'AT HOME' IS CLUB'S PLAN

of numbers of Portland students of Oregon history.

The Waverly Golf Club will attract society today. Those who are enthusiasts of the game will be found on the links, their bright colored sweaters and jackets lending a dash of color. On the plaza and in the clubhouse will be gathered several groups taking tea. The women are practicing every week preparing for the big tournament which is to take place in May. Among those who are playing in excellent form this season are: Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. W. B. Ager, Mrs. J. C. Almsworth, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Antoinette Labbe, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Miss Caroline Flanders, Miss Sallie Lewis, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Jean MacKenzie and others.

Mrs. Charles E. Wolverton was hostess recently at one of the most attractive bridge parties of the season. After the game a few additional friends joined the bridge guests for an informal tea.

Mrs. Fletcher Linn has asked in a few neighborhood friends for Friday afternoon, when she will entertain quite informally for Mrs. Howell, of Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Howell came from the East recently to be with Mrs. J. H. Boyd in her illness. Mrs. Boyd is now recovering, having passed the danger point several days ago and the friends to whom she has endeared herself are rejoicing at her improvement.

The members of the Irvington Club are anticipating the informal club dance that is to be the event of Friday evening at the cozy clubhouse. The invitations say that "a big surprise" awaits all who attend. The parties given by this organization are always delightful, and this is to be a particularly interesting affair.

The many friends of Mrs. R. W. Blackwood will be pleased to hear that she is recuperating from her serious accident of 10 days ago. She is at her home, 681 Tillamook street, Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock were hosts at a delightful dinner and theater party Monday evening. Their guests included Miss Claire Houghton, Mrs. Frank G. Owen, Joseph Ferguson and Maurice E. Crumpacker. Supper at one of the local grills rounded out the evening's gaiety.

Mrs. Henry Russell Talbot is passing several weeks in Santa Barbara. She will return to Portland just before Easter.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage at Roxbury, Mass., February 20, of Charles M. Stow, formerly connected with the news staff of the Oregonian, and Miss Beattie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Taylor, of Roxbury, Mr. and Mrs. Stow will be at home after April 1 at 5 Wellington Court, Roxbury. Mr. Stow is now connected with the editorial staff of the Christian Science Monitor of Boston.

RANK FORGERIES FOUND

SAN FRANCISCO REGISTERED COUPLE 'BEAT' HOTEL HERE.

Miss Josephine Blount and Arthur Pearsall "Put One Over" When Same "Game" Is Worked.

Nothing in the appearance of Miss Josephine Blount indicated that she was other than a modest young woman, attractive and quite fashionable, during her several days' stay at the Multnomah hotel. Neither was the demeanor of Arthur Pearsall, plausible, neatly-dressed young man, such as to arouse suspicion during his concurrent stay at the same hostelry. Both registered last week as from San Francisco, but at the time they did not appear to be acquainted.

So it was a sad blow to several trusting clerks and other attaches when two certified checks on San Francisco banks, the one indorsed by Miss Blount and the other by Mr. Pearsall, came back, early this week, branded by the purported banks of issue as rank forgeries. Rudely awakened, the management proceeded to the office of the District Attorney and procured felony informations against the pair, and warrants are now in the hands of the Constable, with an infinitesimal chance of serving them.

Miss Blount arrived at the hotel last week, alone. Her manner of conduct-herself was unobtrusive and she managed to inspire the hotel people with confidence while not making any obvious attempt to the end. About the same time, but independently, Mr. Pearsall arrived. He cultivated an extensive lobby acquaintance, but appeared entirely solvent and made none of the small "breaks" which usually lay the hotel beat open to suspicion. So, when he proffered what appeared to be a certified check for $100 on a San Francisco bank, the paper was accepted without suspicion. Then Mr. Pearsall suddenly disappeared, forgetting to pay a bill of $50 for hotel services.

When the two checks came back simultaneously, the similarity of the two transactions caused inquiry to be made, and it was then found that the man and woman, though avoiding each other in the more public places of the hotel, had taken their meals together frequently in secluded nooks of the restaurant. That they are a pair of "hotel beats" is not questioned. Little prospect is seen of their being captured unless they repeat the performance in some other city.

Divorce Decrees Granted.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 25.—(Special).—Decrees of divorce were granted by Circuit Judge Campbell today in the following cases: Effa M. Shields against T. Edward Shields, Marie Chatfield against Chester W. Chatfield and Anna Mitchell against Jacob L. Mitchell.

Gresham Library to Be Dedicated. The new Gresham Library building will be dedicated Saturday at 3 P. M. according to the announcement of Miss Mary Frances Isom, librarian. W. L. Brewster, of the Library Board, will preside. Remarks will be made by Theodore Brugger, Mayor Shattuck, G. R. Robinson, W. W. Cotton, F. H. Crane, H. L. St. Clair and others. The building has been inspected for acceptance by the County Court. The building cost $10,000. Ground was purchased and donated by citizens.

Heppner Improvements Expected. HEPPNER, Or., Feb. 25.—(Special).—Extensive improvements of streets will be undertaken this Summer. The Heppner Light & Water Company has promised a new lighting system.
