Political Meetings Today. Mayor Ruslight and others will address the voters on the downtown streets during the evening; many candidates will speak in their own behalf.

Charges that Gay Lombard as recently as January, 1912, claimed San Francisco as his place of residence were reiterated last night by George L. Baker before a well-filled hall in Sellwood, at East Thirteenth street and Spokane avenue.

Mr. Lombard must have misrepresented his place of residence to the agent of that automobile at San Francisco, for if he had not done so he would not have claimed and collected the commission.

Mr. Lombard's attitude on the commission form of government is being attacked by the King Edward club, which has held the residence when buying an automobile.

Instances of Service Sought. D. Sells Cohen addressed the meeting, comparing the record of Mayor Ruslight with that of Mr. Lombard.

Administration of Spitzbergen to Be Decided at Christiania. An international conference will assemble in Christiania this Sunday to discuss the administration of Spitzbergen.

Recall Petitions are Out. Centralia would oust Mayor and two commissioners. The petitions asking for the recall of Mayor Thompson were placed in circulation in Centralia today.

George V Business-Like. Lord Stamfordham abolishes many old and lucrative sinecures. LONDON, May 2.—From being a place destined to provide easy well-salaried posts for the younger sons of the nobility the royal household of England has been transformed into an establishment run on strictly business-like lines.
