

SUFFRAGETTES TO APPEAL TO AMERICA

Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Townsend Asked to Aid Miss Zelle Emerson.

TORTURE EXHIBIT COMING

Instruments Used in Forcible Feeding of Militants to Be Sent to United States—Mrs. Pankhurst Is Indicted.

LONDON, April 1.—The campaign was continued today with more energy than ever on behalf of Miss Zelle Emerson, of Detroit, the militant suffragette, who is undergoing two months' imprisonment in Holloway Jail for window breaking.

A cablegram sent to Theodore Roosevelt today by Beatrice Harraden, the authoress, says: "I cannot believe that American men, a number of whom expressed to me during my recent visit to America, their horror at the system of forcible feeding, will remain indifferent when they learn that their fellow-countrywoman, Miss Zelle Emerson, is undergoing this ordeal in Holloway Jail and in a precarious condition."

Mrs. E. R. Emerson and the American suffragettes in London are greatly pleased at the reported contemplated action of Senator Townsend, of Michigan, in taking up the case of Miss Zelle Emerson. Miss Scott-Troy sent the following cablegram to Senator Townsend:

"We expect to send you instruments of torture similar to those being used on Miss Emerson. After the Senate's inspection, suggest placing them in the Smithsonian Institution. Your intercession after the long inaction of the embassy is a great relief."

The collection has been lent by doctors friendly to the suffragettes. It will be exhibited in American cities, and will afterward be offered as a gift to the Smithsonian Institution.

A true bill against Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst was returned today by the grand jury at the Old Bailey Sessions on the charge of incitement to commit damage. Mrs. Pankhurst was arrested on February 24 in connection with the destruction of the country residence of Chancellor Lloyd-George. She said at a public meeting that she had conspired with and incited her followers to commit the outrage. The offense is punishable with penal servitude for a maximum term of 14 years.

DEPOT'S REMOVAL SOUGHT

Railroad Commission Hears Biggs Station Controversy.

THE DALES, Or., April 1.—(Special.)—State Railroad Commissioners Frank L. Miller, T. K. Campbell and C. R. Atchison conducted a hearing at Biggs today on Samuel Hill's demand for the removal of the O.-W. R. & N. depot from Biggs to a point east of that town, which is 25 miles east of here.

Mr. Hill asserts that in 1911 the company promised to remove the station and remedy conditions of which he complains. He says the location of the present station is inaccessible from the river because of a series of rapids and rocks, and that it is at times impossible to land a boat from his place at Maryhill, Wash.

Mr. Hill asserts that 4000 people in the Klallam Valley, Washington, are inconvenienced by the present location of the station. From Biggs the Railroad Commissioners will go to La Grande for a hearing on the telephone rates in Union County. Other hearings are scheduled for Baker and Echo.

REBATING FINES IMPOSED

Railway and Milling Company Pay $5000 Each.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 1.—The Minneapolis, St. Paul & Northern Pacific Railway Company and the Russell-Miller Milling Company of Minneapolis were fined $5000 each today for rebating, by Federal Judge Morris of Duluth, after each company had pleaded guilty. The two corporations and Thomas E. Sands, general freight agent for the railroad, were indicted by a Federal grand jury in October, 1912.

The case against Mr. Sands was dismissed. It was alleged by the Government that an shipment of grain to the East, through Minneapolis, for milling in Chicago and South St. Paul, Minn., such rebating of rates was made as to constitute a violation of the Federal anti-rebating law.

REWARD OFFER REVOKED

Legislature Failed to Provide Funds, Says Governor.

SALEM, Or., April 1.—(Special.)—Declaring that the Legislature failed to make appropriation to pay for future claims for rewards under proclamations issued in 1912 relative to blind pigs and disorderly resorts, and that it is not desired to create deficiency claims, Governor West today issued a proclamation revoking the two previous proclamations.

The proclamation today revokes the one issued September 7, 1912, offering a reward of $100 for blind pig convictions, and one issued October 22, 1912, offering a reward of $100 for conviction of owner, lessee or lessee of house, boat, ship, vessel or any other building used for place for ill-fame. The new proclamation is effective at once.

AMERICAN SUFFRAGETTE IN LONDON JAIL, IN WHOSE BEHALF CAMPAIGN IS BEGUN IN UNITED STATES.

MISS ZELLE EMERSON.

COURT AIDS WOMEN

Function of Morals Tribunal Will Be Extended.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Extension of the function of the morals court, to be opened here next Monday, to medical treatment, education, employment and complete rehabilitation of fallen women was announced here today after a conference in the chambers of Municipal Judge Olson. The court will extend to a school of domestic science for its wards.

TRAINING WILL BE GIVEN

Medical Aid and Vocational Instruction Promised as Means to Restore Useful Lives of Victims of Vice.

