POPE'S CONDITION ADMITTED GRAVE

Fever and Cough New Causes of Alarm.

BULLETINS ARE GENSORED

Physicians Do Not Deny Pneu- quely, when he visited Edmondson's monia May Be Present.

VATICAN GUARD VIGILANT

Dr. Amlei Says Present Crisis Can Be Overcome, Following Which Pontiff's Life May Be Prolonged for Years.

HOME. April 14. - All indications Fope's condition.

The impression had gained great alarm. The impression had gained great alarm. The impression had gained at once.

The impression had gained at once. ground that the traches bronchitis had at once, developed into pneumonia.

While not absolutely denying this

Professor Marchiafava said: properly be called pneumonia; but, with Canadian Steamer With Hole in Side tracheal bronchitis, sometimes the ungs do not function properly. Probably the resistent and robust figure of the holy father may overcome this canger. Meanwhile we can make the tope, that the condition of albuminuria as disappeared." Earlier Bulletins Hopeful.

In the two bulletins issued, one in sorning and one in the evening. the Pope's condition was set forth as opeful, but it has been learned that the bulletins as prepared by the attending physicians have come under the censorship of the papal secretary of The explanation now is given that Doctors Marchiafava and Amici embody in their bulletins all details with reference to the pulse and respirain addition to other pathological

These bulletins are submitted to Cardinal Merry del Val, and when they reach the public they lack what the papal secretary considers unnecessary nd undesirable for publicity.

Confessor Called to Chamber.

After midnight there was an increase the temperature of the patient, and the fact that a large quantity of disinfectants had been taken into the sic spartment was considered as an indicaion that the bronchitis had develope into pneumonia. The Monk Vives y e cardinal. been for some time the confessor of the Pope, entered his room and remained there 45 minutes. It was supposed that se confessed the pontiff.

Extraordinary measures were taken tate at night by the vatican authorisame time the Italian government organized a special police service around orange blossom season.

Hemorrhage Causes Alarm.

Great alarm was occasioned about 11 o'clock, when the Pope, during a strong access of coughing, emitted a quantity of blood. Those present thought he reaching the bedside, restored calm. nean was covered with them. saying that probably the Pope would great relief, as the presence of the blood was doubtless due to the rup-ture of small vessels in the throat.

Dr. Amici, in a statement last night prior to the extremely serious condition which arose, said;

The condition of the Pope is grave but not alarming. We can overcome the present crisis. Then, if he follows the doctors' advice, he may live some years more. The present relapse was due to the reluctance of the Pontiff to submit strictly to medical regime. The mohis ordinary occupations, which cause loss of strength and great dan-

Enrly Morning Passed Restlessly.

Prom midnight until 5 o'clock in the on the branch was abandoned, and morning the Pope dozed quietly and may not be resumed for several days. appeared to be relieved by the rest. An hour later, however, he began to show restlessness, had several coughing fits and found difficulty in breath-to do so, were forced to comply with under it and was backing the water within a few minutes many to bed within a few minutes, unsteadily. Pilows were piled behind him and he half sat and half reclined, that posi-tion being more favorable for easier respiration.

Professor Marchiafava arrived at the Vatican shortly after 7 A. M. and with water is being pumped.

Dr. Amici made a thorough examination of the patient. This disclosed a congestion in the thorax, more prounced on the left side than or right. The physicians issued the foltowing bulletin:

The day passed off quietly. In the afternoon the fever rose to 101 degrees. but tonight is already decreasing. The tracheal brouchial symptoms are un-

The general condition always has

Heart Weakness Counterbalanced. The subsidence of the fever caused relief, and the only serious apprehen-

(Concluded on Page 3.)

MAYOR RESIGNS; REGAINS FREEDOM

TRAPSHOOT SAID TO FIGURE IN SPEEDY DECISION.

Troutdale Saloonkeeper Promises to Sin No More, but Deputy Sheriff to Lose Commission.

Upon his promise to resign the office of Mayor of Troutdale immediately, S. A. Edmondson, a saloonof that village, was released from the County Jall yesterday mornng after spending the night in confinement on a charge of selling liquor

"What right have you to be Mayor of a town?" asked Sheriff Word brus-

"None, I guess," replied Edmond-

Other conditions imposed upon the prisoner-Mayor were that he should sin SENATE LEADERS TO AID no more in the conduct of his saloon business, and that he should pay the expenses of Harold Brundige Camas, Wash. Brundige is the boy to whom Edmondson sold liquor.

