OPIUM SMUGGLERS TAKEN IN PORTLAND

Trio With $7500 Worth of Drug Arrested on Arrival at Union Depot.

ONE WOMAN IS IN PARTY

Gang Is Trailed From Canadian Border—150 Five-Tael Tins Found in Luggage of Prisoners Bound for Big Hotel.

More than $7500 worth of pure opium was seized and three persons, one of them a woman, were arrested last night when inspectors under Collector of Customs Malcolm, with the assistance of the special agent's department, trailed a gang of smugglers from Seattle to Portland and took them into custody as they stepped from a train at the Union Depot and were about to enter a bus to take them to one of Portland's biggest hotels.

Those arrested gave the names of J. W. Rodgers, Marian Bergman and Charlie Looley. They were immediately taken to the offices of the United States Attorney, where they were given a severe grilling. The opium, which was in a trunk, three telescopes and a hand grip, consisted of 150 five-tael tins, each of which is worth about $50.

Receiving information through the special agent's department that the opiate would be smuggled over the border from Canada, presumably from Vancouver or Victoria, B. C., an inspector was assigned to go with the party and follow their course south on the Shasta Limited. The trip landed them in Portland early last night and on their arrival they were immediately seized and their luggage confiscated.

The seizure of opium is the largest in several years and is bigger than that of December, 1911, when 40 tins, worth about $1500, were taken and Chue Yuey was arrested, convicted and given a sentence. During the last few weeks information of a number of smugglers' workings was received and on this information a raid into Chinatown was made Saturday night. Although the presence of a large quantity of the drug was known, the inspectors were unable to find any, after they had penetrated the recesses of an underground rookery and "getaway" on Fourth street North, in the new Chinatown.

CIVIC LECTURE SCHEDULED

Professor Ogburn Speaks on Commission Form Tonight.

The seventh lecture of Professor Ogburn, of Reed College, under the auspices of the Civic Progress Circles of Oregon, will be devoted entirely to an explanation and discussion of the commission form of city government. This lecture will be given tonight at Eilers hall, Seventh and Alder streets, at 8 o'clock and all citizens, both men and women, are cordially invited to attend. Admission is free, and every citizen interested in good government is welcome to come and ask questions, obtain information and join in the discussion that always follows these lectures

This topic is being much debated in the press, on the street and in the various civic clubs, and many prominent citizens have already promised to attend this lecture and join in the discussion. It is an opportunity to obtain reliable information on a measure that will be voted upon in the next city election.

$20,000 IN PRIZES OFFERED

Student Farm Product Contest in Washington Takes Form.

OLYMPIA, March 5.—(Special.)—Prizes of a total valuation of approximately $20,000 will be divided among the boys and girls of the State of Washington during the present year, says C. L. Smith, agriculturist of the O.-W. R. & N. Company, of Portland, who is working with the newly established Boys' and Girls' Agricultural and Industrial Contest Association of Washington.

The state is divided into ten districts, each under a vice-president. In each school district of every county contests will be held, the winners being eligible to compete in the county exhibit later. The winners of the county exhibitions will then compete in a state-wide contest, probably held next October in Spokane.

BAD CHECKS CAUSE ARREST

Man Held Here Also Believed Fugitive From Philadelphia.

J. B. Byers, 35 years old, was arrested last night by Detectives Hyde and Vaughn and charged with having obtained money under false pretenses. He is said to have written checks totaling several hundred dollars, representing that he had an account in the Lumbermens National Bank, where no account stands to his credit. Letters written by his wife indicate that he is wanted in Philadelphia.

Byers is said to have passed a bad check on a liquor store, two others on clothing stores, one on a department store and one on a hotel. He carried a card representing him to be an official of the West Coast Engineering Company. He is said to have no connection with the company.

SPECIAL EDITION SOON OUT

Junction City Editor Prepares Illustrated Issue for April 15.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—S. L. Moorhead, editor of the Junction City Times, declares that about April 15 he intends publishing an illustrated edition, in which will appear detailed accounts of the improvements that have taken place in this city during the past five years.

In 1908 an illustrated edition was published by Editor Moorhead and it was a credit to the city. This second edition will be much larger in every way and will not only include Junction City, but all of North Lane County.

Pictures of prominent citizens will appear, as well as scenes of the various industries.

MARSHFIELD MEN BUNCOED

William Edmonds' Whereabouts Now Puzzle to Many.

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—Several Marshfield business men would like to ascertain the whereabouts of William Edmonds, who succeeded in passing a number of bad checks on them and then made his escape. Edmonds went from here to Portland and the police of that city have been asked to help locate him so that he may be returned here and face his misdeeds.

