Woman Also Accused Unable to Furnish $35,000 Bonds - Arrest Is Climax of Sensational Series of Investigations.

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—George H. Bixby, millionaire banker of Long Beach and member of one of the most prominent families in Southern California, was arrested today, charged by two grand jury indictments with having contributed to the delinquency of minors.

Bixby was arrested at his palatial ranch home near Long Beach. He was brought to Los Angeles late tonight and taken before Presiding Judge McCormick of the Superior Court, at the Young Men's Institute Hall, where the judge was attending a meeting. Bonds, which previously had been fixed at $5000 on each indictment, were not released and approved by the court and Bixby was released to appear tomorrow morning for arraignment before Judge Wilbur of the juvenile department of the Superior Court.

Mrs. Rosenberg in Prison. Four indictments were returned late today by the grand jury, the two others being directed against Mrs. Joie Rosenberg, who is accused of assisting Bixby in the scheme. The warrants were served upon Mrs. Rosenberg in the county jail, where she is held in default of $15,000 bonds on charges of assisting Bixby. The arrest of the millionaire furnished the climax of a sensational vice investigation, in the course of which Mrs. Rosenberg, who is accused of assisting Bixby in the scheme, was arrested. The warrants were served upon Mrs. Rosenberg in the county jail, where she is held in default of $15,000 bonds on charges of assisting Bixby.

Wisconsin: Hamlin Garland, the author, and Richard Lloyd Jones, editor supported the resolution and criticized the bill because it was not broad enough. In particular Senator Shanhahn thought the amendment adopted by the majority was a weak spot. This amendment would permit Japanese and other aliens to acquire land for agricultural purposes for a term not exceeding three years.

Governor Johnson will sign an alien bill as soon as it comes to him, he said. "I have assured Mr. Bryan," he said tonight, "that when the bill comes to me I will sign it as soon as it is reasonable time for his protests. I cannot say how long. If the bill passes while the Legislature is still in session, I have 10 days in which to sign it. If it comes to me after the Legislature has adjourned, I have 30 days. I expect the bill to pass without fail."

the administration forces. "Now, I want you to repudiate it again."

DEBATE AT TIMES PARTISAN.

They did not only vote were cast in favor of substituting the Illinois law for the Webb bill. Voting in the affirmative with Wright were Campbell, Cartwright and Sanford (Democrats) and Jones (Progressive). At times the debate became strictly partisan, and the Democrats would openly charge the Progressives with lack of sincerity and bad faith in changing their attitude toward the state's rights theory, which they used to deny in years past when there was a Republican administration in Washington and when the Progressives themselves were Republicans.

MINORITY IN FULL SYMPATHY.

Democratic opposition was purely tactical. The minority confessed its sympathy with the end sought. In fact, it freely criticized the bill, not as too drastic, but as too weak. Where the minority differed was in its judgment of the means wisest to employ. The attitude found its expression in a resolution offered by Senator Curtin and defeated by a vote of 19 ayes to 26 noes. The administration majority for the bill was solid with a single exception. In opposition were eight out of 19 Democrats, one Progressive and one Republican. San Diego, the lone Taft Republican in the chamber. Senator Curtin's resolution proposed that "the people of the State of California defer to the wishes of the President of the United States, and this Legislature will not at this session pass the bills advised against."

PEOPLE'S DESIRE DECLARED.

This was on condition that it be understood that the people of the state desired substantially the ends sought in the administration measure and "that the President of the United States be requested to endeavor to secure such treaty or other agreement from any nation protesting against the passage of the bills under consideration as will effectually accomplish the end and purpose herein mentioned." The resolution continued:

"Further, that if at any time the Governor of California becomes convinced that the success of such effort is improbable, he is hereby requested to call an extra session of the Legislature."

REFERENDUM IS FEARED.

"I don't like these words, 'in accordance with treaty,' he shouted, 'because a new treaty may at any time be signed which will nullify the purpose of this legislation.' The chief arguments advanced against the bill and in support of the Curtin resolution were: 1. That the bill was discourteous to the President of the United States and the Imperial government of Japan. 2. That the ends it sought might

BETTER AND MORE PERMANENTLY BE ACQUIRED BY FEDERAL NEGOTIATIONS.

3. That those opposed to it might invoke the referendum, thus inhibiting effective action under its provisions for a year or seven months, during which the Legislature would be in session, advised of the intentions of the state, might acquire all the land they were able to buy without let or hindrance.

