BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. In a game replete with brilliant field. ing by Portland, the Venice Tigers defeated McCredie's athletes in the second game of the series yesterday, 2 to 0.

The game was a nip and tuck pitching duel between Eugene Krapp and Roy Hitt the latter the Venice southpaw. Hitt is as fat as ever, perhaps a pennyweight lighter than last season, but he had his south salary wing in but he had his south salary wing in perfect trim and the best the Beavers could do was four scattered hits.

Krapp, too, was effective, but he had one had inning, the fourth, when singles by Litschi and Patterson, a wild pitch, and Hallinan's two bagger into right field, scored two runs. Litchi tailied the first run on the mad heave past Berry.

Aside from that one frame the honors were pretty evenly disseminated, Krapp being touched for only five hits.

"Pinch" Hitters Fan. Portland's best chance to bobbed up in the seventh inning when Kores reached first base on an infield hit to Hallinan and stole second with kores reached first base on an inner hit to Hallinan and stole second with nobody out. Lindsay also went safe on Hallinan's boot, but two right-handed pinch hitters, McCormick and Krueger, struck out and Derrick's slow roller to second retired the side, Hosp making a nice play at second forcing Lindsay.

McCormick took Rodgers place at second and Krueger finished in Doan's niche at center. Mac sent them in to bat because neither Rodgers nor Doane had been hitting and he figured right-handed batsmen might be effective against the southpaw antagonist.

Hitt was wonderfully steady, walking not one Fortland batter. He had slants of every size and hue and enough speed mixed in throughly to mystify McCredie's maulers. Krapp, contrary to pessemistic forecasts, also found the dark afternoon much to his liking, for his spitter worked very effectively, the one bad inning excepted, Notes of the Game.

Fortland was in a position to score from a lit in the fifth inning, but the only hit in evidence was spelled "Hitt." Lindsay and Derrick bunched singles in that inning but Herry retired the side on a grounder to shortstop.

"Any changes in your batting order?" Hogan was asked prior to the game. "No," replied Hap. "I never change. I know how the men ought to be and no matter if they slump I keep them there."

On a hit-and-run play in the sixth inning Fitzgersid drove a liner into left field, but it screeched directly into Carlisie's hands and Chadbourne was doubled out at first base.

Base.

Berry nabbed Carlisle at second base on a beautiful throw to Kores after Carlisle bit safely in the third linning.

Jimmy Riordan, Portland backstop, saw the game from the grandstand. Jimmy left last night to John Tacoma.

Claude Berry should have walked as first man up in the eighth linning. It was very low, but Held called "strike three" instead of "ball four." McCredie Kicked so strenuously that he was sent back to the bench.

Los Angeles Takes Game Early but Loses It Toward End.

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—The pennant-winning Oaks played worse than amateur ball the early part of today's game with Los Angeles and the locals had what looked like a winning lead of four runs, but Toser, after allowing but one run in six innings, blew up in the seventh and Oakland went ahead. Chech relieved him after six runs had been scored from as many hits in that 3 1 9 30 inning. Pernoll was also generous 2 0 0 0 0 and Olmstead, who succeeded him at 1 0 0 0 0 the end of the sixth, held the Angels to 31 427 120 a lone tally in the ninth. Score:

Concannon pitched a really superborand of baseball. His curves were breaking in bewildering style, and he had all but perfect control, but two bases on balls being scored against him. Mays pitched a game which was a credit to him, but lost through the inability of the Tigers to get their few hits at times when there were men in scoring distance of the plate. Three of the five safe drives made by the Tigers were of the "pinch" variety.
