Preparation Made to Receive "Army" of Suffragists in Fitting Manner.

TROOPS IN GOOD CONDITION

Constance Leupp Says Women Have Not Suffered Greatly—She Arranges for Suffrage Cavalry to Meet Hikers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Miss Constance Leupp, who left New York with "General" Rosalie Jones' "army" of hikers, arrived here today as the advance guard to prepare for the remainder of the "army" when it arrives Thursday.

Miss Leupp, who is the daughter of a former Commissioner of Indian Affairs, said her companions on the hike all were in good condition and had not suffered greatly on the tramp toward the capital. She returned to Baltimore late today to be with "General" Jones on the formal entry into Washington.

It has been decided that "General" Genevieve Wimsatt, commander of the cavalry division of the suffrage pageant, and a detachment of her troops will gallop out to Hyattsville, Md., on Thursday morning and act as the escort to the hikers. Miss Leupp said the "army" would leave Baltimore Wednesday morning and would leave Laurel the next morning for Washington.

Miss Agnes Paul, head of the suffrage movement, issued instructions today that the American and suffrage flags should be carried side by side at the head of the pageant on March 3, as well as at the head of each division, so that it would "represent our National honor and National hope that women as well as men be patriotic citizens."

"ARSON TRUST" HIT AGAIN

Second of Score of Alleged Members Is Convicted.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The so-called "arson trust" was dealt another blow today when the second of a score of its alleged members under arrest was convicted. A Supreme Court jury deliberated less than an hour before finding George C. Grutz, an insurance broker, guilty of arson in the second degree. Justice Goff remanded him for sentence Friday, when Grutz and Robert J. Robin, an insurance adjuster, who was convicted last week, will face a maximum prison term of 25 years.

Grutz, like Robin, was arrested after Isadore Stein, a Sing Sing Prison convict known as "fuzzy the painter," confessed his work of incendiarism through which insurance companies lost heavily by fraudulent collection on policies. Grutz wept when convicted and shouted that he was a victim of perjured testimony.

WEDDING START IS HALTED

Auditor Finds Out Bride-to-Be Has Been Too Soon Divorced.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—When A. M. Fietzsch and Mrs. Helen L. Hart appeared at the office of the County Auditor today and requested a marriage license Charles Kirch, deputy, began making it out and then asked the witness, A. F. Squiers, to take oath that neither of the applicants had been divorced within the past six months.

A hair was called and it was apparent something was wrong. The witness said everything was all right so far as he knew, but later it was learned that the woman had been divorced only a short time, and that she and her former husband had agreed not to trouble the other in case either sought to get married.

"Then we will go to Vancouver, B. C., and get married," stoutly averred Mrs. Hart.

"No we won't," said the wanted-to-be-groom, attempting to quiet the disappointed widow.

And they returned to Portland, from whence they had come.

FRIGATE NIPSIC TO BE SOLD

Sole Survivor of Apla Hurricane in 1889 Now at Bremerton.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Bids for the old wooden frigate Nipsic, built more than 30 years ago, opened today at the Navy Department, showed that the highest bidder was George J. Willey, who offered $775 for the vessel, which is now at the Puget Sound Navy Yard. She is 125 feet long and of 1100 tons displacement.

The Nipsic was the sole American survivor of the Samoan hurricane, which, in 1889, destroyed all of the other vessels of the international fleet gathered in Apla harbor with the exception of the British cruiser Calliope. The Nipsic was driven ashore, but was afterward floated, repaired and used as a station ship at Puget Sound for many years.

In addition to Mrs. Cothron, other members of the Wilson family who are likely to be White House figures in the next Administration are Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe and Mrs. Jarris E. Kirk. They both doubtless will be in Washington the first week after the inauguration as already plans are being made for a Wilson family reunion at the White House just after Mr. Wilson becomes President of the United States.

Mrs. Howe is the wife of the only son of Mr. Wilson's only sister. She is a Virginia woman. Her husband, James Wilson Howe, has taken a modest home in Washington and the Howes family will remain at the capital through the Wilson Administration.

MANN ACT IS UPHELD

TRAFFIC IN WOMEN DECLARED SUBJECT FOR REGULATION.

Supreme Court Rules White Slavery May Be Curbed Same as Shipping of Diseased Cattle.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—On the theory that traffic in women in interstate commerce may be regulated by legislation as well as the traffic in drugs, goods or cattle, the Supreme Court of the United States upheld today the validity of the Federal white slave traffic act of 1910. It had been contended this question of morality was reserved for action by the states. Justice McKenna delivered the court's opinion.

"Our dual form of government has its perplexities," said he, "state and Nation having different spheres of jurisdiction, but it must be kept in mind that we are one people and that the powers reserved to the states and those conferred on the Nation are adopted to be exercised, whether independently or concurrently, to promote the general welfare, material and moral. This is the effect of the decisions and surely, if the facility of interstate transportation can be taken away from the de-

LEADER IS ARRESTED

Mrs. Pankhurst Held Because of Bomb Explosion.

NEWS GREETED BY CHEERS

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst was arrested today in connection with the destruction of the country residence of David Lloyd-George by a bomb explosion last week. The warrant for Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest was issued today by a Police Magistrate at Epsom near Lloyd-George's country house. It charges the suffragist leader with "incitement to commit damage." Mrs. Pankhurst is to be arraigned at Epsom tomorrow.

Cheers Great Announcement.

The announcement of her arrest was made at a big suffragist meeting in London today and was received with cheers.

Under the malicious damage act, the offense with which Mrs. Pankhurst is charged is punishable with penal servitude for a term of 14 years.

Mrs. Lillian Lenton, who was detained for trial on Thursday for setting fire to buildings in the Kew Botanical Gardens, was released today on the ground of ill health. She started a hunger strike on entering the House of Detention and had not eaten anything since that day.

Submission Causes Anger.

Public feeling is high against the surrender on the part of the authorities every time a suffragette goes on a hunger strike. Unless the government announces in the King's speech its determination to introduce legislation to cope with the subject, the opposition will move an amendment to the address.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Supreme Court of the United States today ended the attack of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway upon the validity of the Barker act of Arkansas, which required the furnishing of cars upon request of shippers, by directing the dismissal of the railway's suit in the Federal Courts of that state.

The court declined to annul the law as being a regulation of interstate commerce, but did not find it necessary to decide the validity of the law from all attacks because of the showing made in the "bill" instituting the suit.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—President Taft's nomination of Clinton W. Howard to be Federal Judge for the Eastern District of Washington was approved today by the Senate Judiciary Committee, but owing to the existing situation in the Senate, the nomination probably will not be confirmed. # RIAL'S BOND INCREASED

ALLEGED SWINDLER'S HEARING SET FOR MARCH 3.

Developments Seem to Show That "Bunco" Men Had Organization of National Scope.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 24.—Lee Rial, alleged leader of a National swindling syndicate, charged with having "fleece" G. P. Friesz, an Illinois farmer, out of $5000, appeared today before Township Justice Reeve, who set his preliminary examination for March 3 and increased his bail for $5000 cash or $10,000 bond to $10,000 cash or $15,000 bond.

Rial, who had been free under cash bail was remanded into the custody of the Sheriff while he attempted to obtain the increase in sureties necessary to continue his freedom.

Justice Reeve said the increase in bail was caused by the seeming far-reaching angles of the case, which was alleged to be part of a National scheme of alleged "bunco" men to "trim" tourists.

Officers left Los Angeles tonight for San Francisco to bring back here for trial Charles Duby, alleged treasurer of the so-called "bunco syndicate," who was arrested in the Northern city last night.