"In 1907 and 1911," urged Senator Curtin, "we had the same conditions and the same Federal appeal, but with no assurances or promises of relief. Why should we be so hasty now, when we hearkened then?"

CHINESE STATION RECALLED.

"In 1879-80, when feeling against the Chinese ran incomparably higher than it does against the Japanese now, we found our relief in Congress, not in the State Legislature."

"Never before in the history of the United States has a President gone so far as to lend a sympathetic ear to the difficulties of a state as did President Wilson in sending the chief of his Cabinet to counsel with us."

Senator Curtin read from the London Times an editorial reflecting the British solution of the same problem as it affects Canada. A similar line of action, he thought, might be followed here. "Isn't that all we desire?" he asked. "If this end is accomplished by Federal action, it will be firmly accomplished, but if it is accomplished by California it will be but partially and perhaps temporarily accomplished."

Senator Birdsal, supporting the bill which he originally introduced, argued that there were only three points to consider: Had the state the right to enact the legislation contemplated? Was it in the best interests of the state? Was it the best they could get? All three questions he answered in the affirmative.

STRONGER LAW DEMANDED.

Senators Campbell and Shanhahn supported the resolution and criticized the bill because it was not broad enough. In particular Senator Shanhahn thought the amendment adopted by the majority was a weak spot. This amendment would permit Japanese and other aliens to acquire land for agricultural purposes for a term not exceeding three years.

Senator Shanhahn saw nothing in the language of the amendment to prevent Japanese from renewing three-year leases indefinitely. His opposition was not answered. Senator Sanford argued that the longest way around was the shortest way home. Three months, he thought, would be long enough to demonstrate what diplomacy could do, but 20,000 signatures to a referendum petition would be sufficient to invoke a delay of 12 months before the final will of the people could be known.

Senator Cartwright feared that the bill would surely lead to a test of the will of the people in connection with a test that might result contrary to the wishes of the state. "For this reason," he said, "I believe the Progressive party in California should not commit the most colossal blunder of its existence—and it has committed many."

GOVERNOR WILL SIGN BILL.

Governor Johnson will sign an alien bill as soon as it comes to him, he said. "I have assured Mr. Bryan," he said tonight, "that when the bill comes to me I will sign it as soon as it is reasonable time for his protests. I cannot say how long. If the bill passes while the Legislature is still in session, I have 10 days in which to sign it. If it comes to me after the Legislature has adjourned, I have 30 days. I expect the bill to pass without fail."

GRAVE ASPECT IS ABATED

Washington Believes Japan Will Accept New Conditions.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—In official circles here the opinion is gaining ground that the situation created by proposed anti-alien land-owning legislation in California will be relieved largely of its grave aspect and that a satisfactory adjustment is brought into sight by latest developments at Sacramento.

The adoption by the California Senate of the amendment to the pending alien land-owning bill to permit leases of lands by Japanese for periods not exceeding three years is connected by officers of the Administration here with Secretary Bryan's postponement of his return to Washington from Sacramento. It is believed the Secretary hopes to mitigate the drastic features of the bill to a point where there would be no ground for objection from the Japanese government.

ARBITRATE ISSUES OF PEACE CONGRESS

Peace Congress Speaker Says Every Question Could Be Settled Without War.

JAPAN'S PLIGHT RECITED

Nation Said to Be Bankrupt by Following Her "Great Ally in Race of Mad Militarism."

JAPAN'S BURDEN REVIEWED.

Militarism is the burden of the nations, declared Thomas Edward Green, of Chicago, reviewing the nation of Japan, he said. "Japan—poor, bankrupt, broken, impoverished Japan. She is the logical end of the whole delusion. Fifty million industrious, economic, patriotic people without national resource, figuring income and expense to the last penny, having each a faithful coin in his pocket, but the state is bankrupt. Japan's income is derived from taxation—she has nothing else. It means that her people must give each year an average of 25 per cent of all they have and earn to pay Japan's penalty of following her 'great ally in the race of mad militarism.'"

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—Arbitration can be made much wider in its scope than hitherto, in the opinion of John Wesley Hill, of New York, president of the International Peace Forum. Mr. Hill spoke tonight at the fourth general session of the American Peace Congress on "The Outlook for Peace."

"As great as the achievements of arbitration have been, we have not reached the goal," he said. "We must continue the agitation until not only the United States and Great Britain, but the world powers are united in a combat to submit to an international arbitral court every difference arising between them—even questions of honor and vital interest. "The controversy over the Panama tolls is such a question, it should be submitted to arbitration, regardless of the consideration as to whether we should be winners or losers before the international court."
