

BENEFIT BALL BIG

Brilliant Assemblage at Multnomah Hotel.

AFFAIR CAPABLY PLANNED

Pronounced Success Is Social Event When Catholic Women's League Entertains—Gowns Most Stylish and Modes Imported.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.
 Events planned for today—Miss Felling's luncheon for Mrs. J. B. Montgomery and Mrs. C. M. Clark. Mrs. P. H. Flynn and the Misses Flynn, elaborate tea.
 For tomorrow—Mrs. Walter Stone, Jr., smart tea.
 Wedding of Miss Marie Schulerman and C. C. Banfield, at Trinity.
 Miss Clarice Biles, card party.

A brilliant assemblage of guests thronged the ballrooms of the Hotel Multnomah last night when the Catholic Women's League entertained at their benefit ball. The affair was capably planned and was in every respect pronounced success.

In the card rooms were gathered several of those who did not care to participate in the dance. An attractive candy table was well patronized. The gowns were noticeably beautiful, among them being many imported models. Among the prettily gowned maids and matrons were:

Mrs. John Manning in white brocade elaborated with pearls, the draping caught with a touch of American Beauty.

Mrs. J. D. Farrell, in a handsome robe of heavy black chamoise trimmed with lace and pearls.

Mrs. Smith Wears Necklace.
 Mrs. Andrew C. Smith was attractive in Mechlin lace over cream brocade with giraffe of lavender and gold. She wore a pendant and necklace of pearls and diamonds.

Mrs. Wilber E. Coman's costume was a becoming shade of pink chamoise with lace trimming the bodice.
 Mrs. Edward Boyce was in a stunning gown of black.

Mrs. Margaret Fishery wore royal blue chamoise, beautifully made.
 Miss Lucie Schmit, white lace over pink silk.

Mrs. George W. Brown, black lace over white satin in the bodice and black velvet skirt on train.

Miss Winifred Burg, peach chamoise with banding of scarlet velvet.
 Mrs. M. Johnson, delicate shade of lavender chiffon trimmed with lace and jewels.

Mrs. D. J. Maher, shadow lace over pink satin.
 Mrs. T. E. Hulme, embroidered silk marquisette over old rose.

Mrs. J. W. Sweeney, old blue chamoise of a modish cut.

Pink Is Mrs. Reed's Color.

Mrs. Henry Reed, an attractive costume of pink chamoise with lace and pearls.

Mrs. J. Baker, embroidered marquisette over yellow with sash effect of yellow chamoise and pastel trimming.

Mrs. J. A. Freeman, black lace over a pink striped tulle.

Mrs. Howard M. Winter, Oriental tulle embroidered on pale blue chiffon with gold beads. The foundation was of pink chamoise.

Miss Helen Hogan, royal blue over American beauty.

Mrs. A. W. Rables, palated chiffon over salmon pink chamoise.
 Miss Agnes Albers wore a becoming shade of pale blue silk.

Mrs. C. H. Freeman wore a bright coral crepe metero brocade.
 Miss Charlotte Reed was in painted chiffon over coral chamoise.

Miss Ethel Marsh was in lavender marquisette.
 At the candy table Miss Catherine Roe was attired in lavender silk and lace, Miss Helen Clark in pink silk with touches of green, Miss Caroline Gleason old blue silk, Miss Clarissa Wiley headed net over old rose silk and Miss Helen Calbreath was in apricot crepe metero with chiffon over the bodice.

Others whose gowns were unusually beautiful were: Miss Beatrice Porteous, Mrs. M. E. Leonard, Mrs. J. N. Casey, Miss Margaret Casey, Mrs. J. F. Clark, Miss Nora Driscoll, Miss Dorothy Eichenlaub, Miss Anna Healy, Miss June Kenedick, Miss Katherine Galvin, Miss Hazel Mann, Miss Katherine Cahill, Miss Matilda King, Miss Loreta Redmond and scores more.

The members of the June class of Lincoln High School were entertained hospitably on Saturday evening when they were the guests of Charles Howe at his home, 509 East Eighteenth street.