The use of the wards in several private hospitals and more than 50 beds in county institutions were pledged for medical aid to women who come before the court. Women physicians, women probation officers and women officials in all departments, where their work is more desirable than that of men, were provided for. Money and aid were pledged by civic bodies.

In response to a statement that rescued women usually are without training, it was announced that the John Kirby School for Unruly Boys soon would be vacated and that the building, fully equipped, would be turned over to the court as a school of domestic science for its wards.

The state employment bureau announced through Chief Inspector Cruden that it would aid in finding occupation for the wards of the court.

WILSON HEARS WOOL TALK

Termine that certain features of the bill would not be acceptable in the Senate, efforts will be made to have the draft of the bill changed by the House committee or by the Democratic membership of the House when it meets in caucus next week, so that House and Senate may be brought into as complete accord as possible in support of the House bill.

Fate Hanging in Balance. When the conference between President Wilson and Representative Underwood ended tonight the free sugar plan and the 15 per cent tax on wool were hanging in the balance.

Mr. Underwood on leaving the White House would only couchase the information that some "progress" had been made and that there were no differences between the President and himself and that the majority of his committee would meet again tomorrow.

However, the fight against putting raw sugar on the free list and again retaining the duty on raw wool and over some parts of the tariff revision is understood to have led the President to hesitate in committing himself on these questions until he has had an opportunity to obtain further light. He will confer over the tariff situation tomorrow and within the next 24 hours communicate his views finally to the ways and means committee, which meantime virtually is marking time.

Single Bill is Indicated. It was indicated tonight that free sugar would remain in the bill, as it is to be introduced by Chairman Underwood, though that conclusion is by no means certain. If the President concludes that the plea for a duty on sugar should be heeded, the committee majority is expected to acquiesce and transfer sugar to the dutiable list.

The purpose now is to go ahead with a single tariff bill. The revision will be submitted in that shape to the Democratic caucus of the House, which can break it up into schedules if it so desires, but the tariff revisionists are disposed to believe that the caucus will adopt the committee's plan.

The President is understood to have agreed with the House Democrats on the income tax plan, which, however, is subjected to change as to rate and the amount of the exemption now provisionally fixed at from 1 per cent on $1000 to 4 per cent on $100,000.

It has long been known that a majority of the Democrats on the House ways and means committee have favored placing raw wool on the free list. Chairman Underwood, however, has not favored free wool, and thus far has been able to hold his committee in line, against the personal opinions of a majority of its members. Personally, Underwood is not directly interested in the wool industry, but he has maintained that wool should be made a "revenue producer." Neither Underwood nor any other Democrats believe in protection, but they find a good many articles which should be made to produce revenue, and wool is among those favored by Underwood in this respect.

Radicals Held Key. Just what the House ways and means committee ultimately will do with wool depends upon the stand taken by the radical revisionists on that committee. They have the numbers to vote down Underwood and if they have the moral backing of President Wilson, which they will have if the President yields to Secretary Bryan's free raw wool will be reported to the House. In the last Congress the situation on the committee was the same as now, but Underwood was able to bring the majority of the committee into line for his moderate revision plan. This majority, however, is disposed to override Underwood on several schedules, and if they exercise the power which they possess, Underwood will be compelled to fall in line or acknowledge that the committee has gotten out of his control.

It seems to be reasonably certain that the ways and means committee will do one of two things: either stand by free raw wool or an ad valorem duty of not to exceed 15 per cent, which is less than half the present duty. According to officials of the National Woolgrowers' Association, a reduction to 15 per cent would have practically the same effect upon the wool industry of the West as placing wool on the free list. Twenty per cent, they contend, is the smallest duty the industry can stand without being wiped out.

Westerners Will Blame Wilson. If this is true it will be up to the Democratic Senators from the West to say whether or not the industry shall continue to thrive. There are quite a few Democratic Senators from wool-growing states, but how they will stand, as between the House programme and a higher duty on wool, will depend largely upon the amount of influence brought to bear personally by President Wilson. At any rate, it is sure to come about that if these Senators vote for a 15 per cent duty, or for placing wool on the free list, they will make the defense that the President forced the reduction to the point fixed by the House, and that they were obliged to bow to the dictates of the executive or else send themselves out of the Democratic party.

The wool schedule is giving Western Democratic Senators deep concern. They do not relish being forced to vote for a reduction which they fear may prove injurious or destructive to a great industry in their states, and on the other hand they do not like to break with their party now that after 18 years, it has come into full possession of the Government. They find themselves between two fires, and the prospect is not a pleasant one.

Levi P. Morton Improving. NEW YORK, April 1.—Improvement in the condition of Levi P. Morton, ex-Vice-President of the United States, which followed what was reported to be an alarming sinking spell yesterday, was maintained today. "Somewhat more favorable" was the report of his physician this morning, and it was said his condition was unchanged tonight.

