There Is Romance in This Sign "Rooms for Rent"

If your life is dull, if you think there is no Romance left in the world, you don't have to go to Italy or Spain.
quicken your nerves and your mind, if you want to sharpen your wits and find new interests in life, all you have to do is walk down the street a block and ring a new front door bell.
There are plenty of pleasant homes with new and interesting surroundings right in the Room Ads of this paper you are reading now.

And tell the people, please, where you read their Ad.

People are dull because they do the same things, and think the same things over and over again.
If you have grown stupid in this city it certainly is your fault. Because if you want to
So if things are beginning to pall on you where you are, just clip this list of Room Ads. Go out, and ring a few door bells and you will enter a new circle of lives.
