BOARD APPROVES DRILLS ARRANGEMENTS FOR SCHOOL PARADE PERMITTED. Requests Made by East Side Clubs Regarding Rose Festival. Are Granted. The Board of Education has granted the request of the East Side Business Men's Club to give the children of the public schools who enter the children's parade, Rose Festival week, two hours each week for the three weeks preceding the parade, between 1:30 and 3:30 P. M. in which to make preparation. The principals and teachers will arrange the details. Some of the athletic exercises will be omitted to permit the drills. This arrangement was suggested by Robert Krohn, who will prepare the features of the parade. The Board also granted the children a full holiday on the day of the parade, and permission was given to announce the event and urge children of all the schools of the city, the West and the East sides, to take part. Practically all the suggestions of the club were approved. It was decided to have the parade in the forenoon. The finance committee of the East Side Business Men's Club started raising money for the parade yesterday. G. E. Welter, member of the committee, said that citizens are responding liberally. "Many business men we saw today," said Mr. Welter, "are increasing their subscriptions of former years. They say that the children's parade should not be omitted from the Rose Festival."

Chief Slover's Valued Pen Found in India. Souvenir Falls Into Missionary Box of Prunes Sent Out by Free Methodist Church, and is Reported by Recipient. LAST October Chief Slover lost his fountain pen, a highly valued present. Yesterday tidings of it came to him from far-off India, where it was found in a box of prunes. When the police chief missed his pen he instituted a search covering every spot where it might have been dropped, both at his home and at the police station. After searching the surface thoroughly, he went deeper, even digging up a lot of potato parings he had buried in his back yard. He sorted over all the potatoes in his cellar, and pulled up a post he had planted in the yard, but the missing pen was not revealed. Early this week Mrs. W. N. Coffey, president of the Foreign Mission Society of the Free Methodist Church, of which the Chief is a member, received a letter from Mrs. Margaret Taylor, wife of a missionary at Yestmal Berar, India. It told of finding a fine fountain pen in a box of prunes which had been shipped to the mission from the Portland church. Then Chief Slover remembered. When the congregation gathered to prepare the shipment, he, in consideration of his "heft," was delegated to do the heavy work in cramming the prunes in the box, and it was then that the pen dropped out of his pocket and was buried in the fruit. Milwaukie Landmark Burns. MILWAUKIE, Or., April 11.—(Special.)—The building, which was destroyed by fire in this place Tuesday night, was one of the oldest schoolhouses in Clackamas County in which many of the pioneer educators taught. It was the second schoolhouse built in Milwaukie 63 years ago and used as a schoolhouse until it was supplanted by the present modern building. It was then used as a Grange hall and was purchased by the Milwaukie Band. It was the property of Homer Mullen.

RANCHER'S BODY SOUGHT Snake River Dragged for Ray Ferrell, Bridegroom of Two Weeks. ONTARIO, Or., April 11.—(Special.)—Searchers have been dragging the Snake River, near the railroad bridge, all day for the body of Ray Ferrell, 25 years of age, a prominent rancher of this place. His gun and hat were found on the bank. It is supposed he shot a duck, and, being an expert swimmer, attempted to recover it. Two weeks ago he married the daughter of J. F. Richardson. The Spanish government will spend $2,000,000 on a scientific building at the Central University in Madrid.
