WOULD YOU KNOW A BARGAIN?

READ THE FOLLOWING:

191 acres of fine land. The soil is a deep, rich loam; slopes gently towards the river, thus insuring good drainage. Located 22 miles from Portland, 1 mile to station on Oregon Electric, ¼ mile Willamette River town and boat landing; 35 acres in high state of cultivation, balance fine timber and pasture, all fenced and cross-fenced. Fine large 9-room hard-finished 2-story house, resting on brick foundation; lawn, roses and shrubbery; large barn, equipped with hay fork and carrier; chicken-house, woodshed, smoke-house, hophouse, hop press and other outbuildings, main county road, R. F. D. and telephone. This fine farm is well worth $150 per acre, but the owner says sell it for $125 per acre and let the personal property go with it. Splendid young team worth $500; good brood mare; 5 cows, 1 calf, 9 hogs, two wagons, hack, buggy, harness, binder, mower and rake, 4 plows, 2 harrows, new seed drill, fanning mill, 2 cultivators, set blacksmith's tools, cider press, chickens and all small tools. Remember, an up-to-date farm, with splendid buildings, all kinds fruit, thoroughly equipped with everything necessary to run it, and we guarantee you can't buy unimproved land near it for the money we ask you for this. Price $12,625; about half cash, balance 5 years at 6 per cent.
