

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES. Printing Room Main 7670, A 6095. City Circulation Main 7670, A 6095.

AMUSEMENTS. HELIG THEATER (Eleventh and Morrison)—The comedy, "Huntly Pulls the Strings." Tonight at 8:15.

Advertisements Intended for the City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in the Oregonian business office by 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

PLAYGROUND IS PLANNED.—Montavilla school at East Seventy-ninth street will be provided with ample playgrounds as soon as the plans of the Board of Education are carried out.

HILD DEMURRER OVERRULED.—After hearing only the argument of Harrison Allen, of attorneys for the company, Circuit Judge McGinn yesterday morning overruled a demurrer interposed in state against F. W. Hild, general manager of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, who is under indictment on a charge of operating a streetcar without a proper driver.

NEW IMPROVEMENT CLUB BEING FORMED.—The preliminary organization of an improvement club was formed at the church building at East Fifty-second and East Lincoln streets Wednesday night.

CLUB WANTS LOCAL REGISTRATION.—In order to facilitate registration the Montavilla Board of Trade has started a movement to secure stations in different suburbs, where men and women may register without going to the Courthouse.

BIDS FOR TRAILERS OPENED.—Bids for between $13,000 and $15,000 worth of lumber to be used in all the streets of Vancouver and Kanton territories were opened by the County Court yesterday.

HIGHWAYMAN'S OUTFIT FOUND.—Indirect trace of one highwayman was found yesterday when a man named Crawford discovered, on the roof of building at Vancouver avenue and Russell street, a black mask and a bunch of keys which apparently had been tossed there by some fleeing criminal within the past few days.

SERVICES HELD TONIGHT.—Services will be held in Congregation Ahavah Sholom Synagogue, Park and Clay streets, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. Freeman and Alexander Samuels will sing the duet, "Peace to This Dwelling."

COMMITTEES OF ARRANGEMENT MEET.—All committees of arrangement for the Broadway bridge celebration will meet tonight in joint conference at the auditorium of the North Portland Library, Killingsworth avenue and Commercial street.

THE GOSPEL TRIUMPH IN THE WORLD will be Luther R. Dyott's theme in the First Congregational Church, at the corner of Park and Madison streets, tomorrow at 11 A. M. Palm Sunday praise service by the choir at 7:45.

COMMANDER MISS BOOTH will give an illustrated lecture, entitled "My Father," the late General William Booth, at the new Lincoln High School auditorium, corner Park and Market streets, Friday, March 14, at 8 P. M.

COUNTY COURT DENIES AID.—M. Mosessohn, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, met with failure yesterday morning in his efforts to induce the County Court to appropriate $500 to assist in the work of the Chamber of Commerce. In past years the county generally has contributed this amount.

IRVINGTON BOYS TO MEET.—E. R. Botaford, physical director of Reed College, who is assisting in installing squash courts and other improvements at the Irvington playgrounds, has called a meeting of the boys of Irvington Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

SERVICES TO BE HELD TONIGHT.—Services will be held at the Sixth Street Synagogue, Sixth and Hall streets, at 7:30 tonight. Mr. Scott Sanders will lecture on "Sins of Wackings." The morning service tomorrow is at 9 o'clock. All are welcome.

AT LAST IT'S COME.—All you hundreds of Portland girls and women who have looked forward to being "Royal" day to get the secret of a loaf of bread—get your cunning, novelty loaves today. Free from your dealer with your regular Royal loaf.

SILVERWARE at one-half off at Aronson's removal sale. 254 Wash. st. NEW IDEA PATTERNS, Hadelman News Company, 424 Washington street. LANTERN SLIDES, Gifford, Main 6572.

MOTOR LAW VIOLATION CHARGED.—Running an automobile past a streetcar as a woman and child were demourning, is charged against J. W. McFadden, of 323 East Forty-fourth street, by Patrolman Sherwood, who was an eye-witness. The incident occurred Wednesday at East Thirty-fifth street and Hawthorne avenue. Seeing that the automobile intended to pass the car, McFadden did not stop until his automobile was abreast of the head of the car. The defendant denies this, and each side will have an array of witnesses in court today.

FRANCHISE TO BE AMENDED.—The ordinance granting a franchise for a central heating station to the Northwestern Electric Company will be returned to the street committee of the Council by City Attorney Grant with recommendations that it be amended to require the company to deposit a bond of $25,000 to expand at least $15,000 on the plant, and that a cash bond of $1000 be required to insure the replacing of payments displaced for the installation. The ordinance also provides for the protection of the public as suggested by the City Attorney. The company has agreed to all his suggestions.

