NOTE STOPS DECREE

Mrs. John Day Fails to Get Much-Wanted Divorce.

"CRUELTY" IS NOT SHOWN

Court, Guided in Questions by Missive, Finds Mrs. Day Has Used Assumed Names—Wife Must Wait to Prove Desertion.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—(Special.)—A mysterious letter, unsigned, but in a woman's dainty handwriting, prevented Mrs. Charlotte Day, wife of John Day, the Oregon newspaper man, and press agent, for whom the police are seeking, from becoming a divorcee in Judge Monroe's branch of the Superior Court today.
 The letter was addressed to Judge Monroe and was opened and read only by him. After slowly perusing the contents, Judge Monroe asked Mrs. Day several questions, and then decided that despite the fact that the husband was charged with having robbed the pretty plaintiff of her diamonds and money and with having defrauded two of her sisters of about $300 the "cruelty" charge is not so extreme as to make good grounds for an immediate divorce. Judge Monroe asserted, however, that there were good grounds for a divorce on the grounds of desertion and that if she waits the required period it probably will be granted.
 John Day disappeared last February, three days after their marriage. Mrs. Day and her sisters declared he had taken Mrs. Day's diamonds and money and had given them worthless checks. A warrant was issued for his arrest and the Los Angeles police began a Nation-wide search for him.

 "I have here an anonymous letter which shall guide me in my question," he said. "I shall not show this letter to anyone, but if Mrs. Day insists on a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty I shall go into it."
 Did you ever go under any other name than Day? Judge Monroe asked. "Yes, I went under the names of Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Stewart."
 Judge Monroe read the letter over again, then said: "I would like to know who wrote this mysterious letter."

ROOF OF HOUSE STOLEN

Man Who Works Nights Goes Home to Find Shelter Gone.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Of all odd booty of thieves shown in the police records, the most curious was reported today, when K. A. Williams, who lives alone and works at night, complained that thieves had stolen the roof of his house.
 "If it rains or snows today, my furniture will be ruined," sighed Williams.
 Williams' house is a one-room affair on which he had just placed a new roof. The new timber evidently was regarded a valuable asset by the thieves.

SOCIALIST LOSES SEAT

Lone Member of Party in Kansas Senate Out by Vote of 28 to 10.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 30.—The Kansas State Senate today unseated its lone Socialist member, Fred Stanton, of Crawford County, by a vote of 28 to 10. E. F. Porter, Republican, who contested Stanton's election, was seated.
 Evidence tended to show that men crossed the line from Missouri to vote for Stanton, that there were errors in the count and that scores of aliens voted.

JUAREZ GETS HELP

With Garrison of Thousand Border Town Is Safe.

MORE BRIDGES DESTROYED

Customs Authorities Close Port of Columbus, N. M., to All Entries, Because Ranchmen Complain of Cattle Stealing.

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 30.—All rebel forces disappeared late today from the vicinity of Juarez, now reinforced beyond a fear of attack. In addition to 300 infantry on railway patrol trains coming in early in the day, 500 irregular cavalry, under Colonel Manuel Landa arrived tonight. This leaves more than 1000 government troops in the border town.
 The cavalry came from the vicinity of Abilene, selected by the federal government as the place of the proposed peace conference. They arrived over the Mexican Central Railway, which has been repaired temporarily from Abilene to the border. The Mexico Northwestern Railroad remains closed below Juarez, and rebels today burned more bridges on the English-Canadian line to within a few miles of Juarez.
 All is reported quiet along the border patrolled by United States troops out of Fort Bliss. With the El Paso-Juarez port still closed, owing to the uncertainty of all railway traffic, the United States Customs Department today closed the port of Columbus, N. M., for

CAR ON FIRE, MAN LEAPS

Express Messenger Unable to Make Plight Known by Train Signals.

FORESTRY MEN TO MEET

Forest Fires Topic to Be Discussed at Medford Convention.

STAMFORD, Conn., Jan. 30.—Fire broke out near here today in the last car of a through train of express cars speeding from Boston to New York. The express messenger, after a vain effort to put out the flames, pulled the emergency brakes, but the mechanism failed to work and he was unable to get word of his plight to the cars in front. Within a few minutes he was compelled to choose between death in the flames and a leap from the doorway. He jumped as the train rounded a curve at 35 miles an hour, and escaped with only slight injuries.
 The flames were discovered when the train stopped here for water, and were extinguished by the local fire department.
 The damage to the car and its contents was estimated at $50,000.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 30.—(Special.)—Supervisor M. L. Erickson, of the Crater National Forest, is here making arrangements for the interstate convention of Forestry Service men to be held early in February at Medford. This will be the first interstate meeting held in the West, and will be attended by rangers from the Shasta and Klamath National forests in California and Crater and Siskiyou forests in Oregon.
 The subject for discussion at the convention is fire prevention, and arrangements for talks on this subject have been made with experienced

MADAME SEMBRICH

HERE FEBRUARY 4th

Madame Marcella Sembrich, the most famous concert soprano of the day, will sing at the Heilig Theater Tuesday night, February 4. She will be accompanied by the celebrated pianist, Mr. Frank La Forge.

As Madame Sembrich so aptly expressed it "The exquisite beauty of tone—a tone which blends so well with my voice—has endeared the BALDWIN PIANO to me."

The resonance, the brilliance, the purity, the warmth and color peculiar to the BALDWIN PIANO all combine to produce that indescribable "BALDWIN tone," that rich singing quality which we love so much.
