Easter Millinery for Misses, Girls and Children

—Our millinery displays for misses, girls and children are now in full bloom, and the department has all the appearance of a young orchard in blossom.
—The prettiest hats from Paris, and the cleverest efforts of our own designers, afford such a pleasing range of selection that the Easter girl is going to find it the easiest thing in the world to choose a hat today.
—Every shape, coloring and trimming of the season is included, and the wonder is that such a profusion of original and pretty things should come within the sphere of such a low range of prices.

Ages from 6 years up
Prices range from $1.48 to $12.50

Just in Time for Easter

500 New Tailored Suit Hats $10.00 and $12.50

—Large and small hats that will be a revelation to you just to see how much chic can be found in hats at this price.
—Trimmed with loops and bows of ribbon, fancy feathers and jaunty stick-ups. Little hats that set close to the head and hats that are made to be worn at a jaunty angle. Hats with drooping brims and hats with straight roll brims. Every style to suit every face.

The Untrimmed Hat Section

—If you cannot find an untrimmed hat at Lipman, Wolfe's you need not look any further. This has been said thousands of times by our patrons and it is true. If you want the best styles, shapes and qualities and the largest variety to choose from, you must of necessity look here. Our trimmings are unsurpassed in beauty and adaptability.

Still Time to Trim Your Easter Hat FREE

—Our milliners are prepared to execute your own ideas and submit suggestions. We will trim any hat you choose Free of Charge provided the materials are purchased here.

400 Children's School Hats
Special $1.95

—In this illustration we show four of these attractive children's hats. They are made of the best quality patent milans, trimmed with ribbon around the brims and finished at the side with a bow or a large rosette of the same material.
—No prettier hat could be found for the small girl. They are all fashioned on the latest lines, conforming to fashion's dictum, but withal youthful and becoming to a degree.

HATFIELD CASE UNSETTLED

Forest Grove Mystery to Be Probed by Grand Jury.

FOREST GROVE, Or., March 21.—(Special).—Apparently the verdict of "death from an unknown cause," rendered in the case of Mrs. Myrtle Pease Hatfield, who died suddenly at her home in this city a week ago tonight, is not entirely satisfactory to the authorities, or some other concerned party, as Sheriff Reeves, of Hillsboro, is said to have served subpoenas upon

FORGER TO UNDERGO KNIFE

Judge Believes Operation Will Make Honest Man of Crook.

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—In the hope of making an honest man of a forger, Judge McCormick, of the Superior Court, today sentenced W. A. Clements, of San Diego, to an operation on his skull for the removal of a bullet. Clements attempted some time ago to commit suicide, and it was argued to

SHOESHINER IS JOB SEEKER

Secretary Daniels Passes Name of Richard Davis on to Bryan.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—When Secretary Daniels of the Navy Department returned today from a visit to his home in Raleigh, N. C., he passed along to the State Department the application of a colored man, who has shined his shoes and otherwise made himself presentable for a position in the diplomatic service. When the Secretary first came to

FISHERIES CHIEF TO BE EXPERT

Washington he was the guest of an old friend, Dr. Sterling Ruffin. The physician's valet, Richard Davis, took special care of the Cabinet officer and when the Secretary left for Raleigh, Davis dispatched a letter to him, telling of his aspirations for the position as Secretary to the American Legation in Liberia.

Davis, who has been in the employ of Dr. Ruffin for some time, speaks and writes Spanish perfectly, having passed four years in Cuba. He is an expert stenographer and in his leisure moments studied for the examination for the diplomatic service. He has the in-
