LAWLESSNESS TO PREVAIL

Hungry Gulch Saloon and Denizens of Camp Will Be Seen in Gunplay, Gaming and Other Prills of Mining Life.

While many of the people of Portland, in proper regalla, will be in attendance at the Grand Opera production tonight, there will be a riot of fiannel shirts and bearskin chaps, bowie knives and dangerous-looking guns in the big dining-room of the Portland Commercial Club, where a "bunch of the boys" will be "whooping or up in the Hungry Guich Salson" at the "Days of '49" cabaret entertainment which has been provided for them by the entertainment committee.

Sheriff to Be Busy.

W. C. North will be the bona fide Sheriff of Hungry Gulch and with Indians, miners, Mexicans, mining promoters, gamblers, crocked and straight, he and his posse of trusty deputies will have their bands full all the time.

W. J. Hofmann, the "pride of the Hungry Gulch Saloon," is offering a reward of $10 for the man who will pick out C. C. Chapmain in his deep disguise. H Beckwith, resplendent in the reddest vest he can dig up, will prediagraise. H Beckwith, respiendent in the reddest vest he can dig up, will preside over an old-fashioned Wells-Fargo office, in which will be displayed much of the equipment that was actually used on the Pacific Coast by that company in the days of '49.

Fred T. Hyskell and G. L. Bliven will be in the throng as mining promoters with plenty of stock to sell. W. E. Coman, Fred Vogler and L. A. Colton will preside over the wheels and the fare games with C. F. Wright, George W. Kleiser, H. L. Keats and others as "cappers." H. L. Idleman and W. F. Ross as Mexicans will smoke the appropriate number of cigarettes and will be prepared at all times to knife some of the unsuspecting denizens of the camp, if the excitement appears to be lagging in the slightest degree, all the animals free of charge to the city and to derive the revenue for the reduction plant in the sale of fertilizer and other products made from the ani-mals. This will mean a material saving to the city because of the fact that at present the animals are burned at the city incinerator and there is no revenue derived. An average of 30 horses are burned at the plant each

RAILROAD'S NICKNAME SUGGES-TIONS NUMEROUS.

The last poem received yesterday was a copy of a letter written to her father by Mrs. Ada E. Soule, of Eugene. It was as follows:

Grand View Farm, Eugene, Or.—Dear Dad:
At last we've reached the promised land, Where crops were never knewn to fall; With pleniy of money at our command—and pluck and health—
We have prosperity, "by the tall."

Better leave that dreary place.
That old sun-baked, wind-swept land:
Find here Nature's smiling face and mam moth crops;
"With rain and sunshine hand in hand."

When you seek our Oregon home, Come by the route called "Neverfall," Where live the people who never roa happy, contented. Say, Dad, this is no fairy tale.
