BRIGHTON, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—Eight hundred feet off Nehalem sand spit, in the midst of a terrific sea, pitched by a heavy wind, at least 26 men, including several prominent civil engineers and marine men of Portland, are struggling against death on board the four-masted German bark Mimi, which capsized today, after being pulled into deep water from the sand beach which she had struck February 13.

The fate of the men is held a secret by the fury of the ocean, which has made rescue impossible. Darkness tonight saw the figures of the men clinging to the boat, and the wind brought their cries for help to the ears of 1,000 or more people on the beach. Every attempt at rescue met with failure. The United States lifesaving crew from Garibaldi worked almost within hailing distance of the men and employed every means to get a line or a lifeboat to them, but without success.

Hope Lies in Lasting Ability.

Unless the men can hold out on board the vessel until morning it is believed every one will be drowned, there being no possible means for them to escape, and the efforts of the lifesavers having been suspended as hopeless for the night, after darkness enshrouded the scene.

The exact number of men aboard is not known, but it is said to be certain that it runs as high as 26. If the entire crew which was working on the boat up to Saturday afternoon is aboard the number is 31, of which 20 are members of the crew, for the most part German sailors; eight loggers who live here, or near here, and the others Portland men and officials connected with the Brighton Lumber Mills.

The wreck occurred about 2 o'clock this morning, soon after the bark was dislodged from the sand which has held her since February 13, when she pushed her nose into the beach while attempting to get over the bar at the entrance to Nehalem Bay. She was dragged into the ocean by means of donkey engines, and upon reaching deep water was struck by a heavy sea.

Cries Give News of Life.

Having been relieved of practically all her ballast, the waves turned her until she got beyond control, and, as she turned broadside to the waves, she capsized, taking all on board with her. She disappeared under the water completely and it was feared that all

UPRISING IN JOLO REPORTED SERIOUS

OFFICIALS ALARMED BY ACTIVITY OF MOROS.

Many Wounded American Soldiers Reach Manila—Strict Censorship Is Maintained.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(Special.)—Officials of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department are alarmed at reports from Manila concerning an insurrection of the Moros which centers around Jolo.

Private letters received here from Manila say that more than a year the Moros have been smuggling rifles into the province through Chinese traders in Borneo, and that more than 15,000 of the tribesmen are armed. Jolo, say the letters, is in a state of siege and is surrounded by thousands of Moros. Fighting has been going on in the province for two months, and many wounded American soldiers have been sent to Manila.

A strict censorship concerning what is happening near Jolo is said to have been established by Governor-General Forbes, so that the real situation is unknown in the United States.

Brigadier-General Pershing commands the American troops at Jolo, and some of the letters bitterly denounce him for what is denominated his inefficiency in meeting the uprising, which is said to have reached formidable proportions.

UNIONS TO SUPPORT GIRLS

Aid Promised if Boston Telephone Operators Strike.

BOSTON, April 6.—The Central Labor Union voted tonight to support the telephone operators' union in case of a strike of the 2,200 girl employes of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company in Boston and vicinity.

Labor leaders declared tonight that a strike occurred, a campaign would be started for state ownership of telephone companies.

Operators in Boston and suburban exchanges will ballot tomorrow on the question of striking. Principal among the demands made by them are an eight-hour day, the abolition of the "split trick" system and readjustment of wages.

Grief over the death of his wife last September and worry over the runaway marriage of his daughter is believed to be the cause.

TARIFF MARGIN IN SENATE UNCERTAIN

Administration Leaders in Doubt.

OPPOSITION BEING SOUNDED

Free Sugar and Wool Continue Stumbling Blocks.

HOUSE GETS BILL TODAY

Underwood Predicts Passage by Lower Body About May 1—Use of Pressure May Make Trouble for Party Later.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Democratic tariff bill, approved by President Wilson and the Democrats of the House ways and means committee, will be introduced in the House when it convenes at noon tomorrow by Chairman Underwood.

The House Democrats will caucus on the bill Tuesday and Chairman Underwood was confident tonight that it would be indorsed by an overwhelming vote.

The Senate Democrats had no plan tonight to hold a caucus on the bill, but such a meeting may be called later. The Senate finance committee Democrats held a three-hour consultation today, but apparently made little progress toward giving their indorsement to the bill as it now stands.

Senators Prefer Separate Bills.

It was evident that Senators on the finance committee who have sounded out members of the party on the bill had not discovered a satisfactory margin to insure its passage. One-cent sugar, with the free-in-three-years provision and free wool are the stumbling blocks and there will be further investigation to feel out the actual strength of the opposition.

The Senators in conference today were unable to agree on the plan of the President and Mr. Underwood for one bill. They prefer separate bills. This question and that of the supposed anti-free wool and sugar combination will be discussed with Mr. Wilson tomorrow.

House Opposition Not Serious.