Eagerness to participate in a meet of the Oregon State Trapshooting League, in which Troutdale and Portland contended yesterday, is said to have been a contributing factor to Edmondson's quick decision.

Further reprisals are threatened in the case of the Troutdale Town Marshal, who holds a special Deputy Sher point to the utmost gravity of the iff's commission. This official, says Pope's condition. At midnight the Sheriff Word, was in the saloon of Edmondson Saturday night when it was Proceeds to Vancouver.

JUNEAU, Alaska, April 13. struck a rock at Sentinel Island at 2:10 o'clock this morning.

A large hole was torn in the port side of the steamer's bow, but she was ouver. B. C., under her own steam. The steamer's double bottom kept her from sinking. She is taking little water and is believed to be danger. The accident to the Princess Sophia curred at the same place where her sister liner, the Princess May, was wrecked at 2:05 o'clock in the morning of August 5, 1910. The approach Sentinel Island, at the southern end of Lynn Canal, is one of the most dangerous stretches of water Alaska.

Princess Sophia is a stee steamer 290 feet long, 40 feet beam and 21 feet deep. Her gross tonnage is 2820. She was built at Newcastle in

PULLETS KILLED BY BEES

PORTERVILLE, Cal., April 13 .- (Spe cial.)-Two hundred pullets belonging to W. F. Weems, a poultry-raiser in the Plano district, were stung to death when a swarm of bees attacked them. patroiling both within and The bees, which belong to the Kern without the spostolic palace. At the County Land Company, are brought to this district every year during the

Besides the chickens, which were killed, several score of others were so badly stung that they will also die. After the bees had attacked the chickens, they continued down the road and attacked an automobile party. The was dying and rushed for a doctor and bees were so thick that after the car Cardinal Merry del Val. The latter, on had emerged from the swarm the ton-

What angered the bees is a mystery unless it was the overheating of their closely scaled hives during the trip. As soon as the hives were opened the bees attacked every living thing in the neighborhood.

IDAHO TOWN IS IN DANGER

Section of Railroad Goes Into River and Wallace Bridge Dynamited.

WALLACE, Idaho, April 13. - (Spe cial.)-A section of track on the Murray branch of the O.-W. R. & N. Rail-way, said to be 299 feet in length, went into the North Fork River near Prichard this morning. Train service

All streams in the district reached ing. On this account he insisted on Pacific depot in Wallace was dynamited today, as the only method of liberating

> In the city limits, are rising rapidly and a disastrous flood is feared. Basements in the business section were found to be filled with water this morning and from many of them the

69-POUND BASS CAUGHT

Hudson River Fishers Make Biggest Shad Haul of Scason.

NEW YORK, April 13 .- (Special.)rederick Truax, who has the largest shad fishery on Hudson River, caught today at Edgewater, N. J., a 69-pound bass. In pulling the net into his power boat two of his employes fell overboard and were rescued by him.

One hundred and eighty shad were caught, the biggest catch this season m at that time was to be found in The 69-pound bass is four feet six

AS HEAD OF PART

Victory on Sugar in Leave of absence refused to Pope's brother to visit Varican. Page 2. Extreme gravity of Pope's condition admitted. Page 1. House Complete.

WILSON SUSTAINED

CAUCUS SUPPORT IS STRONG

Minority Against Free Wool Doomed to Defeat.

Few Changes in Rates From Thos Favored by President Are Probable - Republicans Working on Substitute.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—President
Wilson emerged from the first week of the special tariff session of Congress apparently in a stronger position as the active leader of Democracy tion as the active leader of Democracy
Thomas McCusker gives views on propose commission charter. Page 8.

Within the brief space of seven days he had won a victory in the caucus of House Democrats for his free-sugar programme; had formed a working agreement with the Democratic leaders of the Senate, which is believed ofessor Marchiafava said:
"At the present time it could not PRINCESS SOPHIA STRIKES House Democrats for his free-sugar agreement with the Democratic leadwill insure general support of his tariff programme in that body, and had established precedents of the danger. Meanwhile we can make the Canadian Pacific steamship Princess Presidential co-operation with Constatment, which must give rise to great Sophia. Captain Charles Campbell, gress, which, if successful, are expected to influence, greatly the entire programme of legislation throughout the Wilson Administration.