DOUBLE SENTENCE IMPOSED.—Double the maximum was the sentence imposed on Jesse Merritt when he appeared in Municipal Court yesterday in contempt of a recent pledge to the court, and he therefore will spend the next 30 days at the Linnton rockpile. Merritt has been almost a continuous prisoner for several years past. He was in less than a month ago and received a suspended sentence of 90 days and a fine of $200. This was put in effect yesterday on a similar penalty was imposed for his latest offense, to take effect after he has served the first.

MEAT IS CHEAPER.—Three markets in Portland have cut the price of meat to the scratch. Mutton stew at 8c, shoulders of mutton and beef to boil at 10c, pot roasts, 12c; legs of mutton, 15c. Frank L. Smith sells at these prices at his main market, 223 Alder street, near Second; at his market on Third st., near Yamhill, opp. Roberts Bros., and at his market, 223 Washington st., bet. First and Second. Smith is selling best sugar-cured hams or half hams at 18c, choicest breakfast bacon at 20c, lard in 5's, 45c; in 10's, 45c.

DR. CONKLIN'S SERIES TO END.—Contrary to the wishes of Ida Montgomery, his divorced wife, whom he shot through the lung in front of the Y. M. C. A. building several months ago, an indictment is almost certain to be returned by the grand jury against Byron Jenison. Mrs. Jenison, or Miss Montgomery, as she is now known, is now in California with her mother, Mrs. Mattie D. Wabry, who formerly ran a rooming-house at 355 Taylor street. Through John McCue, attorney for her ex-husband, Miss Montgomery sent a written request to District Attorney Evans asking him not to prosecute.

RESOLUTIONS OFFERED TOMORROW.—The committee consisting of W. D. Fen-ton, Cyrus A. Dolph, Wirt Minor, E. E. Heckbert and J. C. Moreland, appointed by Judge McGinn nearly two weeks ago to draft resolutions of respect concerning the late W. A. Clarend will report at a meeting of the Multnomah Bar which will be held in Judge McGinn's courtroom, tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock, at which time resolutions will be offered. NO PROSECUTION TO BE MADE.—Forty motorcycle riders who were caught in a raid by Sheriff Word upon a moving-picture show Tuesday night, will not be prosecuted, according to the District Attorney. They will be held under personal recognizances as witnesses against Sam Newman, who, the Sheriff said, had been given a number of alleged indecent pictures which were confiscated at the time of the raid.

FURGER IS SENTENCED.—For forging the signature of his attorney, O. P. M. Patterson, a railroad fireman received a sentence of six months in Municipal Court yesterday. The check was cashed by G. L. Kline, saloonkeeper, and Patterson was arrested by Patrolman Pressey.

BETH ISRAEL SERVICES ANNOUNCED.—"A Way to the Wilderness" will be the theme of Rabbi Wise's sermon at Beth Israel tonight. The service commences at 8 o'clock. Morning services tomorrow at 10:30. Men and women are welcome. The music will be in charge of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer.

LOAD ON OREGON'S BACK A Minority Who Enjoy Privileges Yet Buy Elsewhere, Even Life Insurance.

The general trend of the normal Oregonian is to be a member of a commercial club, ad club or some other organization for boosting and upbuilding Oregon. There are, however, a small minority of men here who "don't care." These cannot be counted on as upbuilders, yet on gala occasions they probably wear a booster's button. As these men are members of Oregon's progress may be classed as misfits or Oregon's undesirable citizens, notwithstanding that their names appear in the directory as engaged in business here. They use our schools, our churches and beautiful asphalt streets, built and paid for by Oregonians, but when they wish to purchase something, they selfishly send away for it, just because there is an apparent (but not so in reality) saving of a trifling amount. This particularly applies to life insurance where there is a tendency to ex-cuse of any kind for sending away from Oregon. Favored by our healthful climate added to careful selection of risks, Oregon Life Insurance Company is now issuing a superior policy at a cost of only 5 cents per day for each $1000 insurance at the age of 23, older ages are only a trifle higher. The money collected for premiums is all invested here and helps in the upbuilding of this commonwealth. The home office of Oregon Life is in the Corbett building, corner of Fifth and Morrison.

COMMANDER MISS BOOTH will give an illustrated lecture, entitled "My Father," the late General William Booth, at the new Lincoln High School auditorium, corner Park and Market streets, Friday, March 14, at 8 P. M. Admission free, reserve seats, 25c. Tickets can be obtained at Graves Music House.