Games, music and a dainty repast were enjoyed. Those sharing the evening's pleasures were:

Roland Jolly, John Steiner, Frank Beach, Lawrence Rosenthal, Phillip Sessions, Claude Bessing, Fulton Magill, Clarence J. Young, Pelvin Magill, Alfred Schilt, Freeman Serzanous, A. Roland Boscow, Charles Howe, C. Edson Wingard, Marie Borsodolot, Dana Paulsen, Earl B. Goodwin, Billie Jewett, Lewis, Misses Win Osborn, Beatrice Stevenson, May Brimdam, Shirley Fliske, Marcia Parker, Crystal Keck, Rita Neagert, Grace Townsend, Patricia Heintz, Laura Akin, Opal Bretz, Myrtle Miller, Mildred Markilla, Ruby McKay, Mable Tower, Ruth Graham, Katherine Hancock, Francis Golden, Hazel Jackson, Edythe Milnos, Marguerite Gross, Ellen Domingue, Lillian Compton, Esther Johnson, Lillian Stevenson, Isabella Barde, Susan Thayer, Dorothy Wright, Emily Marshall, Dora Broctie, Grace May, Rose Wright, Pauline Mims, Eleanor Praeger, Ruth Leonard, Clarence Stephenson and Glenn Dudley.

The teachers who helped in the work were Miss Gladys Smith, Miss Carolina Barnes and Edward O. Tabor. The officers of the class are: President, Frank Beach; vice-president, Marcia Parker; secretary, Marguerite Gross; treasurer, C. Edson Wingard; sergeant-at-arms, Alfred Schilt.

Trinity Church will be the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Marie Schulerman will become the bride of Charles Churchill Banfield. The decorations and costumes of the bridal attendants will be in delicate pastel shades. Mrs. J. C. Edwards has come from Los Angeles to be her sister's matron of honor. Fred Miller will be best man. Two dainty little nieces, Hannah Marian Edwards and Marie Schulerman, will serve as flower girls. Ernest Wynard, Harry Shapin and J. C. Slatter will be the ushers. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the P. H. Schulerman residence at Nineteenth and Gilman streets. A large number of guests have been asked for both affairs.

The Kappa Kappas were delightfully entertained at a fancy dress party given at the home of Miss Ruth Dering Saturday night. Among those present were Miss Ione Morrison, a Southern belle; Miss Bernice Cone, Yamma Yamona girl; Miss Maxine Hartz, Southern girl; Miss Alice Warner, Pink Lady;

Miss Sylvia Bagley, schoolgirl; Miss Ruth Dering, clown; the Misses Gladys and Doreen McAllister, Dutch kids; Miss Margaret Reagan, old-fashioned girl; Miss Frances Rutherford, country maid; Miss Frances Reagan, Ivan Polard, minister; Fred Bushnell, the bride; Joe Celestino, bridegroom; Adolph Uina, the fool; Earl Hammond, Ira Voss, Everett Crocker, Jack Bendelow.

Mock wedding was the source of much amusement to the guests. Games and music were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.
 Mrs. Walter Burrell was hostess yesterday at a smart Easter tea, which claimed the attendance of a large number of representative members of the exclusive set. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. H. R. Trowbridge and Mrs. Phelps Montgomery. Many beautiful gowns were worn and the affair was a brilliant beginning for the Spring season.

Tomorrow Mrs. J. B. Montgomery will share honors with Mrs. C. M. Clark at an elaborate luncheon at which Miss Henrietta Felling will preside. In the evening Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Montgomery will depart for the East.

Timothy Kinney and his daughter, Mrs. James A. Dougherty, and the latter's small son, Jack, who have been in the East for the past few months, returned Sunday. They had planned to go to Panama, but instead passed several weeks in Cuba and at Palm Beach, Florida.

A number of Portlanders are visiting in Southern California. Among those recently registered at Hotel Coronado were Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, Miss Kathryn Hoyt, Miss Louise Hoyt and Miss Millard.

Mrs. C. W. McKenna and Mrs. H. D. Howes entertained 40 couples at an elaborate dancing party at Artisans' Temple recently. Many attractive gowns were worn and the affair was enjoyable.

The home of Mrs. T. Kelly was the

Do the Spring Sewing Now on the Famous Willamette Rotary

You can pay more for a Sewing Machine than we ask for a Willamette Rotary, but there is no Machine on the market that possesses so many desirable labor-saving features, nor that can excel, if equal, the stitch and finish possible on the "Willamette." Made with drop-head, automatic lift, automatic adjustable tension (an exclusive feature with the Willamette Rotary). All parts are easily oiled from above. And the automatic tension permits the sewing of sheers fabrics—instantly changing to heaviest material without effort on part of the operator. Come to our Fifth Floor Section and have these and other preferable features of the Willamette Rotary explained on the Machine itself.
