The names are thought to be fictitious. All are married women, gowned in the height of fashion and all bearing the outward appearance of respectability.

They made statements showing that they held themselves subject to telephone calls to meet men at Mrs. Ayers' house. Beer sold at $1 a pint and champagne at $5 a pint, they say. Mrs. Ayers they said, took one-third of the proceeds. Their evidence, if given in pursuance to their statements, is believed by District Attorney Evans to be fully sufficient to establish a case of white slavery. of white slavery.

The proprietor of the house has been in the limelight frequently in the past two years. She was the victim of a diamond robbery when she left her gems in a downtown grill, and later recovered them by a midnight visit to a graveyard. The chauffeur who acted as go-between in the recovery was indicted for laregny, but was acquitted. Later Mrs. Ayers was wanted as a witness in the Goodeve-Thompson breach of promise suit, and withstood a long siege in her house before she accepted service and appeared on the witness stand, MAN RESCUED FROM HOLE Searchlights and Rope Required to Ald George Edwards.

Electric searchlights and a rope owered through the sidewalk were required Saturday night to rescue George Edwards, 27 years old, a laborer, from the 15-foot excavation between An-keny and Ash, Fifth and Sixth streets, after he had fallen through the railing around it.

Edwards, who was partially disabled, Park. could not find means of egress from the hole, and Patrolman Hatt was lowered by Patrolmen Holland and Nelson, to fasten a rope about Edward's shoulders. He was hauled to the street level and taken to the police station, after which Hatt was hauled up.

WOMEN THAT MEN ADMIRE

It is true men admire a pretty for and a good figure, but sooner or late they learn that it is the healthy, hap they learn that it is the healthy, happy woman that is most of all to be admired. Women who are troubled with nervousness, backache, the blues or other symptoms incident to female ills that drag a woman down to despair, should not forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy and should at least give it a trial.