Chairman Underwood said he expected no serious opposition in the House. He added that after the caucus approved the bill the House would have a week or ten days for general debate upon it, beginning Wednesday. At the conclusion of the general debate the bill will be taken up paragraph by paragraph, and whatever amendments may be offered will be debated under the five-minute rule. Mr. Underwood was of the opinion that the bill should pass the House about May 1.

A meeting of the Democratic members of the Senate finance committee did not result in a discussion of particular schedules, but of general policy. It was plain, however, that the

YOUNG WOMAN HAS PARTNER ARRESTED

Dinner Guest Held as Deserting Husband.

DIAMONDS STOLEN SHE SAYS

Ethel Newcomb Insists Jack Lewis Left Her in Portland.

MARRIAGE KEPT SECRET

Young Man Avers He Never Saw Girl Before She Invited Him to Sit at Table, but Refuses to Disclose Identity.

CHICAGO, April 6.—(Special.)—Ethel Newcomb, a stylishly gowned young woman, declaring herself to be the daughter of wealthy parents of Fort Wayne, Ind., insists she has succeeded in capturing a young man known to her as Jack Lewis, who robbed her of $500 worth of diamonds and deserted her in Portland, Or., September 10, 1911, after they had been married ten days. Jack Lewis, the man in the case, is in a cell at the South Clark-street Station. He denies the woman is his wife, insists he never saw her before and refuses to reveal his identity.

The arrest of the alleged clever young confidence man was made at the Blackstone Hotel, after he had dined with the young woman who said she was his wife. Alice Newcomb, a sister of the deserted wife, and a youthful physician, who made every possible effort to conceal his identity, figured in the arrest. They were assisted by four detectives. All were excited when they reached the police station.

It finally developed that Miss Newcomb, who says she is Mrs. Lewis, was dining with her sister and the young doctor in the Pempelium room at the Congress Hotel, when the man supposed to be Lewis sauntered in. He was recognized immediately by the deserted bride.

Sister Calls Police.

Miss Newcomb, who explained that because of the fact that the wedding was a secret she had not changed her name, told Lieutenant William Darrow that she greeted her husband with "Hello, Jack," and that he joined the party after explaining that his name was Jack, but that all in the party were strangers to him. He finally induced her to leave the rest of the party to accompany him to the Blackstone Hotel, where they could dine alone and talk matters over. It was while the couple were at the Blackstone that the sister telephoned the police and caused the arrest of the young man of mystery.

Miss Newcomb said that she was in San Francisco staying at the St. Francis Hotel when she was introduced to Jack Lewis by Mrs. Clara Lewis, a friend.

"ACE OF DIAMONDS" IS LATEST DANCE

TEACHERS PROPOSE TO FIGHT GRIZZLY WITH NEW STEPS.

Masters to Meet Fire With Fire, but Naughty Positions Are Absent in Fancy Ballroom Glides.

CHICAGO, April 6.—(Special.)—Police will not permit the grizzly bear or the turkey trot—but wait until they see the Sapho or the ace of diamonds. Those last two travel under the euphonious and rather old-fashioned name of folk dances.

Dancing masters of Chicago having failed to standardize the tango, have hit upon folk dancing as a counter-irritant. They are planning a National congress to popularize it.

Mary Garden's assertion, when Salome was barred, that "police have no souls for art" now may be applied to the dancing masters by lovers of the bunny hug, the hippopotamus hitch, Texas Tommy and the angle-worm waltz.

Those who teach how to cavort in a ballroom assembled today and decided to fight fire with fire, or, rather, names with names. Hence the Sapho, the ace of diamonds, and one other, the shoemaker's glide. By eliminating the naughty positions—the risque, shuffling, syncopated grizzly steps—and injecting a few witty swings and pretty points, the dancing masters believe they will offer something everybody will just go crazy about.

ALBANY JAIL IS SET AFIRE

Drunken Prisoner Is Almost Suffocated When Dragged From Smoke.

ALBANY, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—Otto Lesch, a drunken prisoner in the city jail at Albany, set fire to the jail this evening and was almost suffocated when officers dragged him out. It is not known whether he started the fire by accident or design, but the officers believe the latter theory.

The fire started in a pile of papers and bedding and was extinguished without much damage. Lesch was arrested at 5 o'clock for being drunk and disorderly.

The fire was started less than an hour after he was placed in the jail. He was the only prisoner in the jail at the time.

Officer Marshall was taking George Ballard, an Albany boy, to the jail when he discovered the fire, and when he let go of the boy to unlock the jail and rescue Lesch, young Ballard dashed away and escaped. Ballard was recaptured two hours later and was held in the county jail. He is wanted in Benton County on a charge of larceny.

YACHT BAYOCEAN SAILS

Vessel Purchased in Oregon Will Go Into Service at San Francisco.

BAYOCEAN, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—The yacht Bayocean, which was recently purchased by the North Pacific Steamship Company, left this port today, en route to San Francisco, where it will go into commission as the flagship of the fleet of the Bayocean Excursion Company, operating on San Francisco Bay.

The yacht is in charge of Captain J. Rudden, with J. Ollgren, first officer, and Frank Coulter, chief engineer.

