Then came a sharp fielding session, topped off by a mile run around the park, and all this was followed by a plunge in the tepid waters of the Visalia Club natatorium. The reporting of the Krause-Riordan-Heilmann contingent isaves only four absentees—Lindsay, McCormick, liynes and Fortier, and, while they should drift in before the close of the week, McCredie is somewhat rattled at their delay. The Beaver leader today virtually decided to ship Pitcher Hynes and Outfielder Fortier over to the Northwestern League before the close was Abel R. Kiviat, of the Irish American

In romping away with the two big

Oscar Jones, a veteran of the Coast League, outlawed by San Francisco, was out today in a suit and showed he was liable to come back. Jones was recently relastated and Hosan went for him.

Hogan put the Tigers through their usual hard work this morning, but no practice game was played. The workout consisted in chasing files and grounders and the pitchers took turns at tossing 'em over to the batters. The players are all getting into splendid condition, says Hogan, and with continued favorable weather for a few days all his troubles will be over for the training season.
