

HOUSE MAY FINISH TARIFF THIS WEEK

Underwood Believes Seeming Obstacles in Way of Action Will Be Overcome.

METAL SCHEDULE IS UP

Pennsylvania Members Accused of Favoring Steel Corporation by Standing for Higher Duty on Ferro-Manganese.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—"I think we'll finish with the tariff bill in the House by Saturday night," Democratic Leader Underwood said tonight after an all-day debate on the iron and steel schedule.

The metal schedule is only the third of the 14 schedules which are followed by the free list, the technicalities of the administrative provisions and the income tax plan, and many of the members of the House are prepared to see the debate stretch into next week.

Underwood Smilingly Confident. Mr. Underwood, smiling and confident, saw the technicalities of the plan for shifting the scene of the tariff battle to the Senate with the opening of next week.

The Democratic leader does not believe a special rule will be necessary to put the bill through. The plan is to have the measure adopted within an hour after the reading for amendments has been concluded.

All day and again tonight the Democrats with their overwhelming majority bowled over all amendments proposed by the Republicans and Progressives. The ways and means committee, however, carried several of its own amendments, all of a minor character, and designed to perfect the classifications.

Steel Corporation Favored.

The iron and steel schedule was the particular target of attack and Representative Farmer, of Pennsylvania, in charge of that schedule for the ways and means committee, was frequently reminded from the Republican side of the fact that the Bethlehem Steel Corporation was in his district.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, the Republican leader, and others charged that the duty on the Bethlehem Steel Corporation was in the interest of the United States Steel Corporation with its numerous subsidiary plants and that the management of the corporation was in the hands of the Pennsylvania corporation.

Stanley Arouses Underwood. Personalities were indulged in several times, particularly in the discussion of the value of the iron and steel corporation holdings in the Minnesota mines, when Representative Stanley of Kentucky, and Miller of Minnesota argued in a bitter exchange.

Stanley aroused Chairman Underwood with a statement that convict labor was employed in the steel mills of Alabama; that convicts were worked in the mines, and that in some instances corporations had runners around police stations to pick up persons arrested for minor offenses and return them to the mines.

"I want to say," Mr. Underwood declared, jumping to his feet, "that I voted to put iron ore on the free list, thus affecting my own business, but I can't stand here and listen to a slander of my own constituency."

He emphatically denied Mr. Stanley's charges. Representative Austin, of Tennessee (Republican), and Charles M. Schwab had succeeded in getting free iron ore after trying unsuccessfully to get it from Republican ways and means committees.

Hooks and Eyes Start Debate. When Representative Kreider, a new Republican member from Pennsylvania, offered an amendment tonight to put hooks and eyes used in shoe manufacture on the free list he aroused criticism from Representative Palmer, who declared Mr. Kreider was a shoe manufacturer, the president of the American Shoe Manufacturers' Association, whose amendment will put money into his own pocket.

Minority Leader Mann replied that if members were to be thus criticized, Congressmen from the farms would be prohibited from discussing rates on the agricultural schedule. Mr. Mann also referred to the fact that Majority Leader Underwood, author of the tariff bill, was engaged in the iron and steel business. He said that Mr. Underwood need not apologize to the House for that or explain it, that he meant no reflection thereby. Mr. Underwood answered with a vigorous statement.

"If I could not represent my constituency and at the same time the people of the United States without involving myself as a special pleader for interests in my district I would be unworthy of my position in this House," he said.

Metal Schedule Smashed. I contend that when Representatives of the people stand in this House exercising the power to tax the people of this country, it is at least unbecoming for them to display a selfish interest in these matters. The time has passed when the laws of this country will be written for special interests, when men can come and ask for legislation to convert dollars from the pockets of the masses into their own that they may grow rich.

The committee completed consideration of the metal schedule after many amendments had been offered and rejected. Representative Austin of Tennessee failed in an effort to restore the Payne rates on aluminum, seven cents a pound. He argued that the Underwood rate of 25 per cent would deprive American labor of more than $1,000,000 in four years.

Representative Palmer, declaring that the American Aluminum Company had a monopoly in this country and in France, insisted if any rate in the bill was justified it was the aluminum rate.