At all points where Mr. Wilson's decisions were instrumental in the fixing of rates in the new tariff bill, the full Democratic membership of the House voted to sustain him in caucus by heavy majorities. House leaders, dethe tariff rates, have supported his decisions and successfully rallied party upport to his defense, as the bill has been fought over by the Democratic members.

The tariff revision fight admittedly is only begun, but the developments of the last week have convinced party leaders that there are likely to be few changes from the rates favored by the President and little dissension is believed, will all be in favor of the within Democratic ranks over the final bill. approval of the bill.

Wool Fight Due This Week.

Swarm Maddened by Confinement a Democratic minority organization of rived here today from Newcastle, Australia, reported it had passed a derelict tempt to upset the Pres programme, it is expected that the the Farallones. (Concluded on Page 2)

YOU DIDN'T

EM OVER

HITATIT

OUT!

THINK IT

WILL HELP ME

UNDERSTAND

POLITICS

BETTE

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

Morning & Oregonian.

Assassin tries to kill Kine Alfonso, Page 1

National.
Wilson further sustained as party leader.
Page 1.

Millonaires incorporate California town to keep taxes down. Page 5 rost and his four associates found not guilty of Alaska land frauds. Page 5.

omises of minimum wage for girls mad in Wisconsin. Page 1. In Wisconsin. Page I.

Ohlo millionaire serving term in workhouse rather than pay fine, Page 5.

Von Klein relies on photograph to establish alibi. Page 2.

General Ojeda surrenders to United States after bloody fight, leaving Naco to rebels. Page 1.

Daughters of American Page 1.

Page 1.

Daughters of American Revolution in bitter campaign. Page 2.

Arrangements complete for funeral of J. P. Morgan today. Page 2.

Sport.

Pacific Coast League results: Portland 2-6,
Oakland 2-4: Bacramento 5, Los Angeles
4; Venice 2-5, San Francisco 1-4. Page 10.

Portland Colts defeat American Giants, 2 to 1, in ten innings. Page 13.

Miss Josephine Daugherty takes honor in

1. in ten innings. Page 13.

Miss Josephine Daugherty takes honor in Boosters' Club. Page 10.

Bud Anderson wants to meet with Rivers and then life on Medford farm. Page 12.

Beavers returning in first division. Page 12. Nick Williams releases three Colts, Page 13

Portland and Vicinity.

Seven sections will be conducted at Con-servation of Human Life Conference Page 8.

BALL MAGNATES WORRIED Boynton Compensation Bill Would

Indemnify Players.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 13 .- (Special.) - One feature of the Boynton workmen's compensation bill will be of interest to every fan and incidentally to the owners of clubs and themselves. This is that a player injured, accidentally or otherwise, car make the owners of the team pay him compensation for this injury. Should a man get "spiked" on a base or should a pitcher put his arm to the bad, even in practice, each of them would have a case to apply for a com pensation from the owner and could get it without any trouble by means of this proposed act. The baseball men are just waking up to the fact that the bill reaches them and are to make a strong protest, while the players, it hout 100 feet long, 60 miles west of It appeared to have been in the water a long time.

Derelict Reported Off Coast.

MR. AND MRS. BUG.

TWO,

BOOSTER SECTION

GRANDSTANO

STRIKE

ONE!

OJEDA SURRENDERS TO UNITED STATES

Indians Slaughter as Naco Is Abandoned.

DEAD IN FIGHT NUMBER 200

Guard of 15 Left to Cover Retreat Die in Barracks.

ARE MUTILATED

Federal General Spikes Cannon and Destroys Supplies, Leaving Little for Victorious Rebels. Obregon Exultant.

NACO, Ariz., April 18 .- General Pedro Ojeda, commanding the remnants of his federal garrison of 300 troopers at Naco, Sonora, surrendered to the United States troops on border patrol here this morning at 11 o'clock, after having withstood a siege of state troops which lasted for five days, and in which more than half his troopers were killed.

