disorderly Conduct, Actress Says Unjustly.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Charged with disorderly conduct, Miss Maud Younger, the young California woman who is championing the cause of the girl workers in the garment-makers' strike here, was arrested with nine girl strikers last night. She refused to pay a $2 fine imposed upon her in the Night Court, as did the others arraigned with her, and at a late hour the young women were in custody. Miss Younger denied to Magistrate Herbert that she had refused to move from a shopping district corner, as she was alleged to have done. She was accompanied by Miss Fola La Follette, the actress, daughter of United States Senator La Follette, who declared Miss Younger was a block from the spot where the officer reported the arrest had been made, and was doing nothing to cause a crowd to collect, as charged.

DETROIT PRISONER MISSING

Portland Officer Gets Extradition but Grosslight Is Gone.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—R. B. Cahill, Deputy Sheriff of Multnomah County, obtained requisition papers for Fred R. Grosslight, who is wanted in Portland on an indictment by the grand jury charging him with larceny by bailee of $250 worth of diamonds belonging to Mr. Levy, a jeweler, from whom it is charged he had obtained them and had not paid for them. Grosslight was arrested here two weeks ago and was held on a telegraphic warrant from Portland. He obtained bail and today the Portland officer could not locate him. Deputy Sheriff Cahill declares he will not leave Detroit without Grosslight.

Fred R. Grosslight was located in Detroit two weeks ago. City Detective Ackerman and R. B. Cahill, to represent Sheriff Word, were sent to secure his extradition. They had difficulty in getting the customary courtesies in the office of the Portland officer. Detroit is Grosslight's home town.

ICE IS BROKEN IN SOUTH

North Carolina Approves Direct Election of Senators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Of deep significance because of its bearing upon the probable fate of the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the direct election of Senators by the people is the fact reported to the State Department officially today that the Legislature of North Carolina had approved the proposal. It had been predicted freely that the Southern states would reject the amendment unanimously because of its implied extension of Federal authority over state elections. The adhesion of North Carolina makes six states favorably recorded on the proposition, the others being Minnesota, Michigan, Massachusetts, New York and Arizona.

RAILWAY BUYS SHOP SITE

O.-W. R. & N. to Acquire 200 Acres East of Spokane Limits.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company is purchasing 200 acres of land east of the city limits and on the south side of Sprague avenue for shop and townsite purposes. The deal when consummated with the numerous property owners, will cost the Harriman line $200,000. The agents negotiating the purchase are paying from $600 to $1200 an acre for the land.

MERGER OF CLUBS IS AIM

Salem Board of Trade May Affiliate With Illihee Club.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—By a vote of 22 to 13 the Illihee Club, the leading social organization of the city, voted to take steps toward annexing the publicity work of the Salem Board of Trade and effect a virtual consolidation of the two associations. The plan of merger contemplated is similar to that in use in Portland and Eugene, where there are two phases of work involved.

J. L. ROYAL'S DEATH SUDDEN

Jason Lee Royal, aged 72 years and 11 months, who died early yesterday morning from heart trouble, a few hours after he retired, apparently in good health, was born at Bloomington, Ill. He was the youngest son of a miller, the Rev. William Royal, and Barbara Royal, and crossed the plains with his parents in 1858. He was graduated at Willamette University. His widow, four daughters, Barbara, Edna, Jean, Lee and Mrs. M. J. Chamberlain and one son, Lloyd, survive him, also his brothers, Rev. J. H. B. Royal, Dr. William Royal and Charles Royal, and a nephew, Dr. Osmar Royal.

BURGLARS GET $125

S. M. Mears Holds Police Officers' Footing Chasing Them Thieves.

SERVANTS' SAVINGS TAKEN

Officers Lose Footing Chasing Through House, and Giving Robber Chance to Make Escape. Other Robberies Reported.

S. M. Mears, president of the Portland Cordage Company and of the Columbia Engineering Works, held two police officers under the point of a gun at his home, 721 Flanders street, about midnight, while a burglar escaped with $125 in cash and jewelry worth $125 more, the property of two maids employed in the Mears family. Police Sergeant Harms and Patrolman Marie Abraham, a servant, reported the loss of $80 in cash, a gold watch and fob, Anna Wallman, a maid, said that she had lost $50 in money, a watch, fob, neck chain and a bracelet. The articles were taken from their rooms in the attic of the house.

Further time for an escape for the burglar was afforded by the antics of the policemen when they struck rugs on the polished floor of the home. The scurry through the first floor brought several tumbles to the officers, who were headed by Captain Elliot. Marie Abraham, a servant, reported the loss of $80 in cash, a gold watch and fob, Anna Wallman, a maid, said that she had lost $50 in money, a watch, fob, neck chain and a bracelet. The articles were taken from their rooms in the attic of the house.

C. Miller, 42 years old, a butcher, tried to break into the rear door of a meat market at Thirteenth and Washington streets last night and was caught in the act by Patrolmen Leisy and Schirmer, after Special Officer McKay had noticed him. He confessed to having been in the act of breaking into the Smith market at Nineteenth and Washington streets three nights ago. He asked the officers to see that he got one to three years in the penitentiary in preference to being sent back to Kelly Butte, where he finished serving 350 days a week ago.

MEMORIAL REPORT MADE

Cost of Proposed George H. Williams Statue $7000 to $25,000.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The committee appointed by Governor West to secure information concerning the proposed statue of George H. Williams to be erected in the National Capitol at Washington has reported, and recommends the appropriation of $7000 or $8000 if a bust statue be decided upon, or $25,000 for full length. The report submits the estimates of different American sculptors for the various styles of work.

PLOT OF REVENGE FAILS

Offender Gets 100 Days in Jail and $200 Fine for Gun-Play.

VALE, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Nick Bangs, an Austrian, working for the Oregon Eastern Railway, came to Vale after hearing of the killing of Joe Uzloc on January 14, and after arming himself heavily, started out to avenge the death of his fellow-countryman. He went directly to the haunts of the slayer and after standing him and his friends up against the wall proceeded to tell them that their time had come, but for the timely arrival of the police another tragedy would probably have been committed.

Miss Isabella Vincent, of Minneapolis, a guest of Miss Taft in the White House, and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, passed assistant surgeon in the Navy and naval aide to the President, reached Miss Bowers' side. Aided by Miss Taft, Miss Bowers was carried to a nearby physician's office, where she received first aid treatment. Later it was decided to remove her to a hospital.

Miss Taft immediately telephoned for the White House automobile and rode to the hospital with Miss Bowers. The President's daughter saw to it that everything possible was done to relieve the suffering of her guest. Physicians made a careful examination of Miss Bowers' injuries and found that in addition to a double fracture of the right forearm she suffered incisions of the scalp and bruises about the body. It was said last night that Miss Bowers was resting comfortably.
