

MORGAN'S BODY IS BORNE ON STEAMER

Roman Spectators Bareheaded as Cortège Passes on Way to Train.

VESSEL TO SAIL SATURDAY

Great Financier's Pet Dog Stays in Kennel and Refuses to Eat Since Master Died - Physicians Give Out Statement.

ROME, April 2.—The Eternal City gave its last farewell tonight to J. P. Morgan, whose body was placed aboard a train for Italy. It will be transported to the United States by a steamer, probably the France, sailing for New York on Saturday.

The German Emperor sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Morgan as follows: "Accept my sincerest sympathy in your great bereavement. Your husband's death is a loss, not only for you, your family and your country, but to his many friends in all parts of the world, who never will forget him."

Funeral Procession Simple. The funeral procession to the depot was impressive in its simplicity. The hearse was followed by carriages, in which rode Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Matthews, the American ambassador, Thomas J. O'Brien, the staff of the embassy, the attending physicians, Dr. Nelson, of the American Church, and a few friends. Platoons of musical guards acted as escorts. The people in the streets raised their hats as the cortège passed.

The coffin was placed on a special car, covered with black velvet draperies with silver fringe. The floral tributes from members of the family, the German Emperor, the municipality of Rome and the American Ambassador were placed around the coffin. Shortly before the departure of the train, the French Consul arrived, bringing a beautiful silver wreath from the city of Aix-les-Bains. It bore the French tricolor and an appropriate inscription. George Fort Wheeler, secretary of the American Embassy, was the only one of the party to remain until the train drew out.

Physicians Give Statement. The physicians who were in attendance on Mr. Morgan issued the following official statement today: "When Mr. Morgan left New York he was a very tired man, physically and mentally. Digestion and memory were impaired. It was hoped that his usual trip to Egypt would be of great benefit, giving him rest and building up the nervous force, especially as he had no organic disease. His appetite, however, failed, and consequently his strength and weight did not improve.

Mr. Morgan contracted a severe cold while in Egypt, which further weakened him. A state of mental depression and feebleness developed. He arrived at Cairo in a run-down condition, but during three weeks in Cairo he improved mentally and physically. His powers of concentration and memory showed no impairment. The trip to Rome did not fatigue him and he continued to gain slowly for 19 days.

Pet Dog Shows Distress. A week before his death his strength began to fail. He was put to bed Wednesday, March 28. He became delirious and extreme exhaustion followed. This continued until Sunday evening, when he passed into a state of coma. He died at 12:05 P. M. Monday.

GUERRETTI, BASTIANELLI, ALLEN STARR, GEORGE A. DIXON. Mr. Morgan's pet dog, of the Imperial Chinese breed, without which he never traveled and which he kept as his constant companion in his apartments, has remained in its kennel since his death, refusing to eat and displaying evident signs of distress.

POLICEMEN FORFEIT PAY

Commission Decides to Reinstatement Maddux and Boone on Condition.

Only by signing an agreement waiving all right of salary during the time of their suspension from the police service will Clifford W. Maddux and C. G. Boone, policemen, be reinstated in the service by the Municipal Civil Service Commission. This was the decision of the commission yesterday following a hearing of the charges against the men preferred by Mrs. Williams, who says she was assaulted by them.

HOOD RIVER PULPIT FILLED.

HOOD RIVER, Or., April 2.—(Special.)—Word has been received here by the members of the St. Mark's Episcopal Church from Bishop R. L. Paddock that Rev. J. McNamara has received the appointment to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Edmund T. Simpson, who retired to a life of farming on his ranch near Vancouver, Wash. Mr. McNamara, who has been residing at Glendale, Mont., is expected to arrive here about the middle of the month. The women of the church have completed the interior of the rectory and are busy this week making improvements to the grounds.