The surrender was hastened by the attack on the federal garrison by the band of Yaqui Indians under Genera Alvaro Obregon, commanding The latter force at daybreak burst in on the little garrison and sides has been estimated at 200, and Inted. Forces Scatter in Retreat.

General Ojeda, true to his promise efused to surrender. While the fighting was at its height he attempted to march across the border with his small band. The fire from the enemy was demoralizing, and Ojeda and his men ran and became scattered. Not even then did the firing from the rebeis

Captain H. A. Sievart, Company Ninth United States Cavalry, ran alone to Oleda's assistance.

The American officer grasped the Mexican General by the arm. Together they ran in a hall of lead to where an automobile was awaiting. Guard Left Behind Is Slaughtered.

Captain Figueroa, of the federal garison, with 15 men remained behind to cover General Ojeda's flight. One by The wool fight will come in the SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—The one he and his fellows died in the House caucus early this week. While barkentine James Johnson, which ar-barracks, surrounded by a horde of yelling, slaughtering Yaquis. General Obregon entered the barracks from which the handful of federal soldiers had wrought so much (Concluded on Page 5)

CITY FORMED TO KEEP TAXES DOWN

SAN MARINO INCORPORATED

Huntington Asked to Declare Ar Galleries Civic Center, Saving

-San Marino, with a population of 519, mostly millionaires and their kin, will created a full-fledged city tomor row by the Board of Supervisors, the vote yesterday, 131 to 5, the latter all cast by one family, being in favor of incorporation to prevent absorption and incidentally taxation by Albambra. Pasadena and South Pasadena, between which the little community is wedged. The city covers 2500 acres of which one-third is owned by Henry E. Huntington, while the other homes range in cost from $30,000 to $50,000.

The following trustees were elected: E. H. Groenendyke, a Pasadena banker George S. Patton, ex-Senator; G. Har real estate broker; R. H. Lacy, manufacturer, and W. L. Valentine, oil The City Treasurer is H. Stewart, banker, and the City Clerk the only paid official of the city, W B. Rees, of the Pacific Electric Rail way.

H. E. Huntington has been asked to declare his art galleries and museum the civic center, and one of the room probably will be used for a City Hall, free of cost to the taxpayers, city taxes will be kept at a minium, as no Chief of Police or other officials life. will be employed.

SENATORIAL BATH GOES

Caucus Cuts Off One Luxury and Aims at Another.

WASHINGTON, April 13,-Senators who have been accustomed to splash fought victously. The dead on both luxuriously in the fine baths in the the fortifications at Naco, Senora, are there no more. The big baths, by order veritable slaughter pens. About the of the Democratic caucus of the Senbuildings are strewn more than 100 ate, have been locked up and the bath bodies, shot, cut and horribly muti- attendants have had their official heads cut off. All this in the way of conomy, it was said Saturday.

Senate barber shop, where Senators are allowed to have their whiskers trimmed and their hair cut free of charge. The barber shop may be continued, but each Senator will have to pay for his own shave or haircut.

Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, is one of those who believe that the free haircuts should be dispensed with and last session unsuccessfully attempted to get a bill of that kind

CEREMONY IS ORTHODOX

at Hotel Before Using It.

Jewish Cooks to Clean Out Kitcher

BALTIMORE, April 13. - (Special.)-The kitchen of Hotel Belvidere will be turned over tomorrow to a corps of experienced Jewish cooks, who will ish laws.

The dinner will follow the wedding of Miss Celeste Rohr Reinhard to Simon Plant, of Newark, N. J., which will take place at Shearith Israel Synagogue, The ceremony will be performed according to ancient orthodox Jewish customs. When the Jewish cooks arrive at the Belvidere the entire kitchen will be cleaned and renovated by them. will bring with them entirely new cooking utensils, and the foods, which have been selected with great care. not be sent to the hotel until after their arrival. The dinner will be served upon china bought especially for the occasion.

EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED

Seven Dead and 15 Injured in Derailment on Montreal Branch.

MONTREAL, April 13 .- Seven persons are dead and 15 were injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train this afternoon on the Mon- who were greatly alarmed. The King treal-Chambly branch of the Central smilingly allayed their fears. Vermont Railway, about four and one half miles out of St. Lambert.

The train was carrying about 700 passengers, who had taken advantage the first three coaches left the track.

