JURY REFORM AIM

District Attorney Proposes Bills to Legislature.

OTHER CHANGES SOUGHT

Evans Would Allow Grand Jury to Sit Six Months if Necessary. Real Estate Swindlers and Contractors Also Targets.

book by technicality or otherwise might be caught on another. A third bill which Mr. Evans desires to see enacted would amend the false pretenses law so as to include false representations and promises. Under the law as it now stands prosecution cannot be had unless the false representations are in writing or there is a false token. The object of the change, the District Attorney states, is to leave the way open for prosecution chiefly of real estate salesmen who make false statements to prospective purchasers. It was suggested to Mr. Evans that the law as it now reads was made to prevent persons defrauded in business deals from coming into court and making trouble without regard to the merits of their respective cases. To this the District Attorney answered: "There is always the element of proof. The man who makes the charge of being swindled would have to prove danger of criminal charges being made against innocent men, in other words I do not believe there would be much chance of the statute being used successfully as a blackmailing weapon." Still another bill which the District Attorney wants passed is aimed at conspiracies against the state, counties, municipalities and school districts. It is intended principally to reach collusion in bidding on public work, although harm resulting to the public from a conspiracy of any kind would render those engaged in the conspiracy liable to indictment and prosecution under the statute.

MINIMUM WAGE SUBJECT

Professor Wood Favors Industrial Commission to Fix Pay. Professor A. E. Wood, of Reed College, spoke on "The Proposed Minimum Wage Bill" in the Medical building Thursday night under the auspices of the Civic Improvement Club. "The low wage prevails," said Professor Wood. "We can't expect social health and harmony under present conditions when over 50 per cent of the working girls get less than $10 weekly and many get less than $8. Working girls should be paid enough to sustain their health while working." He said that a Jokers substitute bill was being offered at Salem, but that the only real minimum wage bill was the one calling for an industrial commission to set the wages.

HIGHER EDUCATION TOPIC

REPRESENTATIVES OF VARIOUS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS MEET. Session is Called by Officers of State Federation of Women's Clubs—Many Give Talks.

At the call of the officers of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, representatives from men's and women's organizations of Portland gathered at luncheon yesterday at the Commercial Club. The purpose was the consideration of plans for meeting the demands of higher education in the State of Oregon. Mrs. Sarah Evans, president of the State Federation, introduced the subject, and said that the 4000 women of the federated clubs of Oregon have actively interested themselves in the needs of the State University as an institution for the development of the best and highest in civic concerns. Eugene Brookings, president of the Business Men's League, introduced the speakers. J. E. Werlein read the message bill presented to the legislative committee of the Legislature, which, it is believed, will place the State University on a stable financial basis and take it out of politics. This bill provides for a tax of 3.10 mills on the taxable property of the state. Dean, of the University Board of Regents, pointed out the advantage of such a provision for the university. President Foster, of Reed College, urged the necessity of providing adequately for the institution of higher education as the summit of a school system in which the elementary schools rank high. Other speakers were Dr. Luther Drott, J. E. Werlein, president of the Transportation Club; Frederick V. Holman, Dr. George Rebec, of the Board of Education, of Portland, and W. D. Fenton. Mrs. Minnie Washburn, of Eugene, told of the deep concern of women in all the larger interests of the state, and the growing demand on the part of mothers for the best that a state can give to its young men and women.

MRS. S. I. KEYSER BURIED

Bodies of Woman and Son Long Dead Removed to Cottage Grove. COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Jan. 31.—(Special.)—The bodies of Mrs. S. I. Keyser and Thomas Keyser were brought here from Idaho Tuesday and buried in Shields Cemetery beside the body of her husband and father, who died here several years ago. Mrs. Keyser died Saturday at Big Meadows, Idaho. Thomas Keyser died several years ago and the body was brought here to be laid with that of the parents. Funeral services for Mrs. Keyser were held from Veatch's chapel, Rev. J. T. Moore officiating. The parents were pioneers of the Grove country. Mrs. Keyser was Miss Sarah Isabelle Ramsey, born near Russellville, Mo., December 21, 1837. She married T. C. Keyser in 1854 at Salem. Six children survive.

CANADIAN ROAD MAN HERE

Passenger Agent Brodie Says Line Unhurt by Storms During Winter. H. W. Brodie, of Vancouver, B. C., general passenger agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway, was a business visitor in Portland Thursday and was the guest of Frank E. Johnson, president of the Portland Woman's Club, and Mrs. Elizabeth Pettinger, chairman of the educational committee of the State Federation.

SHRINERS TO GATHER

AL KADER TO GREET NOBLES FROM NORTH. Nilie Temple, Seattle; Affin Temple, Tacoma, and Gizeh Temple, Vancouver, B. C., Guests. Al Kader Temple will welcome in Portland today nobles from Nilie Temple of Seattle, Affin Temple of Tacoma, Gizeh Temple of Vancouver, B. C., and Shriners from many other parts of the Northwest who make a special pilgrimage to this city to take part in the ceremonial which will be held tonight and to return the visit of the nobles of Al Kader who made a pilgrimage to Nilie Temple November 30, about 100 strong. There will be between 150 and 200 Shriners in the party from the north, and they come in a train de luxe, of nine coaches, with club car, observation car and diners. The party is headed by the imperial marshal of the imperial council of North America, Ellis Lewis Garretson, of Tacoma, and escort John L. McLean, potentate of Nilie Temple of Seattle, and Charles P. Kimball, of Affin Temple of Tacoma. A message from Vancouver, B. C., indicates that the potentate of Gizeh Temple will also be in the party. Nilie Temple is sending its patrol of 40 uniformed men and Tacoma will be represented by its band and patrol. Potentate D. G. Tomasini, of Al Kader, has laid plans for an entertainment for the visitors, the best that the city can offer. Not only will local nobles of Al Kader be present, but a large representation of the out-of-town members is expected. The class of nobles at the ceremonial tonight numbers about 80. The visitors from the north will reach Portland today at 9 o'clock and will be met by the officials, patrol and band of Al Kader Temple and escorted to the Oregon Hotel for dinner. Thence after dinner they will march under the escort of the Al Kader Temple band through the principal streets of the city to the Masonic Temple, where the ceremonial will be held. The party will remain in Portland until tomorrow morning when it will begin its return trip to the cities of the north.

PROPRIETORS WITH WORD

Poolroom Men Say They Will Bar Gambling in Places. Sheriff Word was informed by a delegation of billiard-room proprietors which paid him a visit yesterday that the poolroom men of the city—those owning places not connected with saloons—have formed an organization and intend to stand with the Sheriff in his effort to eliminate gambling. Word told them that he has no particular objection to pool being played in their rooms on Sunday, but gambling will not be permitted on any day of the week. He asked the proprietors to report gambling to him and they said they would.

to report gambling to him and they said they would. The injunction obtained by J. J. Farber, proprietor of the Waldorf billiard parlor, against the Sheriff when the order was issued closing all poolrooms on Sunday, as well as those connected with saloons, will be proceeded against by District Attorney Evans on demurrer. Deputy District Attorney Murphy, who has charge of the case, says he will put up a fight, but expects to lose. Circuit Judge Gantenben held four years ago that the state Sunday closing law is invalid in that it discriminates by eliminating theaters from the necessity of closing. It has been suggested that the Legislature be appealed to for an amendment to the law eradicating this defect, but little hope is entertained that such a plea would be successful. It was tried four years ago, it is said, without effect. Last season 122 tourists were accidentally killed in the Alps.
