BEAVERS' BATTING ORDER IS SHIFTED

McCreary Makes Good Throat and Puts McConnell and Doane on Bench.

KRUEGER SIXTH IN LIST

PORTLAND TEAM NOW HAS PICO .281 HITTERS IN ROW—Plagued IS Small. Five Points Above Cam-

ham. May Replace Arnt.

BY BONNIE PANTHER

PORTLAND, OR.—Four points above second capten Mike Krueger was penciled in on the Scoresheet as the sixth man on the Beavers' slugging order in the game at Seattle yesterday. Krueger, who has played for a couple of months in the bat
orders, will probably replace Arnt in the batting order. Arnt is down with a sty.

PORTLAND IN NEW CAMP.

The Beavers have ordered rooms at the Hotel
Linden and will probably have their new camp organized here in the next few days. The players are expected to arrive here today or tomorrow.

HIT THE OAK.

San Francisco fans will get a two-baggeT outfit in Bob Halleck. Halleck was caught in the act of stealing second and third base at Seattle yesterday. The Beavers averaged .281 at the plate in their series with the A's.