It was stormy and a heavy sea was running, but the yacht negotiated the bar nicely, and was making good speed southward when last seen from this port.

ISLAND GREETSS PRINCESS

Trinidad Officially Receives Louise of Schleswig, on Tour.

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, April 6.—Her Royal Highness, Princess Louise of Schleswig, who is making a tour of the West Indies, was ceremoniously received upon her arrival here last night. She was met by the Governor and the government officials and prominent citizens and escorted by a guard of honor from the localarrison.

On account of the period of mourning at the British court, all arrangements for public entertainments have been abandoned.

SUFFRAGE RIOT REPEATED

Demonstration Against Militants Curbed by Police.

LONDON, April 6.—Rioting at the suffragette meeting in Hyde Park, which has become a regular Sunday afternoon diversion, was repeated today. Only the big force of police prevented the rioters from handling the women roughly.

Two suffragettes talked for half an hour, but were unable to make themselves heard above the uproar of horns and tooting. Misses of various kinds were thrown, and Miss Brackenbury was struck in the face. Mounted police quickly escorted the women's van from the park.

A similar disturbance occurred at Wimbledon Common.

BIG WOOL CLIP GOES EAST

The light-conditioned wools will be graded, baled and shipped to Boston, and the heavier shrinking fleeces will be secured and baled here. The entire clip is to be consigned to C. F. Minnie & Peirce, wool merchants of Boston, Mass.

ALL EUROPE DEFIED BY MONTENEGRINS

Emphatic Reply Made to Blockaders.

ATTITUDE WILL NOT CHANGE

Little Kingdom Says Powers Violate Neutrality.

WARSHIPS OFF ANTIVARI

British Admiral Acts as Spokesman for Nations—Russia Has No Vessels in Line, but Agrees to Demonstration.

CETTINJE, April 6.—The little kingdom of Montenegro has thrown down the gauntlet to the six great powers. She declines to yield to the demand of the powers to abandon her attempts to gain possession of Scutari, and has officially announced that "there will be no departure from an attitude which conforms to the necessities of the state of war existing between the allies and Turkey."

An international fleet, comprising warships of Austria-Hungary, Italy, France, Germany and Great Britain is now blockading the Montenegrin port of Antivari. The fleet includes four Austrian warships, the British cruisers Yarmouth, Indefatigable and Gloucesters; the German cruiser Breslau, the Italian cruiser Pisa and the French cruiser Edgard Quinet.

Message Sent to Premier.

Russia is not represented by a warship, but has acquiesced in the naval demonstration.

The British Admiral sent the following message to the Montenegrin Premier, Dr. L. Tomlanovic:

"I have the honor to inform you that the international fleet is assembled in Montenegrin waters as a protest against non-fulfillment of the wishes of the great powers. I desire to call your excellency's attention to the presence of the fleet as a proof that the great powers are acting in concert, and request that their wishes be fulfilled without further delay. Please inform me immediately that your government is ready to carry out the wishes of the great powers."

Attitude Is Unchanged.

To this the Montenegrin Premier replied in a note expressing regret at the presence of the fleet, which he considered a violation of the neutrality proclaimed by the powers at the beginning of the war. The Premier continued:

"Despite the pressure which the presence of the fleet implies, there will be no departure from an attitude which conforms to the necessities of the state of war existing between the allies and Turkey."

A brigade of Austrian troops from Cattaro has been maneuvering near the Montenegrin boundary.

The customary note has not been given the Montenegrin government, and Austria's action is considered unfriendly and menacing.

KING SEES IRONY IN NAME

Nicholas Comments on Writer for Whom Cruiser Was Christened.

PARIS, April 6.—King Nicholas of Montenegro is quoted in the Temps as saying that he has learned with sorrow that the cruiser Edgard Quinet will represent France in the naval demonstration on the Montenegrin coast.

"It is a bitter irony," said the King, "that the name of the illustrious writer, Edgard Quinet, the upholder of peoples struggling for independence and unity, should be associated with an expedition against the small but valiant champion of Balkan independence. You may say that despite the measures of coercion taken by Europe against her, Montenegro will yield only to violence. It remains for Europe to add the ridicule of armed force to her injustice."

SLAV OUTBURST PERMITTED

Crowd of 50,000 Holds Demonstration in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—Another great Slav demonstration occurred today, but on this occasion the police did not interfere. The climax was reached when the crowd, which numbered 50,000, appeared before the residence of the Dowager Empress, sang the national anthem and displayed banners inscribed:

"Down with Austria!" "Scutari for the Montenegrins!" "The cross over St. Sophia!"

A visit was paid then to the cathedral and to the guards' barracks, where the officers saluted the banners.

SERVIAN GENERAL COMMANDS

Montenegro Ruler Reported to Have Yielded in Favor of Bojovic.

LONDON, April 6.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Vienna says that King Nicholas, of Montenegro has resigned as Commander-in-Chief of the army bestowing Scutari, in favor of the Serbian General, Bojovic.
