$2500 in Cash and Farming Implements Offered for Colfax and Pendleton Events.

PREMIUM LIST IS ISSUED

Disc Harrows, Planters, Harness Livestock and Useful Farm Acoutrements to Be Given-Exhibits to Be in December.

More than $2500 in cash and agricultural implements will be distributed to the farmers of Oregon, Washington and Idaho at the corn shows to be con-ducted next December at Colfax, Wash. and Pendleton, Or., by the O.-W. R. & Company.

The premium lists for these events have just been prepared. The prizes for each show will be almost identical. America A feature that undoubtedly will comend itself to the farmers is the that the awards will consist exclusively of cash and articles that can be used on the farm. The practice of giving valuable gold or silver "loving" cups of negative usefulness and doubtful beauty has been discontinued by the O.-W. R & N. Company. C. L. Smith, agriculturist for the company, whose agriculturist for the company, whose wind runs along practical rather than sentimental lines, can't see what a farmer wants with a "loving cup" anyway. A cultivator, a disc harrow or a set of two-horse harness, according to his ideas, will be more acceptable.

Design Are Generous. Denlers Are Generous.

As a result Mr. Smith has prepared a premium list accordingly. Through the generosity of agricultural implement dealers in Portland and other points in the Northwest, and the liberal cash allowances made by the officials of the O.-W. R. & N. Company, he has prepared a premium list which for each show will be as follows:

Bost one acre of coin—Two classes, lift-rated and non-frigated: First, $15; second, $10; third, $7.50; fourth, $5; fifth, $2,$2.50 each to the next five highest scoring. The sround is to be measured and the yield cer-uffled to by three disinterested persons. The corn may be of any variety.

Best 12 cars of corn—Two classes, irri-gated and non-irrigated: First, $15; second, $10; third, $7.50; fourth, $5; fifth, $2.50. All prise-winning exhibits to become the property of the company for seed and ex-libition purposes.

Best 25 cents.
