Foresters of America to Meet.—
The Foresters convention will be held in Portland May 20 to 22. Delegates from all over the State of Oregon will come for the occasion, there being over 106 delegates elected by the different courts in Oregon. For the occasion there is going to be a lively contest between the different drill teams. A beautiful silver trophy has been offered by the grand court of teams. A beautiful aliver trophy has been offered by the grand court of the order, for the best drilled and ritualistic work. All the courts in Portland have a committee for the purpose of entertaining the visitors of the different courts that are to convene here at the time of the convention. There is going to be theater parties, banquets and a lively session.

Park SITE ACCEPTED.—The County Court was notified formally by the city yesterday that the county's offer to deed to the city for public park purposes a gravel pit of several acres in Lents will be accepted. The last Legislature enacted legislation giving the county the right to make the transfer.
A condition is that the property must be improved as a park and never may be used for any other purpose. The transfer has been arranged verbally heretofore. Written communications were exchanged merely for the purpose of making a record for future references.

GEORGE SMITH WINE JUDGMENT.—
JUDGMENT for $750 against D. C. Burns and Arthur D. Gossman, his stepson, was given George Smith by a jury in Circuit Judge Davis' court yesterday. Last Supmer Gossman was driving Burns' sutomobile. At First and Columbia streets he knocked down Smith smith sustained a broken leg and other rejuries. Attorneys for Burns sought a non-sait as to their client on the ground that the automobile had been taken without permission, but it was disallowed on the showing that he frequently had permitted Gossman to take it.

April II, at the clubhouse.

Celebrating her loth birthday, Miss Emily Von Bergen was hostess to a group of little friends Monday afternoen at the home of her parents, 1195 East Tenth street North. A dainty luncheon was served and the decorations were elaborate. Pink carnations were used on the table, and a wheel of fruit blossoms, with ten spokes, indicating the age of the hostess, was suspended from the chandelier. Pink ribbon streamers from the wheel to the table had favors tied to one end, marking places for the Misses Helen Aaris, Christina Kuebel, Ruby Carlson, Neola Otto, Geraldine Rose, Marjorie Flegel, Edith Janin, Helen Purviance, Christina Johns and the hostess. Jolly little games made the afternoon a most delightful one.

Mrs. John Sloan Kingsley entertained

Mrs. John Sloan Kingsley entertained with six tables of Five Hundred on Friday. The rooms were artistically decorated with daffodils and foliage. Highest scores were made by Mrs. Harvey Freedman and Mrs. Robins. The guests included: Mrs. Kingsley, Mrs. J. Curtis Robinson, Mrs. Fred Dunham, Mrs. F. F. Williams Mrs. Edward E. Kingsley, Mrs. S. B. Huston, Mrs. Joseph Hutchinson, Mrs. O. P. Miller, Mrs. William Adams, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Kornahrens, Mrs. T. Ernest Oates, Mrs. M. McGraw, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Charles Sanger, Mrs. May Hutchinson, Dr. Ethel Gray, Mrs. Harry Freedman, Mrs. Joseph Price, Mrs. Thomas Rowe, Mrs. McCaulay, Mrs. William Patterson and Mrs. Bullock.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Clark left

Mrs. J. W. Considine and Miss Considine, of Sentile, arrived in Portland Monday evening, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kohl, of Chicago, who came West to attend the Conlon-Considine wedding, which was a brilliant affair of last week in Seattle. They are passing a few days at Portland Hotel. Mr. Kohl is a prominent theatrical man of Chicago.

The members of the Yacht Club were entertained by Mrs. B. N. Wade at her agartments in the Ress Friend yester-day at luncheon, after which cards were played.

Mrs P. L. Litherland, 1239 Rodney avenue, entertained Saturday afternoon with five tables of bridge. An interesting hit of news was told when the betrothal of her daughter, Miss Beryl Margaret, to Royal Alfred Fultz was made known by little Miss Dorothy Cannon. The wedding will take place early in June.
