MRS. STORY LACKS ONLY SIX VOTES

Daughters of American Revolution Take Second Ballot for President-General.

MRS. HORTON 32 BEHIND

Race, Will Withdraw to Break

WASHINGTON, April 17 .- Mrs. Willlam Cumming Story, of New York, head of the conservative party, failed by six votes of the majority necessary to elect her president-general of the society of the Daughters of the American Revolution on the second ballot, which began today and closed late to-The vote stood:

Mrs. William Cumming Story 574, Mrs. John Miller Horton (administration candidate) 542, Mrs. Charles B. Bryan 42. Another ballot will begin when the continental congress recon-

None of the candidates for the seven vice-presidents-general remaining to be elected received the necessary majori-ties and they, too, will have to be balloted upon again tomorrow. It was agreed to have the third ballet begin at 10 A. M. tomorrow and close at 5 P. M. At a late hour there was no intimation as to whether Mrs. Bryan would withdraw from the race.

Ballot Holds All Interest. Aside from the casting of the second ballot, there was little interest in the proceedings of the congress. It had been planned by the administration to bring to the attention of the delegates several radical amendments to the consiltution and bylaws. When these sub-jects came up for discussion, however, a motion carried to hold the proposed nents over until the congress day, partly because of the fewer names to be voted upon, and also because the delegates were more familiar with the method of casting ballots.

Iown Said to Shift Vote. Throughout the afternoon there were rumors of changes in the votes of various delegations. Iowa was reported to have shifted its vote from Mrs. Horton to Mrs. Story, who had a lead of 37 votes on the first ballot.

The delegates were received today y President and Mrs. Wilson.

RIGAMIST IS RECADTIDED.

Mrs. Augusta Dietz was called as the first witness at the inquest. She told of finding the body of her husband and testified the last time she had seen him alive was Sunday night, shortly before midnight, when they had retired to their respective rooms after entertaining company until a late hour. She said they had never had any serious quarteles.

The witness burst into tears when she told of arising early Monday morning and, after returning from a bakery, of finding her husband dead.

"The door of his room was partly closed and there was a chair pressing against it," she said.

The witness answered in the negative questions whether she had any idea who killed her husband; if he had any enemies and whether anyone had ever