Edmonds came here last Fall and in company with George Smith was interested in a small Coos River cannery. In the transaction of the business of the cannery he carried a small checking account at one of the banks and made it a point to get well acquainted with the various merchants in the city, and in payment for small purchases gave checks. So when on Washington's birthday, when the banks were closed, and also Saturday, Edmonds came to town and made a round of the various stores and had a check ready in each instance with which to pay for a trifling purchase and getting the cash in exchange for the difference between the price of the article and the check. This method netted him a considerable sum and he finally appeared at one of the places with a check purported to be drawn by Smith in his favor for which he received the cash. This has since been pronounced a forgery.

Edmonds took the Breakwater Saturday for Portland. The holiday gave him two days in which to make his getaway, Sunday following it, and when it was discovered that the checks were no good Edmonds was in Portland and had made good his escape.

FAIR CIRCUIT FORMED

LANE, DOUGLAS AND JACKSON COUNTIES IN COMBINE.

Recently Enacted Law Abolishing District Exhibits Responsible for Southern Oregon Chain.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—As the result of the recent procedure of the Oregon Legislature in abolishing district fairs, residents of Lane, Jackson and Douglas counties met here today and organized what will be known as the Southern Oregon Fair Circuit. The organization will be affiliated with the North Pacific Fair Association, which recently met at Salem.

The first fair on the Southern Oregon circuit will be held at Medford on September 10, 11, 12 and 13, followed by Roseburg's fair on September 17, 18, 19 and 20. Lane County's fair will be held at Eugene September 24, 25, 26 and 27. From Eugene most of the stock and exhibits will be shipped to Salem for the State Fair, which will be held the following week.

The racing programmes for the three Southern Oregon fairs are as near uniform as it was possible to make them. They include the usual trotting, pacing and running events. The purses for each of the three fairs aggregate $3775. As far as financing their respective fairs, the three counties included in the organization will be distinct, their affiliation being chiefly for the purpose of arranging race cards and dates which will not conflict.

CREAMERY IS ORGANIZED

Philomath Will Have $5000 Co-operative Industry Soon.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 5.—(Special.)—Dr. James Withycombe, who addressed a large meeting of farmers and business men at Philomath last night, reports to the extension division of the college that those in attendance perfected an organization and subscribed $2500 in cash for the opening of a creamery at that point. The enterprise will be co-operative and capitalized at $5000.

Three hundred and fifty cows are already placed and the wide interest in the movement predicts its success.

Chris Myhre, of Junction City, also spoke. C. C. Rice was elected president of the board of directors, which consists of J. Henderson, C. Bick, A. O. Horton, of Philomath, and Messrs. Davis, Bostick and Hall, of Blodgett.

Today Dr. Withycombe went to Junction City to lecture before the Lane County Horticultural Society. His subject was "Rural Co-operation."

Notes From St. Johns

ST. JOHNS, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—The brick building at 303 Philadelphia street is being remodeled and a new front put in. When finished it will be occupied by the North Bank Pharmacy.

The City Council met in regular session last night. A number of street improvements were discussed and placed in proper hands for disposal. A committee of five from the fire department was present and asked the Council for permission to give a celebration July 4, and that all concessions be turned over to the fire "boys" for the occasion. The Council expressed its willingness to grant the request, so far as they were concerned, though the fact was brought out there would be a new Council in force before the celebration. The Council, however, decided to extend all privileges and assistance possible to the fire laddies.

The St. Johns Gas Company received today a number of handsome gas ranges and one gas laundry stove, the first to enter this city.

The St. Johns City Council has under consideration the proposition of purchasing an apparatus and team and establishing a paid department.

HORSES' CARE PLEA

Humane Society Wants Sand on Slippery Streets.

$700 DUE UNDER CONTRACT

Bill for $700 Presented to Council Committee by Attorneys Who Defended Bribery Case Against Mayor in 1912.

Delay in the putting into operation an ordinance appropriating $750 for the sanding of streets was denounced by Robert Tucker, president of the Oregon Humane Society, who appeared before the ways and means committee of the City Council yesterday. Mr. Tucker also represented the Portland Horseowners' Association. He blamed Superintendent Donaldson, of the street cleaning department, whose attitude, he said, had been against the sanding of the streets.

Acting Mayor Baker said that he had a talk with Mr. Donaldson, and that he was sure that if the street-cleaning department could be given a list of streets where sand was needed the work would be done. This was satisfactory to Mr. Tucker, who agreed to call up the street-sprinkling department whenever the streets are in slippery condition, designating the places where sand is needed.