SCORES OF HORSES DIE

LANDMARK AT GOLDENDALE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Chair and Old Saddle All That Are Saved Out of Stable—Lodging-House and Store Damaged.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., April 29.—(Special.)—A fire destroyed the East End livery barn, burned up 20 horses and destroyed a store and lodging-house here tonight at 11 o'clock.

In less than 30 minutes after the blaze was discovered the two buildings were in ruins and L. Sutton, proprietor of the livery barn, escaped only with his pants. He was attended by a physician. His arm is badly burned.

The livery barn is a landmark of Goldendale, having been built for 20 years. It was valued at $11,000 and $12,000. The loss to the livery barn is about $6000; to the lodging-house and adjoining store, both two-story buildings, about $2500. The loss of horses and vehicles is estimated at $2000. There is some insurance.

William McEwen owned the livery barn building, which covered more than 1000 sq. ft. and was a two-story structure. W. C. Burgen owned the store and lodging-house.

The volunteer fire fighting department did heroic work in saving the adjoining buildings, but it was absolutely impossible to get the horses to a place of safety.

DARING RESCUES MADE

PRISONER TAKEN FROM PORTUGUESE CRUISER.

Armed Men Disguised as Sailors Board Warship and Demands Are Complied With.

LISBON, Portugal, April 30.—(Revol.)—A daring plan, secured the release during the night of a number of prisoners arrested during Sunday's political disturbance in the capital and confined on board the Portuguese cruiser Republica in the harbor.

Armed men dressed as sailors clamored on board the cruiser at 2 o'clock in the morning and demanded that the prisoners be handed over to them. At the same moment three shots were fired from the guns of the cruiser, so that it appeared that the affair was being carried on with the connivance of the officers and crew. The prisoners then were given up by their guards and were landed before the naval authorities in the harbor understood what was going on.

The monarchist papers Dia and Nacao and a Socialist journal have been seized by the Civil Governor, in spite of their protests that they had not violated the press law.

CITY IS SUING HEARST

Blame for Fireworks Explosion Ten Years Ago Laid to Editor.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The City of New York began today suit against William R. Hearst to recover $30,000 to cover damages obtained from the city by Mrs. Margaret Thuy for the death of her husband, a policeman, who was killed ten years ago by an explosion of fireworks at a celebration on the streets.

The Corporation Counsel holds that the fireworks were being set off under the direction of a political organization headed by Mr. Hearst, and that Hearst, and not the city, was responsible for the policeman's death.

CAVALRY ITEM REDUCED

German Army Bill Cut by Budget Committee of Parliament.

BERLIN, April 30.—The German army bill was again today before the budget committee of the Imperial Parliament, and the demand of the government for a reduction of the cavalry regiments was cut down to three.

Several committeemen argued that cavalry had become less necessary because of the development of aviation and the virtual abolition of cavalry charges.

SLAVE PAINTING REFUSED

Brooklyn Institute Refuses to Keep Alive Unpleasant Memories.

NEW YORK, April 30.—A painting entitled "To the Highest Bidder," representing a negro slave woman, with her child, standing on the auction block, was rejected today by the Brooklyn Institute because it might "tend to keep alive memories that had better be forgotten."

The picture was painted by Harry Roseland, a well-known Brooklyn artist, and offered to the Institute by Charles A. Schieren, a former Brooklyn Mayor.

WEALTHY MEN IN GRAND JURY'S NET

Indictments in Los Angeles 'White Slave' Cases Drawn, Ready for Action.

GIRL STRENGTHENS CASE

Declaration of Helen Barker That She Is Only 19, Instead of 24, as Was Supposed, Adds to Trouble of Men.

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—The county grand jury's white slavery investigation, according to the official outlook tonight, was expected to result in indictments against one or more wealthy men when the inquisitors resumed their deliberations tomorrow morning.

W. J. Ford, assistant District Attorney, said that he had drawn up indictments showing many he declined to say, and that he had left the matter of voting upon them entirely to the grand jurors. It was pointed out that while the jurors elected to meet again at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, witnesses were instructed not to appear until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, thus affording the prosecutors considerable time for deliberation on possible indictments.

Several witnesses were called before the investigators today, including C. Ricard, an attorney who represented Catherine Phillips, a young woman connected with the present inquiry. She pleaded guilty last week to vagrancy, and, making "flogging" her specialty, Berkeley, Cal. She has evinced a desire to return since, having written a letter to Chief of Police Sebastian, declaring that she had given up the life left town on the advice of her attorney, who advised her to take that course rather than remain and probably fare worse.

