

Cleanliness Is Akin to Wholesomeness

---and a Visit to This Kitchen Adds Zest to the Appetite

Every day sees thousands of Portland men and women in business and professional walks of life, and shoppers in scores that partake of "down-town" luncheon at noon. Did you ever stop to consider the conditions under which foods are prepared in the restaurants you have visited? Of course, you desire the same cleanliness and refreshing appearance as you have in your own home. 'Tis worthy of considerable thought and investigation for your health's sake, as just where to dine when down town.

One of the most commendable, spotlessly clean and most scrupulously kept kitchens in the city is that of The Meier & Frank Store's Seventh Floor Restaurant. A trip of inspection reveals to you a most inviting place of preparation for foods. Mr. A. E. Tabor, chef in charge, and his assistant you'll find immaculately attired in white, showing the individual pride that each one takes in the appearance of this kitchen. Floors are spotlessly clean; ventilation is of the best. And 'tis plain to anyone that every modern convenience has been installed in this immense kitchen. The mammoth four-oven range is required to accomplish the necessary cooking for The Meier & Frank Store's Restaurant—more favorably known as the "Tea Room." We are informed that this monster range cooks with gas exclusively, and that much of the cleanliness of the kitchen is due to the fact that gas is used as a fuel. The refrigerating system was next visited, and 'tis small wonder at the popularity of The Meier & Frank Store's Restaurant, when such care is taken to keep provisions and "green stuffs" so fresh and cool.

The most interesting department is the bakery, where light and wholesome bread, biscuits, cakes and French pastries are made, fresh, daily. Large power mixing vats reduce the labor to a minimum and perform the kneading of dough to perfection. In fact, the entire culinary department of The Meier & Frank Store's Restaurant bears evidence of healthful thought in the preparation of edibles for the patrons.

The Restaurant proper, or Tea Room, is situated on the Seventh Floor, and has a wonderfully inviting appearance, even at a casual glance. The spacious lobby, where friends and business associates gather before and after their meal, has every appearance of restfulness. And the refreshing air, seven floors above the noise and hubbub of the streets. And from the large windows you are afforded a panoramic view of the city parks, hills and mountains. Luncheon is served from 11 to 2:30; Afternoon Tea from 2:30 to 5. During the luncheon hour delightful music is rendered by Meier & Frank's Special Orchestra. And this Restaurant is famed for the Saturday night Table d'Hôte Dinners.

Remark again, at the termination of our tour of inspection, our wonderment at the cleanliness and wholesome air in the culinary section, where cooking on such an extensive scale is carried on. Mr. Tabor emphasized strongly to us that the reason for lack of a dark, smoky ceiling, and one of the principal factors in making possible such cleanliness, was the use of gas in cooking. 'Twould assuredly be worth a visit to The Meier & Frank Store's Restaurant and culinary department to see the up-to-date methods employed in the preparation of foods.

A. E. TABOR,
Chef the Meier & Frank Store's Restaurant.

'U' STUDENTS BUSY

Klamath Falls Boy Lone Nominnee to Head Organization.

EDITORSHIP RACE WARM

Portland and Sutherlin Men Out for Place on Oregon Emerald—Election Will Be Held in Week Following Nominations.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 7.—(Special).—Nominations for the annual student body elections to be held in one week were made at the regular student body meeting today.

Vernon T. Moteschbacher, of Klamath Falls, was the only nominnee for the student body presidency.

The surprise of the day was sprung in the race for the editorship of the Oregon Emerald. Three men were nominated, one, Henry Fowler, of Portland, being an avowed candidate, and the other two, Donald Rice, of Portland, and Fendel Waite, of Sutherlin, being dark horses. The other nominations were as follows:

Vice-president of the student body, Delbert Stanard, of Portland, and Elmer Roberts, of The Dalles; secretary of the student body, Ellice Shearer, of Portland; Ruth Bench, of Portland; Maud Mastick, of Portland, and Norma Doble, of Eugene; executive committee (two places), Wallace Caulfield, of Oregon City; Willard Shaver, of Portland; Everett Stuller, of Baker, and Daniel King, of Myrtle Point; athletic council (three places), Chester Huggins, of Hood River; Carl Fenton, of Dallas; Robert Bradshaw, of The Dalles; Elmer Hall, of Baker, and Joseph Jones, of Portland; manager of the Emerald, Sam Michael, of Baker.

TROUTDALE CLUB GROWS

Portland Commission Merchant Buying Old-Crop Potatoes.

TROUTDALE, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At the last meeting of the Troutdale Commercial Club several new members were enrolled. S. A. Arata and C. E. Cree, of Fairview, were present and made short talks.

A wedding of Troutdale people took place in Portland Tuesday. George Larson and Miss Grace Mickey, of this place being married. They have made their home at Celilo, Or., where Mr. Larson is engaged in the fishing business. A commission merchant from Portland has been buying up the potatoes east of the Sandy River paying 25 cents a hundredweight for the old crop.

