

WATERS LAPPING AT CAIRO'S WALLS

Danger Increased by Rising of Mississippi, Which Blocks Ohio's Outlet.

WAVES LASH LEVEE TOPS

Seepage Water Stands on Cabin Floors, but Rise is Prevented by Pumps--Crest of Flood is Approaching City.

CAIRO, Ill., April 4.—Conditions throughout the Ohio River Basin, as reported to the weather bureau tonight, indicated that the question as to whether the flood waters at this point can be held within bounds would be decided within 24 hours.

In addition the Mississippi, which has been at low stage, is rising between Cairo and St. Louis. This is looked upon as extremely serious because the Ohio needs a free outlet to prevent the backing up of water on the levees here.

WEST HICKMAN INUNDATED

Water Pours Through Breaches in Levee and Does Heavy Damage.

HICKMAN, Ky., April 4.—Water coming through several breaches in the city levee at West Hickman, which went out tonight, has inundated that suburb to a depth of from four to 14 feet tonight and has spread to the Government or Reelfoot levee to the west of Hickman.

SHAWNEETOWN UNDER WATER

Mound City is Making Desperate Fight to Withstand Flood.

CHICAGO, April 4.—In a letter giving a summary of flood conditions as observed by him, Assistant-General F. S. Dickson, of Illinois, wrote as follows today to the Chicago Chamber of Commerce.

WOODBURN ASKED FOR POTATOES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 4.—To aid in providing food for Indiana refugees Governor Halston telegraphed tonight to the Mayor of Woodburn, Or., to ship here immediately two carloads of potatoes and one of onions.

FLOOD SUFFERERS SHOULD GET HELP

Oregon Citizens Responding Liberally With Funds and Supplies of Food.

KENTUCKIANS IN DISTRESS

Cottlesburg Latest Town to Appeal to Portland for Aid—Governor of Ohio Says Suffering is Desperate.

Victims of the recent floods in the Middle West are depending greatly upon Portland and other parts of Oregon for substantial relief, and they are not placing their dependence in vain.

There is a desperate need for more cash, as recent dispatches from the flooded districts indicate, and to provide some necessary assistance the Chamber of Commerce committee will meet today.

When the Chamber of Commerce committee telegraphed $5000 to Ohio and $2500 to Indiana last week, the Ohio plus was allowed to remain in the fund to provide for emergencies such as that presented by the Kentucky cities.

KENTUCKY TOWN STRICKEN

The following message was received by Mayor Rushlight yesterday from J. C. Cullen, Mayor of Cottlesburg, Ky., a point on the Ohio River where that stream frequently overflows its banks.

"Ohio flood places us in desperate condition. Help us."

That the people of Ohio have not begun to recover from the effects of the flood that has paralyzed the industry of that state is indicated in the following message received yesterday by A. H. Averill, president of the Chamber of Commerce, from Governor Cox, of Ohio:

"The immediate suffering in Ohio is being relieved, but the loss to thousands of people is being paralyzed. We can get no relief until these humble residents of Cottlesburg have been relieved. Suffering people thank you, but I do not believe there is a man in your city but who would gladly contribute to the relief of the desperate need. I cannot ask you for further relief, but it would be a good deed to the suffering if it were extended."

CONTRIBUTIONS ARE LIBERAL

The employees of the water department, who previously had liberally given, yesterday added $148.50 to the subscription. From the City of Rogue River came a check that represented the individual collections of several persons, as well as a check for $100.00 from the Rogue River Improvement Club.

RECEIPT OF FUND ACKNOWLEDGED

Secretary of the Chamber received a telegram from Hugh Daugherty, trustee for the fund being raised for the relief of Indiana sufferers, who also is vice-president of the Fletcher Savings & Trust Company, of Indianapolis, acknowledging receipt of and thanking Oregon citizens for their contributions.

EPISCOPALIANS URGED TO AID

Bishop Scadding has issued a statement to the congregations of the Episcopal Church in Oregon, describing the conditions and asking aid, as follows: There remains a further duty for churchmen, churchwomen and the children of our own community to help their brothers and sisters in their sore affliction.

SUFFRAGIST TICKET LOSES

Florence, Or., Elects for Mayor Man Who Says He Will Refuse.

FLORENCE, Or., April 4.—(Special.)—For the city election this week there were five tickets in the field, among them being the suffragette ticket, composed entirely of women, and with the tiniest woman in the town as candidate for Marshal. Many women seized the opportunity to cast their first ballot, but none of their number was elected to office.

