SUICIDE OF HUSBAND LEARNED.—Coming from Kearney, Neb., to join her husband, and accompany him to his ranch, 16 miles East of Portland, Mrs. J. L. Combs found that it was her husband who had committed suicide in the St. Charles Hotel Monday night. When she first arrived in Portland she called at the Postoffice for his address and then went to the home of a friend of herself and her husband, where she was reached by the Coroner Tuesday night. Mr. Combs came West several weeks ago and afterwards wrote for his wife to come and join him. She started Saturday and reached this city 24 hours after the time he committed suicide. It was not until the Coroner communicated with her that she is arred the method of her husband's death. ght at 8:15. BAKER THEATER (Breadway and Morri-rison streets—Saker players in "The Bar-rier."