It was decided to appropriate $700 to be expended in taking care of the flow of water from Hawthorne Springs, in accordance with a contract made with the Hawthorne estate in 1908, during the Lane administration. At that time the city agreed to expend $1000 in taking care of the water, but for some reason only $300 was used, the balance reverting to the general fund. A representative of the Hawthorne estate asked that the contract be completed at this time, and on the advice of City Attorney Grant, who said that the contract was still binding on the city, it was decided to make the appropriation, with the provision that the money shall be spent under the supervision of the City Engineer.

The bill of $700, presented by Attorneys Dan J. Malarkey, W. C. Benbow and John F. Logan, for defending Mayor Rushlight and Chief of Police Slover against indictments for bribery a year ago, was laid on the table, action to be deferred until it is possible to learn Mayor Rushlight's attitude.

Acting Mayor Baker explained that the Mayor knows nothing of the bill, and that he may not approve of its being paid by the city. City Attorney Grant said that there was no legal obligation on the part of the city to pay the bill, but that the Council may authorize payment if it sees fit.

"TEA PARTY" IS ENJOINED

Importers Complain Product Was Condemned Secretly.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The "tea party" which Collector William Loeb, Jr., planned to give tomorrow by dumping 2217 packages of tea, condemned as impure and unwholesome, into New York Harbor, was prevented by an injunction granted today by Judge Hand in the Federal Court on the motion of the importers.

The petitioners recite that the examination which resulted in the condemnation of the tea was ex-parte and that the board of appraisers in affirming the findings acted secretly. Arguments on the motion to make permanent the injunction will be made Friday.

Coos Bay Coal Being Used.

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—Coos Bay mines are furnishing the coal for the use of the steam shovels and locomotives being used in the construction of the Willamette-Pacific in the vicinity of Gardiner. Two big barge loads of 500 tons each were taken out by the Roscoe this week and they now have other barges here and en route to be loaded at the local mines.

Albany Building Now Assured.

ALBANY, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—As the result of the signing of the public building bill by President Taft, Albany will secure its Federal building this year. This bill carried an appropriation of an additional $10,000 for Albany's building and as the plans for the structure have been approved heretofore bids will be called for at once and it is expected that the work of actual construction will begin within a few weeks. The original appropriation for Albany's Federal building, which was made by Congress three years ago, was $65,000. A site was purchased and cleared, but when bids were called for all were in excess of the appropriation. It has been necessary to wait, therefore, for this additional appropriation.

St. Paul is being urged to create a boulevard system to connect all its parks.

Worried by a Hacking Cough But Found Relief.

MRS. CHARLES WOODS.

"About two years ago I took a severe cold that settled on my lungs and for several months I was annoyed day and night with a dreadful dry hacking cough. I lost weight and became very much debilitated, was run down in health and worried constantly for fear I was going into consumption. After taking a number of different cough medicines without relief, I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and got a bottle of it. It had a soothing effect from the first. It loosened my cough and I steadily grew better until it disappeared altogether," writes Mrs. Charles Woods, Liverpool, N. Y. Many very remarkable cures of persistent and annoying coughs have been effected by this remedy.

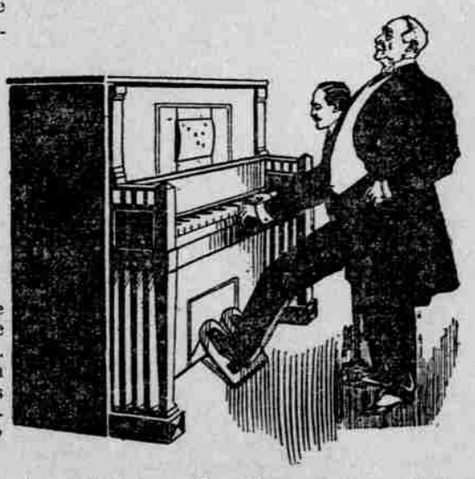
Five Are Taken and Four Still to Be Had

Why don't you enjoy it—the happy home life, the delightful musical evenings—the happy family? The picture tells the story of



The Genuine Autopiano, which is now brought within easy reach of every home. Only four of the nine of the new Style "V" that were placed on sale Monday remain—only four—note the price—pay $15 a month or even only $12 a month, but get one today.

The Autopiano is a superb instrument, which may be played either by hand or by means of perforated music rolls. It is undoubtedly the very best player piano made. The average music store would ask at least $750 for such a player piano as the new Style V. But under the Eilers plan of enormous buying, rapid selling and the small-Profit-per-piano policy, we supply it, with music rolls, for..... $567
