LOCAL LEAD GROWS

Y. M. C. A. Membership Contest Interest Stimulated.

SEATTLE SHOWING BETTER

Younger Members of Portland Association Beat Seniors in Day's Race—Basketball Game Is Feature for Tonight.

STANDINGS IN INTER-CITY Y. M. C. A. CONTEST.

Table with 3 columns: Boys, Seniors, Points. Portland 133 192 $124.75 275 720. Seattle 133 95 103.01 182 500.

Seattle made its best showing of the week yesterday in the inter-city membership contest of the Young Men's Christian Association. Although Portland increased its lead, it was by a comparatively small margin, and in seniors added Seattle was ahead by three on the day's work. The result was to stimulate interest among the Portland canvassers for they have felt all along that Seattle is holding back some of her points and they expect big reports from the north for the last two days of the contest. The younger members of the Portland association were jubilant last night, for yesterday they signed up 78 members to 41 for the senior department. On the week up to date, however, there have been 192 seniors and 153 juniors added. Seattle's returns yesterday showed 28 boys and 44 men enrolled during the day. The day's gain in points was: Portland, 106,054; Seattle, 82,006. The Seattle gains yesterday were slightly in excess of additions during the first three days of the race.

Diners Are Enthusiastic.

There was an enthusiastic crowd at the membership dinner last night. Nearly every one of the 20 teams had brought some kind of noise-maker and a furious din followed each announcement of additions to the membership. The men on E. J. Jaeger's side were particularly high-spirited, for they had won their third victory to one for W. L. Campbell's men. The score yesterday was 84,258 for the Jaeger team to 29,500 for the Campbell following. The Jaeger faction also leads on the contest up to date, 122,850 to 102,907. The men on that side are already looking forward to the turkey dinner that is to be provided the winning side by the losers.

Trips to Seattle Prize.

There will be eight men taken on an excursion to Seattle in case Portland wins. In addition to I. C. Cunningham and W. J. Clark, the high men now are: R. J. Clark, 15,840; R. T. Kruse, 14,175; W. A. Schmidt, 13,590; J. A. Day, 13,175; S. W. Harris, 12,080; L. M. Wooten, 5700. Among the ten-men teams those led by the following captains are ahead: W. A. Schmidt, 7,800; Dr. J. L. McCoel, 58,225; J. C. English, 50,100; Robert Krupke, 26,700; Warner McCormack, 17,175. A basketball game between business men of Salem and Portland will be a big feature at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. This game will be called at 8 o'clock and is open to everybody and free. The players are members of the business men's gymnasium classes of the two associations. They have met in several previous contests and there is great rivalry between them.

OPERATIC STARS INSURED

San Francisco Journalist Declares Ovation Nearly Wrecked Theater.

The tremendous ovation accorded the Chicago Grand Opera Company on its opening night in San Francisco is said to have come near shaking down the beautiful and substantial new Tivoli, if we may believe the naive account of that memorable occasion given by Thomas Numan the following morning in the San Francisco Examiner. He says: "I remember that Manager Dippe had taken the precaution, before starting on his Western tour, to insure Tetraxini, Garden and his other singers against calamity of every sort, the amount of the insurance being upward of $1,200,000. Perhaps he had not dreamed of the dangers of spontaneous combustion in the riotous enthusiasm with which the house was to be filled at the Tetraxini reception, and it probably had never entered into his mind that San Francisco would welcome home its prima donna Luisa in a way that would threaten to shake down the finest new opera-house in America. Yet, it seemed to me while the ovation was in progress that these dangers were not so remote."

MOVING-PICTURE STORY OF LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH PREACHES POWERFUL SERMON AT HEILIG THEATER.

SCENE FROM MOTION PICTURES "FROM THE MANGER TO THE CROSS." There are but four remaining performances of the famous motion picture, "From the Manger to the Cross," this and tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock, tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30. The life story of Jesus of Nazareth has been most vividly told by the splendid motion pictures at the Heilig Theater all this week, where thousands of people have been taught a sermon that words could never tell. The tremendous undertaking entered upon by the producers of this film, containing about 30,000 photographs, required eight months of artistic industry, the employment of specialists in authoritative research, 40 actors, hundreds of supernumeraries, droves of sheep and a caravan of camels—a kaleidoscopic procession.