WHITE BRIDE OF NEGRO ENDS LIFE

Divorced Wife of Brother of St. Louis Candidate for Mayor Is Suicide.

MARRIAGE KEPT SECRET

Ardent Huntress and Horsewoman, Mrs. Julia McFarlane Gerhart, Broods Over Fact That Black Husband Followed Her.

ST. LOUIS, April 1.—Mrs. Julia McFarlane Gerhart, divorced wife of Charles B. Gerhart, brother of Frank H. Gerhart, Progressive candidate for Mayor of St. Louis, died this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adeline Cox, as the result of taking poison with suicidal intent. Mrs. Gerhart announced that after her divorce Mrs. Gerhart married a negro.

Mrs. Gerhart, as she was known here, took the poison that resulted in her death two days ago, and since then had been unconscious. She took the drug after a long spell of brooding, because her negro husband had followed her from St. Paul to St. Louis and insisted on seeing her.

Marriage Follows Divorce. Mrs. Gerhart was divorced last November and 15 days later, according to Mrs. Cox, she married a negro, L. W. Kellogg, at St. Paul. Kellogg formerly was butler in the Gerhart home. Mrs. Gerhart was an ardent horsewoman and a huntress.

In her divorce petition filed last September she said that Gerhart was worth $500,000, but that since their separation the preceding April he had given her but $30 for her support. Alimony of $100 a year was granted her.

Negro Calls at Cox House. Mr. Cox said that soon after Mrs. Gerhart came to her boarding-house to live, the negro, Kellogg, began to call on her. Mr. Cox objected to these visits, but Mrs. Gerhart insisted that the negro was her butler and came to see her on business.

About a month ago when the negro called at the house Mrs. Gerhart refused to admit him. Thereupon she showed a marriage certificate to Mrs. Cox and said: "That woman is my wife. I have a right to see her."

Mrs. Cox took the negro to Mrs. Gerhart and asked if she were his wife. Mrs. Gerhart, according to Mrs. Cox, told not answer. Thereafter Mrs. Cox did not allow the negro in the house. Mrs. Gerhart was a niece of the late Chief Justice McFarlan, of the Missouri supreme court.

Record of License Not Found. ST. PAUL, Minn., April 1.—Inquiry at the District Court here failed to disclose the issuance of a marriage license to L. W. Kellogg and Mrs. Julia McFarlane Gerhart. Kellogg's name is not listed in the City Directory.

GRIFFITH IS INDORSED

OREGON CITY MEN URGE NAME AS JOSSELYN'S SUCCESSOR. Directors Are Understood to Favor Appointment of Local Man Who Is Familiar With Conditions.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 1.—(Special.)—The Live Wires at the weekly luncheon today unanimously endorsed Franklin T. Griffith for the presidency of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, to succeed B. S. Josselyn, resigned. The following letter to Chairman M. Clark, chairman of the board of directors, was signed by every member of the organization present:

While there may be thousands in Eastern Oregon who are interested in the live wire, power and light experts to one in the West, from whom you could pick your representative, an Eastern man would be known to your customers here, he would be working under great disadvantages, not knowing the country and its conditions and it would be many months, if not years, before he would gain the confidence of the live wire men of this section. You have at this time in your employ a man known and respected by all and one whom we believe would get results from the start in that he knows what the people want. We refer to your present chief counsel, Hon. Franklin T. Griffith.

The following officers were elected by the Live Wires: Maintrunk line, L. V. Stipp; subtrunk line, Dr. A. Van Brack; transmission wire, E. Keith; Stanton; guy wire, E. E. Brodie. Main Trunk Line Stipp reappointed Leo S. Burdon feed wire.

It is regretted that inasmuch as there had been newspaper discussion regarding the work of the County Court that a committee be named to represent the Live Wires at the meeting next Saturday afternoon at Woodmen Hall. He said there had been criticism regarding the letting of contracts for bridges and timber-cruising contracts. Main Trunk Line Stipp appointed the following a committee to conduct the meeting: O. D. Eby, W. A. Dimick, M. J. Brown, H. E. Cross and George Bassal.

A successor to Mr. Josselyn, whose resignation will become effective July 1, probably will be selected before the end of the present month. It is understood that the directors of the company are eager to have a Portland man take the position, inasmuch as he would be better acquainted with local conditions and more likely able to conduct the business.

Ratine—The Fabric of the Hour Fulfills Our Prediction Practically Exclusive Here

A year ago, when ratine first made its appearance in the costumes of Paris dressmakers, we were convinced of its reproduction in washable fabrics, and that it would be the fashionable material for the Spring of 1913.

In support of our judgment we placed liberal import orders, with the result that we are showing an immense assortment, which we doubt can be duplicated anywhere. As a customer remarked yesterday: "I am astonished at the assortment of ratine that I find in your store, which is more comprehensive than all the other stores combined, and the styles are infinitely more attractive."
