

HUERTA REGIME IS BELIEVED DOOMED

Mexico's Hope Is Centered in Doubtful Probability of Obtaining Loan.

REBELS ARE IN ACCORD

Departing Steamers Filled to Overflowing With Fleeing Foreigners, Who Fear Anarchy Will Possess the Country.

MEXICO CITY, April 17.—Undisguised pessimism is manifested in the capital as to the future of the Huerta government. In neither official nor unofficial circles are there statements of confidence in the present administration.

Without exception the newspapers aver that the only hope of salvation lies in the flotation of a loan. Practically all of them admit that non-recognition of the present administration makes this doubtful.

The rebels in the north are extending their lines rapidly as indicated by the isolation today of Monterey and Saltillo. The capture of the railway between San Luis Potosi and Saltillo, and the main line of the National Railroad between San Luis Potosi and Saltillo.

Without exception the newspapers aver that the only hope of salvation lies in the flotation of a loan. Practically all of them admit that non-recognition of the present administration makes this doubtful.

The banks continue to refuse to sell exchange except at exorbitant rates, while merchants are raising their prices to balance the differences between Mexican and foreign currency.

Rebel Activity Extending. That the rebels in the north are extending their lines rapidly is indicated by the isolation today of Monterey and Saltillo.

Guthrie Goes to Tokio. ALBANY, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—James Conn, veteran of the Civil War and resident of Albany for the past 20 years, died today at his home in this city at the age of 83 years. He was born in Ohio in 1830 and enlisted in 1864 in Company A, Twenty-ninth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, serving until the end of the war. He came to Oregon about 20 years ago, and after farming near this city for a few years he moved into Albany, where he had resided continuously since that time. Mr. Conn never married. He is survived by the following nephews and nieces in this state: Samuel Conn, N. D. Conn and Perry R. Conn, of Albany; Richard Conn, of Portland; and Mrs. J. A. McClesney, of Albany. Mr. Conn was a member of McPherson Post No. 5, Grand Army of the Republic, of this city.

White House Puzzled. HOW TO APPEASE JAPANESE OPINION IS QUESTION. California Law Expected to Follow Closely Lines of One Now in Effect in New York. WASHINGTON, April 17.—Comparison today of proposed alien land holding legislation in California with similar statutes in force for years in the District of Columbia and several states revealed to White House officials increased difficulty in handling the protest entered by Japan. It was pointed out at the White House that no foreign nation ever had entered protest against their existing laws. Incidentally word reached here that while the bills in the Senate and House at Sacramento differed, eventually a bill would be agreed on about the lines of alien land laws in New York state and the District of Columbia.

Monoplist Crosses Channel. DOVER, England, April 17.—Gustave Hamel, a British aviator, accompanied by Frank Dupre, an American, made a monoplane nonstop flight from Dover to Cologne, Germany, this afternoon in four hours and five minutes. The distance is something over 250 miles.