There were 140 votes cast, as compared to from 60 to 70 in former years. Dr. George F. Edwards, who formerly served as Mayor, was elected to the office of Mayor, despite his published statement that he did not wish to be considered as a candidate, and he says that he will not accept the office. His closest opponent was John W. Bergman, the present Mayor.

For trustees A. O. Knowles, D. E. Crutcher, George T. Schroeder and Fred Meyers were the successful candidates. Dr. E. Severly was re-elected Recorder, and C. D. Morey was chosen Marshal. An amendment to the charter for the purpose of establishing districts for granting the Florence-Mapleton Independent Telephone Company permission to enter Florence carried by heavy majorities.

OLSON'S WIFE TESTIFIES

WOMAN ALMOST COLLAPSES AS SHE TELLS STORY.

Minnesota Professor Says She Confessed but Begged Him to Protect Her From Influence.

ST. PAUL, April 4.—With quivering and uncertain voice, Mrs. Lillian Olson, wife of Professor Oscar Olson, took the witness stand late today and admitted having had improper relations with Clyde N. Darling, for whose murder Olson is on trial.

"I told Darling that I was not a bad woman and begged him to discontinue his visits to our home, but he persisted in coming, and when he pressed me closely I could not resist," Mrs. Olson testified.

These her answers to questions asked by counsel for the defense became so low that they could not be heard by the jury. She seemed on the verge of a collapse and an adjournment was taken.

Police were called to handle the crowd.

The state finished its cross-examination of Professor Olson this afternoon, but he may be recalled. The defendant repeated details of their home life and of the part played by Mrs. Olson in the shooting of Darling, Olson said.

When asked by County Attorney O'Brien to give an exact statement of his wife's confession to him, which preceded the shooting of Darling, Olson said:

"The wife told me: 'Darling has a superhuman power over me. I can't resist him. He takes me in his arms, and looking into my eyes, he tells me to love me and by God I love him. I am afraid of him. Please keep him from me.'"

POPE PROTESTS LICENSE

Liberty of Press Declared Used Chiefly Against Religion.

ROME, April 4.—Pope Pius made strong complaint today against the laws of religious liberty existing in some Catholic countries. His declaration came in the course of an address written by him and delivered in his behalf to a large body of pilgrims received in the consistorial hall.

The address declared that in these countries to which he referred the laws were intended to work against the Catholic Church, while plenty of liberty was granted to the other Christian churches. For instance, the Catholic Church, unlike other churches, does not enjoy the liberty to possess property. In this, the Pontiff evidently alluded to the laws against religious orders.

His Holiness pointed out that the liberty of the press was degenerating into license and was chiefly employed against religion.

"HANSEL AND GRETEL"

Lecture Tonight.

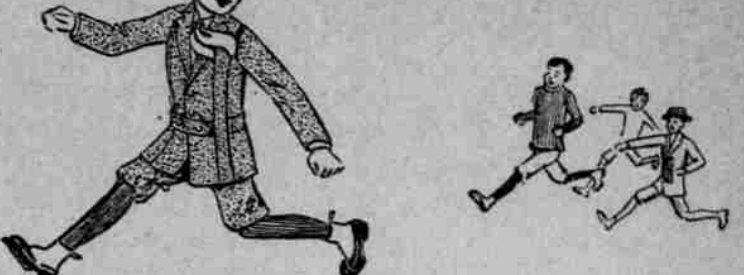

The first of the three explanatory grand opera evenings arranged in Ellers Recital Hall by Mrs. Charlotte Curtis have met with much interest on the part of music lovers. In spite of the rainy weather the hall was crowded and all who came could not be accommodated. Mrs. Curtis' brilliantly interesting lecture work has been accorded much enthusiastic support in the past and this evening's lecture recital of the beautiful Humperdinck opera, "Hansel and Gretel," and also the "Tales of Hoffman," will be explained and illustrated in the same manner as was "Thaïs" last night by means of modern talking machine records and orchestral music rolls on the auto piano. Again on Monday night promptly at 8 o'clock the "Jewels of the Madonna," with also a short reference to "Lucia di Lammermoor," will be brought out. On this occasion the superbly gorgeous records of Tetravini will be heard.

Admission is entirely free, but in order to prevent over-crowding admission tickets must be secured in Ellers Music House sales department and also at the cashier's desk any time during business hours.
