

LOVE FEAST MARKS END OF CONGRESS

Senators and Representatives Mingle Good Byes With Work on Measures.

POSTAL BILL IS SETTLED

Following Adoption of Conference Report by Senate, Act Is Prepared for Submission to President at Once.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Over-shadowed by the enthusiasm attending the arrival of a Democratic President-elect and the holding of a suffrage carnival, the 65th Congress began today to say its farewells and to prepare for the termination of its business at noon tomorrow.

By a fiction of long standing, the "legislative day" of March 3 will run through tonight and terminate shortly before noon tomorrow with the impressive ceremonies attending the inauguration of Vice-President Marshall.

Retiring members who have been in Congress for a score or more years bade goodbye to their colleagues tonight and cleaned out their desks for the exodus from the capitol.

Retiring members who have been in Congress for a score or more years bade goodbye to their colleagues tonight and cleaned out their desks for the exodus from the capitol.

Both houses recessed at 5 o'clock tonight, the Senate for two hours and the House for three. They were prepared to sit well through the night if necessary to dispose of conference reports on appropriation bills, but it was believed late in the evening that both houses would be able to recess for a few hours during the early morning.

Six appropriation bills remained in dispute when the evening sessions began and serious fights were threatened over the two battleship programs in the naval bill and over the Indian, public building, executive and sundry civil bills.

Distinguished visitors appeared today on the floors of both houses, Governors Sulzer of New York, Cox of Ohio and McCreary of Kentucky among them. Senator-elect Vandamm, of Mississippi, was a picturesque figure in the Senate in the afternoon session.

Love Feast Held. In a general political love feast tonight the Republicans of the House presented a watch to Representative James R. Mann, of Illinois, the minority leader, and the Democrats presented a silver fruit dish to Charles R. Crisp, parliamentary clerk, who enters the next House as a member from Georgia.

The Senate then took up the public buildings bill in another effort to pass that measure as it came from the conference committee.

The galleries of the Senate and House were filled with spectators at midnight. The House passed tonight the Wilson Seaman's bill as amended by the Senate.

Another effort to secure an agreement by the House to the Senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill providing for two battleships, and thus break the deadlock in conference on the measure, failed shortly after midnight.

On a roll call the House voted to insist on its one-battleship provision 168 to 144. The House requested a further conference.

All attempts to enact the workmen's compensation bill were abandoned in the State. Senator Sutherland, in charge of the bill, assured Senator Hoke Smith, opposed to the measure, that he considered it futile to press the bill and would not do so.

delays, was a great success. Passing through two walls of antagonistic humanity the marchers for the most part kept their tempers. They closed their ears to ribes and jeers. Few faltered, although several of the older women were forced to drop out from time to time.

"General" Jones Get Ovation. The greatest ovation, probably, was given to "General" Rosalie Jones, who led her little band of "likers" from New York over rough roads and through snow and rain to march for the cause.

When the women assembled in Continental Hall, the first resolution adopted, to be presented to President Wilson after his inauguration tomorrow, called on him to demand of Congress a thorough investigation of the causes for the "poor police protection," which would have been a disgrace to any city, but which was doubly so here with a further demand that the responsible authorities be punished for their indifference and negligence.

The opening address by Dr. Anna Shaw, president of the National American Women's Suffrage Association, was a bitter exhortation of the police.

Need of Ballot Cited. "Never was I so ashamed of our National capital before," she said. "If anything could prove the need of the ballot, nothing could prove it more than the treatment we received today. The women in the parade showed wonderful dignity and self respect by keeping cool in the midst of insults and lewd jeers. Hoodlums were given possession of the streets here today without any adequate attempt being made to protect us."

Several Garrison Villard, of New York, grandson of William Lloyd Garrison, at the conclusion of Dr. Shaw's address, read the resolution which she had read in her speech, calling for congressional investigation and it was adopted amid cheers.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Suffrage Association, declared that members of Congress should demand an investigation. Many of the men along the line, she declared, "were drunk enough for the job."

In no other Nation but Switzerland, she said, have the women been forced to take their appeal for the vote "to the rabble."

WOMEN WIN PARTIAL VICTORY

Indiana Suffragists Storm Senate Chamber With Telling Results.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 3.—Women suffrage in Indiana won a victory today when, after more than 600 women marched to the statehouse, swarmed onto the floors of the Senate and argued their cause with cornered legislators.

The largest list of vacancies comes from the list of postmasters.

Colonel Ayre Yet Single. BAKER, Or., March 3.—(Special.)—Colonel W. G. Ayre, the capitalist of Baker, was not married in Honolulu as reported and is still a bachelor.

Two minors were released yesterday morning by Judge Farwell on condition that they showed to the police officers the saloon from which they secured the liquor which made them drunk on Saturday night. They took Captain Ripley to a saloon conducted by Herman Schaffner at 525 Washington street.

GOLD DUST does more than clean

Gold Dust sterilizes and leaves your kitchen things sanitarly safe. The ordinary soap-washed utensil is not fit to eat from, because soap does not cleanse as thoroughly as it should—does not kill germs of decay which are bound to lurk in oft-used utensils.

Gold Dust does most of the cleaning without your assistance, and does it, too, in a quicker and more thorough manner than will soap or other cleansers.

Gold Dust makes pot and pan spick and span.

Opportunity is Knocking at Your Door. Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work!

For several months we have been telling you what Hood's Sarsaparilla is made of and the ailments it has been curing for more than a third of a century. Below we give a letter telling particulars of one of the many cures it has effected, and we leave it to you to say how many and how strong adjectives we might truthfully use in introducing a letter of this character. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

208 Upper Front St. "Exeter, N. H., May 27, 1912. "Gentlemen:—It is with the sincere purpose of benefiting others I write what Hood's Sarsaparilla did for me. "On getting up one morning I found what seemed to be a mosquito bite on the calf of my right leg. Soon the eruption grew larger and continued day after day, becoming more and more troublesome. The physician advised poulticing, and I soon found I had a running sore. It ate steadily into the flesh, discharged freely, and grew worse. Another physician told me to use a rubber bandage, but the sore grew worse until I said he had seen many bad sores, but none equal to mine. "One day a neighbor, Mrs. Buckley, spoke of the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, and I said 'I don't think such a simple thing as Hood's Sarsaparilla would do me any good.' But my husband joined in urging me to try Hood's, and as he bought a bottle, I thought I might as well take it. Before I finished that first bottle, I suffered less pain and could see the edges of the sore beginning to heal. As I kept on with the medicine, new flesh formed, the raw surface diminished, and after using ten bottles the Sore Was Completely Healed and My General Health Perfect. "I am able to work every day, weigh 175 pounds, my leg never gives me any trouble, and I use it the same as any other. I believe it my duty to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla did for me, and I praise it to all my friends." Mrs. Josephine Sargent.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Having cured such a tenacious case of scrofulous impurity as that described above,—and it has cured many other cases,—is certainly to be relied upon for all troubles caused or promoted by impure or low state of the blood.
