Meal Food to Discuss Social Work. The Florence Mission Circle of the Universalist Church will hold its monthly literary meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Ford, 725 Commercial street, at 2:15 o'clock.

The leader for the day will be Mrs. E. H. Miller, whose interesting topic will be an account of the work conducted by Universalists at Camp Hill, Alabama, for poor white boys and girls and for negroes at Norfolk, Va., and which Booker Washington heartily commends.

Mrs. Miller also will discuss the work supported by this church in the way of homes for working girls, social settlements, homes for the aged, orphan asylums, fresh-air farms for mothers and children, of the tenets and work among the foreigners in the packing plants. The schools and colleges of the denomination will also be described. It will surprise many to learn how extensive this humanitarian work is. The president of the circle, Mrs. M. E. Mead, is away in California and Mrs. M. C. Winter, vice-president, will conduct the business of the meeting.

DENTIST FOUND GUILTY.—V. R. Bilyeu, a dentist, was found guilty of contempt of court by Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday and fined $10. Bilyeu had a sign reading "Dr. Bilyeu, stockholder of Wise Dental Company," the name of the company being most prominently displayed. Judge Morrow ordered him to cut it down so he changed to his own name in letters 10 1/2 inches high, "stockholder of" in letters four inches high and "Wise Dental Company" in letters six inches high. Judge Morrow told him yesterday to cut the "Wise Dental Company" part three inches and it would be all right.

POWER MEN TO INSPECT LINE.—C. M. Clark, chairman of the board of directors of the Portland Railway Light & Power Company, and B. S. Joseph, president, will make a tour of inspection of the Mount Hood line today. They will go over the entire property as far as Bull Run. It is probable that the Bull Run end of the line, which now is operating by steam, will be electrified before the end of the year. Mr. Clark will leave for his home in Philadelphia before the end of the week.

TRANSPORTATION MEN ENTERTAINED.—A musical program combined with a lecture by Dr. Joseph on the bi-weekly luncheon of the Portland Transportation Club at the Multnomah Hotel yesterday. A. A. Morse, the veteran traffic specialist of the O. W. R. & N. Co., was chairman of the day. Dr. McGaw, field secretary for the World's Christian Citizenship Congress, which is to hold its meeting in Portland this summer, told of the work being done to get delegates to come and of the importance of the convention.

BOLLER WORKS AND CHINAMEN AGREED.—The suit between the Chinamen and the operation of the Frankman Bolter Works at Fourth and Flanders streets, was settled by stipulation between the parties and dismissed yesterday. It has been agreed that the owners of the plant are to build a sound-deadening wall around it and install sound-insulating apparatus. When the heavy hammers and riveters are in use sandbags will be placed against the iron and steel plates.

GEORGE E. BLUM GOES TO JAIL.—A commission of physicians, including Dr. House and Dr. Joseph, appointed to examine him having unanimously declared him sane. George E. Blum, alias Charles Egan, convicted last week of contributing to the delinquency of young girls was given the maximum punishment for his offense, a year in the County Jail, by Circuit Judge Gatena yesterday.

NEBRASKA RANCHER IS SUICIDE.—John M. Combs, a rancher from Kearney, Neb., was found dead in his room at the St. Charles Hotel, yesterday morning. He had taken a quantity of carbolic acid the night before. He left a brief note, asking that his wife be notified.

ON APRIL 3, from 1:30 to 5:30 A. M., the owl cars on the St. Johns, Mississippi avenue, Woodlawn and Broadway lines will operate over the Burnside street bridge, owing to slight repairs to be made on the O. W. R. & N. steel bridge.

MAYOR IS PREPARED

Campaign Plans for Re-election Completed. Friends to Wage Fight. City Executive Announces He Will Have No Active Part in Race, but Will Devote Time to Municipal Business.

Rushlight headquarters will be opened at the Imperial Hotel today or tomorrow.

Friends of the Mayor, who is a candidate for re-election, will hold a meeting tonight or tomorrow night at the headquarters, when they will organize, elect officers and formally open the campaign for him.

Mr. Rushlight will not actively participate in the campaign, he said yesterday, owing to the pressure of official business at the City Hall.

It is the plan of his friends to select a campaign manager who will direct the work for the Mayor and take care of the headquarters.

"I decided some time ago," said the Mayor, "that I would not be able to devote much time to my campaign. The city's business is the first consideration with me, and in attending to it I will have to remain at the City Hall most of the time. My friends have promised me that they will look after my campaign, which will relieve me of that extra work and will permit me of devoting all the necessary time to official business."

"Portland has grown so fast in the past two years that it is all one can do to look after the duties of Mayor. No one unacquainted with the immense business that goes through the office can for a moment realize the amount of work there is connected with it. While I wish to obtain the nomination for Mayor in the primaries, I feel that my first duty is to look after the city's work, and hence my decision to remain at the executive office instead of going out to campaign."

While but one month remains between now and the primaries, it is the intention of the Mayor's friends to make a whirlwind campaign in his behalf. The Mayor recently filed his declaration of intention to run, and announced that he will stand on the record which he has made during his nearly two years' incumbency and pledged himself to the commission form of government and a general policy of progress.

THE FURNACE. Mrs. Leonard, who is the imitator, is best known among her friends as the female Isak Walton of vaudeville because of her fondness for placard pastimes.

With Mr. Leonard, the indefatigable fisherman is starting at Pantages this week in a series of songs and imitations, but at the conclusion of the tour the Leonard will leave for a Summer at Oyster Bay, N. Y., where they are neighbors to Colonel Roosevelt.

Mrs. Leonard is known to followers of the stage as Ethel Drake, her maiden name, but once away from the footlights Mrs. Leonard's thoughts turn to ward fishing.

From a standpoint of gameness there is little to choose between the muskallunge, the great Eastern game fish, and the chinook salmon. The chinook is not strictly a Western fish, according to Mrs. Leonard, but the fish caught in Coast waters is far finer than the Eastern fish. Both are superb game fish, and the sport of landing a specimen of either specie is the greatest outdoor pleasure possible.

Deep-sea fishing is also enjoyed by Mrs. Leonard.

WOMEN VOTERS ARE BUSY

Fair Sex of North Portland Urged to Register Today. An aggressive campaign to get the women of the Peninsula to register for the primary election is being carried on by the women's auxiliary of the North Portland Commercial Club. Every member is urging her friends and neighbors to register, and a committee representing the auxiliary will be at the registration offices at the Courthouse today to give all necessary information to women voters who call to register. The argument is being used in the campaign that there are many questions relating to city affairs that are of particular interest to women, including the proposed commis-
