STOCK BROKER ON TRIAL

Stephen R. Dow Accused of False Statements Regarding Mines.

BOSTON, Feb. 12.—Stephen R. Dow, a stock broker, was put on trial today charged with fraudulently appropriat-ing about $300,000 from the North Lake, Algomah, Indiana and Franklin Mining Companies between the years of 1908 and 1912 while he was the president of each of the companies. Assistant District Attorney Webber said it would be shown, among other things, that Dow had made a false things, that Dow had made a faire statement regarding the company's mines in Michigan to the authorities of that state, and that in June, 1912, when there should have been $100,000 in the treasury of the Algomah Company the amount was only $21, while a month later this had dwindled to 72 cents.

CAMAS, Wash. Feb. 12.—(Special.)—
On agreeing that the wages of the girls should be increased to $1.25 a day March 1, providing they returned to work immediately at the old scale of $1.10, A. J. Lewthwalte, resident manager of the Crown-Columbia Paper Mill, succeeded today in ending the strike of the 40 girls in the bag department. The girls have been out since January 25, asking $1.50 a day. The strike automatically caused the laying off of 50 men.

Mrs. Miller said Hyde, who was not her "regular" physician, went into her room while the nurse was absent.

"He rolled back ine sleeve and said he was going to give me a hypodermic injection," said the witness.

"Did he prepare your arm in any way?"

"No."

Mrs. Miller said that after the injection her arm was nearly twice its normal size. The arm remained swollen and yet troubled her.

246 Washington St.

To My Friends and Patrons:

This is the fag end of a dull season. I have had a very successful reduction sale and many of my friends and patrons have taken advantage of this bona fide reduction. But to be fair to all my good friends and patrons, I will extend this reduction sale for three days longer, namely, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

I am doing this for the benefit of you and especially for my workingmen, so I can keep them busy to the first of March, when the season begins for merchant tailoring.

Therefore, for the next three days, starting this morning, I will absolutely sacrifice all profits on my woolens, including my new Spring arrivals. Notice the great sacrifice and you cannot help taking advantage of this exceptional opportunity.

You can pick your choice from my immense stock, including my celebrated English Blue . Worsted Serge. This is a splendid OPPORTU-NITY to secure your Spring Suit at ONE-THIRD OFF regular prices. With such strong inducements we expect to take enough orders to keep our men busy during the remainder of February -the dullest month on the calendar for tailors.

Remember, I use the highest grade of linings, such as mohair, serge, alpaca and farmer's satin.

I adopted this policy of using high-grade trimmings in all clothes made by me years ago.

MY GUARANTEE-I have been established in business over 20 years and the thousands of suits I have made testify to my ability and integrity. All garments are cut by me personally and all are made under my personal supervision.

Very truly yours,