The juvenile court, hearing of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Espey and W. H. Wood, charged with having contributed to the dependency of Mrs. Irene Marie Levy Brown, 17 years old, who was said to have been a habitue of the Jonquil, the "hotel" conducted by Mrs. Josie Rosenberg, alleged procurer, resulted in Mrs. Espey's being held for trial and the Wood cases being dismissed.

During the proceedings Mrs. Levy told many of the details of alleged practices of male frequenters of the Jonquil and Helen Cleo Barker, a chum of Mrs. Levy, gave more than 24 years old, brother, today admitted she was only 19—a minor.

According to officials, the admission regarding her age will make the case against the male frequenters of the Jonquil and Helen Cleo Barker, a chum of Mrs. Levy, gave more than 24 years old, brother, today admitted she was only 19—a minor.

MILITANTS' OFFICE RAIDED

100 Police and Scotland Yards Men Arrest English Suffragettes.

LONDON, April 29.—Militant suffragettes' headquarters were raided today by 100 policemen and Scotland Yard detectives and eight of the leaders were placed under arrest.

The raid is the first step in the British Home Office's campaign to put an end to suffragette militancy. The raid centered in the headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union, where many outrages are said to have been planned.

"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, who was out on bail, was arrested on charge of conspiring with members of the Pankhurst family to commit damage.

The police had hardly taken possession of the place when "General" Drummond, ignorant of what had occurred, voluntarily entered the lion's den. At Bow-street police station she met the other officials of the society who had been arrested.

Mrs. Barbara Kerr, secretary of the union; Misses Lake, Lennox and that Mrs. Saunders were among those arrested. A quantity of documents was seized also.

OHIO TOWN IS IN DISTRESS

McConnellsville in Need of Aid From Other Cities.

By no means has the damage done by the recent floods in Ohio been repaired for the little city of McConnellsville in that state has sent up a signal of distress that calls for immediate action.

In the tragedy and excitement attending the disaster in the larger cities this little town probably was overlooked. Although the citizens are grateful that the life and limb was lost they are needful of substantial assistance. Hundreds of people are depending entirely upon the relief committee for their sustenance.

The committee has enough supplies to carry it through another week. The Governor of Ohio has promised to provide something from the general fund of the state but this will be hardly sufficient.

Remittances may be made payable to J. G. Wosenscraft, treasurer of the committee, McConnellsville, Ohio.

MOVING OF BELL RESISTED

Daughters of Revolution Plan Counter Petition Five Miles Long.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—A resolution protesting against the removal of the Liberty Bell from Independence Hall for "any purpose" was adopted by the general society of Daughters of the Revolution at the final business session of the societies' 22d annual convention today. It was decided that the various state chapters should endeavor to secure enough signatures to make a petition five miles long to counteract the effect of the three-mile petition sent here by the California schoolchildren, who want the bell sent to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

Minneapolis was selected as the place of the convention, which will be held in June, 1914.

STATUE IS UNVEILED

Jefferson Memorial Dedicated Before St. Louis Throng.

LINEAL DESCENDANTS ACT

$450,000 Building Formally Opened, and Bronze Tablet, Representing Signers of Louisiana Purchase Treaty, Revealed.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—The Federal Government, the City of St. Louis and the directors of the St. Louis World's Fair of 1904 united today in the ceremony of unveiling the statue of Thomas Jefferson.

Thousands of persons lined Lincoln boulevard to see the military and civil parade that passed down the avenue to Forest Park, where the exercises that marked the opening of the memorial, a $450,000 building, took place.

The dedication exercises were held outdoors before the great arch within which is a great marble statue of Thomas Jefferson, unveiled today by Miss Natalie Norton, of Elsberry, Mo., a lineal descendant of Jefferson.

After the unveiling of the tablet, United States Senator Jones, of Washington, spoke on behalf of the congressional delegation that attended the ceremonies.

Representative Kahn, of California, speaking at the memorial banquet here tonight, took as his theme "The Exaltation of the Ego." He said in part: "Jefferson being a strict Constitutionalist, believed that a Constitutional amendment was necessary in order that the Louisiana purchase must be validated by the states. But our courts from time to time have construed the instrument so as to give it the elasticity to meet new conditions, and it has met every requirement."
