BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

According to the box scores, Portland has some ball wonders in H'l'm, Kr'g'r, D'ne, F'sh'r, et al. Whether they are Hindus or Persians the box scores do not indicate—but one thing sure, they're not ball players calculated to win many gonfalons in the Coast League if they continue at their present clip.

Los Angeles let the Beavers grab off a good lead yesterday, before a Sunday crowd of 8500, and then Dillon's men proceeded to bat out a victory, 8 to 7, which gives them four consecutive wins and one tie for the series. The loss was the seventh straight for Portland—and—whisper it gently—puts us down in the cellar below the Seals.

Five pitchers were flung into the breach by the rival managers, Carson and Krause for Portland, and Crabbe, Rogers and Perritt for the Angels. The hits were 12 and 11. Perritt gets credit for the victory, inasmuch as the score stood tied, 7-7, in the seventh inning, and Krause is charged with the defeat.

Misjudged Fly Costs Game.

But, if Krause is on speaking terms with "Dutch" Krueger this morning, he is the champion optimist of the world.

Krause relieved Carson in the seventh inning with a couple of men on the bags and the score 6 to 3 in favor of Portland. When he had concluded the inning the Angels were sitting on the heap by a score of 8 to 7, and all because the aforesaid Krueger, one of the greatest judges of fly balls in the country, miscalculated a drive by Ellis which went for three bags.

Ellis' fluke triple scored two runs and the southpaw outfielder also tallied on Moore's second hit. Those three runs turned the tide and the sad part of it is that Ellis would have been the third out for the inning.

Derrick's three-bagger and a pinch wallop by Gus Fisher tied the score for Portland in the last of the seventh inning, but Fisher spoiled his good day by throwing wild to second on a double steal by Howard and Johnson in the eighth frame and Howard trotted homeward with the clinching run.

Beavers Hit Ball Hard.

Yesterday was the first time in ten days that the Beaver had clouted the ball for runs. Cunningham, Lindsay and Doane hammered Crabbe for two runs in the first inning; Lindsay's terrific pinch poke in the second inning tallied two more, and when Derrick hammered in a fifth run in the next frame, things looked rosy for Portland.

Carson meanwhile was going great guns. But the "soldier" began to weaken a trifle in the fifth inning, when Johnson soaked a home run over the right field fence. The next inning a walk and hits by Ellis and Moore added two more and McCredie therefore deemed it wise to derrick Al in the seventh, when he began by walking Johnson, after Gill had beaten out an infield hit.

This was the signal for the pyrotechnics with which Harry Krause was greeted, and which caused Manager McCredie to chafe on the bench and sarcastically remark that the price of beef on the hoof must have gone up like a balloon when they sold him the stuff he trots around the marathon as a ball club.

McCredie Uses 13 Players.

McCredie used 13 men in an effort to win, but to no avail. When he saw that Cunningham wasn't playing batters right, he sent Chadbourne back to left field; when he saw that Heilmann was too nervous to hit well he sent Kores in at short; when Carson gave the first sign of a wobble he amputated him and now he's dickering with the turnstile men to supplant the bunch.

Bill Lindsay had his usual great day with the bat, securing three bingles, which jumped his season average from .400 to a mere .414. He will stick another week before being sent to some bush team like New York or Boston or the Portland Colts. The score:

Tigers Tie and Beat Wolves.

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—Pitcher "Judge" Munsell put Sacramento on an even footing with Venice in the seventh inning of this afternoon's game, when he drove in a runner with a two-base smash to the left-field fence, but in the eighth his teammates proceeded to throw the game away. Two errors, a passed ball, a walk, two singles and a sacrifice fly gave Venice two runs and the game, 5 to 3.

Paul Meloan stole home in the first inning, scoring the Tigers' first run. The morning game was called at the end of the eighth on account of the time limit. Score 4 to 4. Williams allowed Venice but three hits, while Stewart yielded four. Score:

SPOKANE, April 20.—(Special.)—Spokane's goat was securely padlocked to the Portland bench today and the speedy visitors romped away with a 4-2 score, and four of the six played this week. Roughly estimated, McCredie pocketed $1600 as his share of the week's receipts and it's easy to guess Mohler's answer to "Are we happy?"

Nearly 6000 fans, bugs and nuts saw the Indians get their trimming. It was a loyal turnout and no Spokane team ever had any more assistance from the stands than the Indians got in the stirring seventh and eighth innings batting rallies, but the Red Skins couldn't quite overcome, by prowess of bat, the big handicap of a shaky inner defense. The infield got four errors and every one of Portland's runs but one may be laid directly to the poor fielding.

Risberg, the California boy, pitched brilliant ball for Spokane and deserved a better outcome. To rub the defeat into Spokane more thoroughly, the tail-end of Portland's batting list did the timely hitting. Bobby Coltrin earned his laurels.

Portland was first to score, Murray reaching first in the third on a bobble by Morse and taking second on a passed ball. Coltrin jammed a single to left, scoring Murray. Coltrin figured in Portland's next two runs. One in the seventh, Bobby singled and was forced at second, but the man who forced him scored on another error by Morse and Speas' hard single to left.

Guigni singled in the eighth and was safe at second when Risberg tried unsuccessfully to force him on Mahoney's bunt. Williams' sacrifice moved both runners up and Guigni scored on Coltrin's hot drive that tore through Risberg's glove.

Portland's run in the ninth was the result of a pass to Speas, a sacrifice by Mohler and a slow-rolling ground ball to first base.

Spokane made a strong bid for the contest in the eighth, but Speas broke up the rally by a wonderful catch of Risberg's drive against the right field fence. Martinoni was in fine fettle in the early innings, but faltered in the seventh and was relieved by Mays when the Indians started hitting in the eighth. Score:

Notes of the Game.

Umpires Held and Newhouse officiated like major leaguers yesterday.

Doane is playing a swell fielding game in right and his throwing is excellent, even though his batting is down to .178. In Saturday's game Walter negotiated a sparkling catch off Gill in the ninth that saved a score.

Fisher had a run-in with Johnson at second base and poked the Chicago kid gently under the chin. He was hissed by the crowd. Fisher was in the right, as Johnson had called him an unprintable name when Gus insisted that he was safe. The Angel later apologized.

Howard kicked on a decision at first base that made him appear ridiculous. He ran about three feet out of the lines to avoid being tagged by Derrick and, whether touched or not, was legally retired.

Bill Rogers got on the bases four times in five trips yesterday. He secured two walks and one hit and drove a hot one through shortstop that missed the hit columns by only a narrow margin.

Derrick looked like the champion ball player of the world yesterday when he struck his batting stride.

ROSEBURG WINS IN OPENER

Cresswell Meets 6-to-3 Defeat in 12-Inning Contest.

ROSEBURG, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—In the opening game of the baseball season played here today Cresswell won from Roseburg by a score of 6 to 3, in 12 innings. The game might have been termed a pitchers' battle with Rankin in the box for Cresswell and Bush on the mound for Roseburg.

Features of the game were a home run drive by Bargar and a sensational running catch by Himes, both of Roseburg.

My friends say many kind words in praise of my quality. Here are a few appreciations:

"Modest Fatima in your unassuming dress!
A wealth of genuine pleasure you bring us.
No foppery about you, but merit through and through."

Said a friend to his club member:

"Fatima is a unique Turkish blend, old man, fit for a Sultan or an Emperor—or an American gentleman."

One democratic friend has this to say:

"Well, for one thing, I like Fatima for its honesty, its sincerity, its lack of pretense, as exemplified in that simple package; I like it for the sterling worth inside that modest dress, to say nothing of the extra sm