LOMBARD IS QUESTIONED

INTEREST IN CIVIC MATTERS SHOWN BY WOMEN.

Information Bearing on Commission Government Sought After Address at Portland Union.

After addressing an assembly of recently-enfranchised voters for more than an hour at the Portland Women's Union last night, Gay Lombard, Republican candidate for Mayor, was bombarded with questions which showed remarkable interest on the part of those present regarding civic affairs, especially commission government. He was asked some questions which not even men of the city have asked of him before, indicating that the women have keen perception and are studying the question. "Is there any provision in the commission charter for pensions for firemen?" was a question asked by one young woman. "There is not," replied Mr. Lombard, "but a petition under the initiative is being circulated to that end. I signed it today. I believe the firemen entitled to such a provision and think their bill will pass."

RESEARCHERS REACH CITY

W. B. Holton, Jr., and C. A. Mackenzie to Begin Municipal Probe.

W. B. Holton, Jr., and C. A. Mackenzie, experts from the New York Bureau of Municipal Research, arrived in the city yesterday to take up the work of investigating the workings of the present form of government in Portland and to determine what changes can be made to better conditions. In a short conference with Mayor Rueshlight yesterday the Mayor told them that he had ordered the heads of all the departments to co-operate with them and to assist in every possible way. The plan is to finish the work by May 2. Dr. Henry Bruers, director of the New York Bureau of Municipal Research and an expert on commission government, will come to Portland

CITY'S GROWTH IS NOTED

N. J. Levinson, Formerly of Portland, Visiting Friends.

N. J. Levinson, of Fresno, Cal., for many years on the editorial staff of The Oregonian, is in the city after an absence of two years. "Yes, the town has changed," he said. "Still, I found my way to The Oregonian office without a pilot. It does not seem natural to have to look up the straight walls of a canyon in order to see the sky, and the invisibility of Mount Hood is almost distressing."

Parcel Post Stamps Are Postmistress Puzzle

Suburban Station Head, Declaring Postal Regulations "Mighty Strict," Would Return New Stickers.

It was a little old woman, postmistress of a suburban station, who came to Postoffice Inspector Durand with all the parcel post stamps that had been sent to her office. They had been sent without preliminary notice, and this was one postmistress who had not heard of the inauguration of the parcel post. "I don't see how I can use these," she said. "Why not?" asked the inspector. "Well, you can see for yourself," she answered. "Some of these stamps have a picture of a steamboat, some of a rural free delivery man, and here are several, intelligent disciples of the entire college of rhetoricians."

BEST MEDICINE FOR THE BLOOD AND ALL HUMORS.

I had a bad case of erysipelas on my hands, and on the left hand, on the inside, at the same time, I had a very painful felon. I used poultices and liniments for three months and carried the disabled hand in a sling all that time. The cause was undoubtedly the bad condition of my blood. "A friend advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, so I bought six bottles and a box of Hood's Olive Ointment. The treatment was an Unqualified Success. Improvement was noticeable very soon, and when the fifth bottle was gone my hands were all healed up and my health was better in every way. "There is no question about it, Hood's Sarsaparilla reached the impurities in the blood and effected a complete cure. Why, at one time, people came from all around to see my hand, and many of them told me I many friends of the couple, as no intimation of their plans had been announced. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George J. West, the parents of the bride. Rev. Delmer H. Trimble was the officiating clergyman. There were no attendants and no guests. Later in the evening, a small reception was held and the couple left for a honeymoon trip. They will be away for ten days and on their return will be at home at the St. Francis apartments. Mrs. Kerron is an enthusiastic horse-woman and is a prominent member of the Hunt Club. Mr. Kerron is proprietor of the Portland Riding Academy.