COTTAGE GROVE IN NO FLOOD DANGER.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., April 2.—(Special.)—With the horrors of the Ohio flood vivid in their minds, the excessive rains of last week caused some uneasiness here, but have proved unimportant. The waters of the Coast Fork did not rise as high as they have at other times during the winter, and there was at no time any danger. A number of smaller streams fed by the rains and snow from the mountains showed signs of overflowing, but there are no narrow valleys to make an overflow dangerous.

LEPPER FILES PETITIONS TODAY.

Petitions for submitting the matter of revoking the franchises of the Southern Pacific Company on East First street and the O.-W. R. & N. on East Second street will be filed this morning by L. M. Lepper, chairman of the transportation committee of the East Side Business Men's Club. These petitions have a little more than 5000 names for both franchises, which are about 25 more than are required to get these measures on the ballot in June.

DUFUR OIL WELL WORK ON SOON.

THE DALLES, Or., April 2.—(Special.)—Work on the oil prospect of the Beaver-May Oil Company, of Dufur, 15 miles south of this city, will be resumed within the next week. It is said by the officials of the company that the bottom of the prospect hole is now in the cap rock, and that it will take only a short time to complete the well, which will be cased to exclude water, and then the drilling will go ahead.

BARNES MUST KEEP AT BAY, SAYS SULZER

New York Governor Tells Republican Boss He's Not Wanted in Capitol.

TRAINMAN DENIES LETTER

Sulzer Declares, However, That if He Had Promised to Sign Full Crew Bill He Was Justified by Precedent.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 2.—Governor Sulzer accused William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican state committee, tonight of having instigated the resolution offered yesterday by Senator Brown, requesting the Senate judicial committee to determine what, if any action, should be taken by the Legislature in relation to a published letter in which the Governor was quoted as having made a pre-election promise to sign the "full crew" bill.

"If Boss Barnes does not keep out of the Senate and keep his hands off the Legislature, I will get after Mr. Barnes," declared the Governor. "Barnes is the man who instigated that resolution. He is a part of the invisible government. He has no business meddling with the Legislature."

"There would be a howl if Mr. Murphy came here and went into Senator Wagner's room and drew up resolutions against the Governor, and I would like to see him in the Capitol. He is the Republican boss. The people do not want bosses up here. The people want a government."

"Even if I had promised I would sign the 'full crew' bill it would be all right. Governor Hughes and others promised they would sign certain bills if they could get them passed. There is nothing in that."

New Jersey's Example Cited. "I notice Governor Fielder signed a 'full crew' bill yesterday over in New Jersey. Between the railroads and the people, I am with the people. In my opinion, one human life is worth more than a train of freight cars."

Governor Sulzer said tonight that John P. Gavigo, a legislative representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, had denied the authorship of the letter accredited to him, in which the statement was made that the Governor had promised to sign the "full crew" bill if elected Governor.

OLYMPIA LINE IS RUMORED

Work on Project Connecting City With Milwaukee Line Suspected.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 2.—(Special.)—That a corps of engineers is engaged in the location work of a line projected by the Milwaukee to connect Olympia with its main line from Grays Harbor to Seattle, is a rumor backed by strong indications. Whether this is the line reported to be in progress of survey from Lincoln Creek or whether the work is being conducted from a different point, is not known.

Considerable mystery surrounds the survey from Lincoln Creek. While it is known to be in progress nothing has been learned as to direction or objective point.

Another Progressive Step

-- The Owl Drug Co., the First Drug Concern in Portland to Adopt the Sunday Afternoon Closing Plan

Solely as a mark of consideration for our employees and believing that their services each week justifies our granting same, we announce that, beginning next Sunday, April 6, our store will remain closed on Sunday afternoons between the hours of 1 P. M. and 6 P. M. By adopting and thereby inaugurating this plan of Sunday-afternoon closing in Portland, all "Owl" employees will receive, in addition to their full day off each week, an additional half day, thereby giving them more time for rest and recreation than is generally enjoyed by most store employees. We believe the people of Portland will heartily indorse our plan.
