the confidence game. The younger, he thinks, has been initiated into the game by the man who poses as his father.

The duo gave their names as Frank Moyers, 34 years old, and Wilbert Otto Myers, who appears to be 21 years of age. The elder carries a pair of crutches, the younger goes about with his arm in a sling, and each says he suffers too badly with rheumatism to be able to work. The young lad had $15, which the older accounted for as his, saying it had been sent him by a sister in Sait Lake, but the boy admitted he had collected it during the past day or two.

Urgent Need Declared. Mrs. J. B. Comstock, who presided, declared that the urgent need for this home for girls would surely meet with response from all who understood the nature of the institution. She added that every donation, however small, would be gratefully received. The home will be built at Tenth and Montgomery streets and it is the desire of the comwill be built at Tenth and Montgomery streets, and it is the desire of the committee to break ground as near as possible to the annual meeting in May. The union is one of the pioneer institutions of Portland. It was founded in 1887. Among its activities, besides the home at 519 Flanders street, have been the appointment of a matron at the depot of the Q.-W. R. & N., the establishment of the woman's exchange, now an independent organization; and the furthering of travelers' aid and industrial work.

the furthering of travelers and and industrial work.

The present home for girls is declared totally inadequate to house the applicants that come continually, and it is with regret that so many young women in need of the shelter of a home have to be turned away.

Systematic Campaign Planned, The campaign for funds is to be carried on in a systematic way, with the various business houses and private individuals assigned to the active workers of the union. Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs. M. R. Hampson, Mrs. A. J. Meler and Mrs. Henry E. Jones are among the enthusiastic members of the organization. Prominent among those who have volunteered their assistance are: Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. J. Burgard, Mrs. C. E. Rumelin, Mrs. R. S. Bean, Mrs. S. Frank, Mrs. J. M. Ordway, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, Mrs. E. A. Borthwick, Mrs. H. B. Nicholas, Mrs. Seneca Smith and Mrs. I. N. Lipman. Mrs. Ralph R. Oregon City Young Woman Weds.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special)—Miss Julia Alice Kirke was married to George W. Smith at Canemah at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirke, Sunday. Mr. Edward rt. (Smith stood with the bridegroom, while Miss Hazel M. Cole attended the bride. The bride was beautiful in a wide reas of pale blue slik trimmed with pearls; while Miss Cole was charming in pink silk trimmed with white fur. Immediately following the ceremony a delicious dinner was served to 28 invited guests. After a brief wedding trip the young couple will return to Canemah, where they will make their future home.

The Junior League met yesterday of Over 20 Years' Effort on Behalf of Working Girls Without Making Any Appeals.

The Junior League met yesterday morning at the rectory of Trinity Church. In the absence of Miss Cornelia Cook, the president, who is at Panama and Mrs. Themas Scott Brooke, vice-president, who is in San Francisco, Miss Jean MacKenzie presided. Interesting reports were read by Mrs. Preston Smith, Miss Hazel Dolph made an appeal for a young woman needing help, an especially deserving case, and the members responded with a generous donation. Mrs. Kirkham smith reported on the work done by the Consumers' League. The members of the Junior League will assist actively at the tea to be given at the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett tomorrow for the benefit of the Visiting Nurses' Association yesterday the reports of the finance committee showed that many generous subscriptions had been received and that the business mon, the deep-thinking women, and in fact all whom they had approached had spoken encouragingly of the far-reaching work of the union. At this time, when so much is being said about the protection of the working girls home before the public.