NATURALIST IN AUTO SPILL John Burroughs Injured While Driving Gift Car for First Time.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. V., April 12 .-(Special.)-John Burroughs, the noted naturalist, was injured near here Saturday while driving for the first time a light runabout, the gift of friends. steering gear of the car broke while rounding a sharp curve and the machine went over an embankment. Burroughs was thrown out, sustain ing bruises and was also cut by flying glass. A farmer took him to his home Mrs. Burroughs is ill here with pneumonia.

SAN BERNARDINO SHAKES Short, Sharp Earthquake Rocks Buildings Early in Morning.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 12 short, sharp earthquake was felt at

There was no damage, although the right with the title of Baroness Fur-45 o'clock this morning.

ANARCHIST TRIES TO KILL ALFONSO

King's Own Quickness Saves His Life.

GLOVE IS BURNED BY POWDER

Bullet Intended for Monarch

CAPTURED IS

Man Says He Was Overcome by Sud-Admiration for Ruler's Bravery in Emergency. MADRID, April 13. - For the third of an anarchistic attempt against his Three shots were fired at the King today in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately

King Alfonso owes his escape to his courage, quickness and skilled horse-Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcala, returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and selzed the bridle of the King's horse with one hand, pointing a revolver point blank with the other. The King, realizing the situation with lightning rapidity, dug his spurs into his horse, which reared vio-

His quickness saved his life. bullet, instead of burying itself in the King's breast, struck the horse. close was the range that the King's left giove was blackened by the powder dis-the trigger again a secret service sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms struggling furiously. The assassing managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

Assassin Fights Fiercely.

At the sound of the first shot the King's staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought flercely in the grip of four policemen before he was overpowered and handcuffed.

King Alfonso, as soon as he saw that the man had been secured, raised himprepare and serve an elaborate wed-self on his stirrups and turned to the ding dinner according to ancient Jew-crowd, gave a military salute, and shouted in a ringing voice: "Long live Spain!" He then dismounted and reassured his staff, saving:

"It is nothing, gentlemen A mighty roar rose from the enthuslastic masses, which swept along the highway as the King rode to the palace, cool, collected and smiling.

Impetuous Loyalist Arrested. A spectator, a pensioned loyal halberdier, pushed forward so impetuo ly to offer his congratulations to the monarch, that he was mistaken for an other assassin and was arrested. He was released as soon as the mistake was discovered. A young Freachman, who was standing beside Allegro, also was arrested, but it does not appear that he was connected with him.

The crowds made a determined attempt to lynch Allegro, who was rushed into a house and kept there until he was removed by mounted police to headquarters. King Alfonso was forced to tell of what he lightly called "the incident" to Queen Victoria and the Dowager Queen, Maria Christina,

People Show Their Joy.

He had hardly been back in the pal-ace ten minutes when an immense clamor arose. of the free trip given by a real estate which the palace looks were black with firm to prospective purchasers of lots people of all classes desirous of showo a subdivision and was returning to ing their joy at the King's safety and Montreal at a speed of between 20 and their admiration for his bravery. The 30 miles an hour, when from some King acknowledged the cheers, and cause, as yet unknown, the engine and then sought the Queen. The two stood bowing to the throngs for several min-

> The police investigations have established that Allegro was recently expelled from France as an anarchist, after which he went to Barcelona. He came to Madrid a month ago and obtained employment in a carpenter shop, He worked there until Friday.

> It is said that during his first examination Allegro declared that, on seeing the King pass, he was seized with a sudden evil impulse and, having a re-volver in his pocket, drew it. Driven on by an irresistible force he sprang forward and fired.

A woman said to be associated with Allegro was arrested tonight.

YOUNGEST PEER IN BRITAIN Title to Barony of Furnival in Abeyance Since 1777.

LONDON, April 13 .- (Special.)-King George has determined in favor of 12year-old Honorable Mary Frances Petre for the Barony of Furnival, which has been in abeyance since 1777. She will become peeress in her own was strong enough to rock nival, and will be the youngest peeress in Great Britain.

Rent of City Hall. LOS ANGELES, April 13 .- (Special.)

ASSASSIN

den Influence - Populace Show

Powder Blackens Glove.

Before the assailant was able to pull