$10,000 LIBRARY PLANNED

Goldendale Arranging to Buy Site for Carnegie Gift.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., May 7.—(Special).—Goldendale is to have a Carnegie Library to cost approximately $10,000 and, though small, will be artistic and complete in its arrangements. The lot will be purchased

SPOKANE PLAN OUT

"Model License" City to Be Proposed on Monday.

PROMINENT CITIZENS BUSY

All Corner Saloons in Empire City Will Be Abolished by January 1, 1914, if Hayden's Proposal Becomes Law.

SPOKANE, May 7.—(Special).—A new saloon regulation, eliminating corner saloons and limiting the number of saloons to each block, calculated to make Spokane a "model license" city, will be introduced Monday in the City Council by Commissioner Hayden. The proposition is known to be backed by a number of prominent citizens and the general plan was approved today by Mayor Hindley and Commissioner Fassett in interviews, assuring the passage of the new measure in practically its proposed form.

Hayden's proposed saloon regulations will abolish all corner saloons by January 1, 1914.

It will limit the number of saloons to one per block fronting on Sprague, Riverside and Main avenues, Washington to Lincoln streets.

It will limit the number of saloons to two per block fronting on all cross streets in the above district.

Outside of the above districts not more than three saloons per block front shall be allowed.

It will be the policy to put the law gradually into effect, beginning January 1, 1914.

It will make saloon hours from 6 A. M. to 12 midnight at once instead of 12:30 A. M., as at present. The ordinance will be introduced Monday.

Three city commissioners, a majority, already say they favor the general proposition, but want more time before expressing themselves on the details of the new measure.

"YEGG" SUSPECTS TAKEN

Two Held for Grand Jury in Safe Blowing at Springfield.

EUGENE, Or., May 7.—(Special).—Two of the men suspected of complicity in dynamiting a safe at Springfield last Friday were identified Monday as men who had been hanging around Springfield prior to the robbery, and this with other testimony resulted in their being bound over to the Grand Jury. One of the men was gathered in late Saturday night when the police looking for a man wanted at Salem rounded up floaters. This one man attempted to elude the officers as they neared the jail, but was caught by another officer stationed around the corner. It was found that one of his fingers had been blown off and another was lacerated. The presence of battered and marked coins added to the evidence against him.

The safeblowers left a trail of blood, as if a hand had been injured, and the physician who later dressed this man's wounded hand said the injured man must have wished to avoid publicity, or he would have had the painful wound dressed sooner. The companion was picked up later on the street, and he, too, had a quantity of the battered silver.

CHEHALIS RICH IN TIMBER

Total Value Is Conservatively Estimated at $41,500,000.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 7.—(Special).—There is enough green timber in Chehalis County to pave a street 30 feet wide around the earth. This could be done with plank four inches thick. This is shown by a fair in easy reach of all the children of the county.

It seems a little bit singular that butter-making should be all but a lost

SISKIYOU SURVEY STARTS

Jackson County Proposes to Build Road of Easy Grades.

ASHLAND, Or., May 7.—(Special).—Yesterday engineers were instructed by the Jackson County Board to begin surveys for a new wagon road over the Siskiyou near Ashland to the California line. The grade of the new road, varying from 2 to 6 per cent, will be much less than that of the present toll road.

The new road will form a part of the Pacific Highway system.

Chehalis to Observe Fourth.

CHEHALIS, Wash., May 7.—(Special).—Chehalis business men have voted to celebrate the Fourth of July and at a meeting presided over by President Judd of the Citizens' Club a committee was chosen to canvass the situation and make report at another meeting to be held next Monday night.

Ashland Commercial Club Elects.

ASHLAND, Or., May 7.—(Special).—Commercial Club officials elected May 5 are: President, J. W. McCoy; vice-president, C. B. Wolf; secretary, W. H. Day; treasurer, F. S. Engle; trustees, R. P. Campbell, F. P. Whittle and Homer Billings.

TILLAMOOK GETS FAIRS

COUNTY SCHOOLS SHOW PROGRESS IN THEIR WORK.

Field Worker Maris, of State Industrial Fair Project, Talks of Plans Laid for Coast Vicinity.

SALEM, Or., May 7.—(Special).—With an energetic, aggressive School Superintendent, a competent corps of teachers, an ambitious bunch of pupils and a co-operating public, the schools of Tillamook County are progressing with rapid strides," said N. C. Maris, field worker for the State Industrial Fair, today.

"They are not only interested and doing good work in their textbooks, but they have caught the spirit of the industrial propaganda and are busy learning to do some of the practical things in life."

Superintendent Buel and I passed last week visiting schools through the day, and holding public meetings at night, arousing the children, as well as the parents, and effecting local organizations for the conduct of industrial school fairs in different parts of the county. Splendid response was met with every place, and the work taken hold of in a way that means success for the school fairs and material benefit to the county.

"Fairs will be held at the following places: Tillamook, Beaver, Cloverdale, Bay City, Nehalem and perhaps at Oregon. It will bring a fair in easy reach of all the children of the county."

"It seems a little bit singular that butter-making should be all but a lost

SEE IF YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Bilious, Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs" to Cleanse Its Little Bowels.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver and bowels, are clogged up with putrefying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily, or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not dragging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aroclax, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily, or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine, old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

art in that great and almost exclusive

section of the county, and nearly all of them run on the co-operative plan. Their best bottom land pastures will support a cow to the acre with no other feed, except a little hay for a short time during the winter. One man told me his six cows averaged him $120 a head last year. It is needless to say they know nothing about hard times.

Cattleman Once Rich Dies in Want.

TUCSON, Ariz., May 7.—Frederick Marsh, twice Mayor of Tucson and at one time one of the largest cattle owners of the state, died in want today. Policemen found him in a shack, where he had been unattended for a long time.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

art in that great and almost exclusive

section of the county, and nearly all of them run on the co-operative plan. Their best bottom land pastures will support a cow to the acre with no other feed, except a little hay for a short time during the winter. One man told me his six cows averaged him $120 a head last year. It is needless to say they know nothing about hard times.

Cattleman Once Rich Dies in Want.

TUCSON, Ariz., May 7.—Frederick Marsh, twice Mayor of Tucson and at one time one of the largest cattle owners of the state, died in want today. Policemen found him in a shack, where he had been unattended for a long time.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

Marsh lost his fortune when the drouth

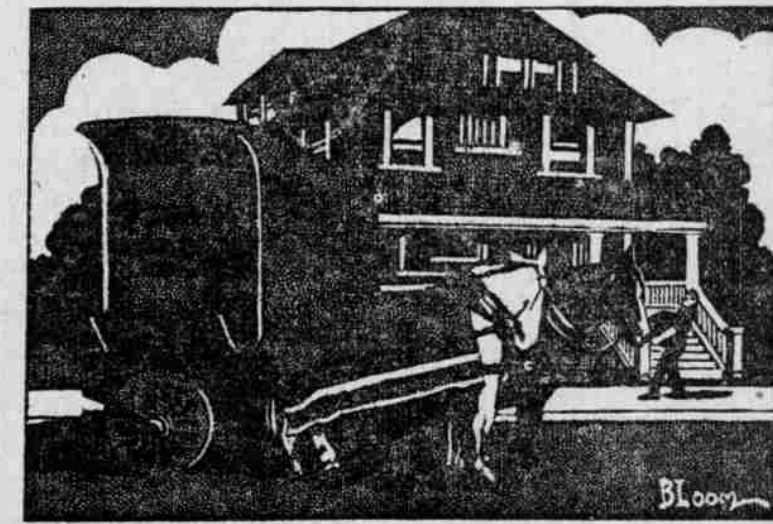

of a few years ago scorched the ranges and his cattle died of starvation.

Hood River Plans Fourth.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 7.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Merchants Association here it was decided to hold a pan-valley Fourth of July celebration in the city. Frank A. Cram, Clarence F. Gilbert and D. G. Cruikshank were appointed on a committee to confer with the Commercial Club and to work out details of the event.

Four Cigar Factories Burn.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 7.—Flames which threatened the lower business section of the city today destroyed four cigar factories and several smaller buildings, caused a loss of $100,000.

This Will Soon Be a Familiar Sight

In many cities as much as one-tenth of the people move every year. And in every city the percentage is larger than you imagine.

Now, if you are moving this year you naturally want to get a happier location than you have had before. That doesn't mean that you necessarily desire to pay a lower rent or get a smaller house, but it does mean that you desire some compensation for moving.

Therefore, the first thing you wish to do is to get in touch with all of the most desirable places for rent.

The old method of doing this was to go around from street to street and from house to house. But in the light of our twentieth century progress, this is a foolish way of doing it. It is foolish because your legs cannot travel nearly as far as your eyes or your mind. Therefore, the place that is most desirable is likely to be overlooked.

On the other hand, if you will just turn to the "For Rent" Ads in The Oregonian you will cover as much ground in five minutes with your eyes as your feet could get over in a week.

Practically all of the desirable places for rent are in The Oregonian now, because people who have houses and apartments and homes for rent use the same up-to-date means for renting them as other people use for finding them.

So all you have to do today is to turn to the Want Ads in this paper, look up the columns marked for rent, and check off the places in what to you are desirable neighborhoods.

Then, instead of tramping all over this city, you have all of the most desirable places right at your finger ends, and an hour or two spent in visiting these places will show you everything you want to see. Try it with this paper today.

Take your pencil, check off the list, and mention, please, the name of The Oregonian when you make your calls for inspection. When you do it in this way, moving loses all of its hardships, and finding a place becomes a pleasant task.