The filing yesterday of the nominating petitions of five more aspirants for commissionerships at the city election, June 2, raised the total number of candidates to 45. There are 39 out for commissioner, two for City Auditor and four for Mayor. Those who joined in the race yesterday are F. J. Evans, E. L. Sechrist, C. R. De Burgh, A. W. Lambert and T. S. Williams. Each of their petitions contained more than 100 signatures.

City Auditor Barbur yesterday began the task of arranging the ballot for the election. It is his intention to have this work completed and ready for the printer as soon as the time limit for the filing of new petitions expires. In addition to the long list of candidates, there will be 11 initiative measures submitted to the voters.

City Attorney Grant has prepared most of the ballot titles and has sent them to the City Auditor, who will arrange a place on the ballot for them, subject to their change by the City Council. The Council will consider any proposed changes in the wording of the titles at a special meeting this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Early Filings to Be Recognized.
Auditor Barbur has decided that unless legal proceedings are instituted to stop such action he will place the names of candidates on the ballot in the order of their filing, taking the names of persons who filed at 7 o'clock Saturday night first, then will give Ralph C. Clyde first place on the list. A strong protest was made against the Auditor doing this, because of the fact that the petitions of those who filed Saturday night were secured before the polls closed in the election which determined whether or not the commission charter was to be established. City Attorney Grant, when asked for an opinion on the regularity of these petitions, said he believed they were all right, and has advised Auditor Barbur to place the names on the ballot in the order of their filing. The only way this can be prevented is by some person securing an injunction to prohibit such action, in which event it probably would be impossible to hold the election on June 2.

Hayes to Commence Filing.
It was announced by Christopher Hayes, an attorney who is circulating the petitions of about 75 candidates, that he will commence to file for his candidates today. Solicitors who have been securing names have practically completed the preparation of the petitions of about 32 of the 75 aspirants. Auditor Barbur says it is apparent that many candidates are holding out for places at the end of the list, believing that it is an advantage to have the names either at the top or the bottom of the list. Many candidates have expressed their desire to foot the list and are holding back their petitions with that end in view.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS VOID

Commission Charter Makes Action at Polls Unnecessary.
To withdraw from the ballot at the city election June 2 six proposed charter amendments which are unnecessary under the commission form of government as established in Portland last Saturday, the City Council will hold a special meeting this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The measure, which among the 14 sent to the ballot by the Council at a special meeting held a week before the commission charter election. The measure to be withdrawn includes proposed charter amendments to provide increases for members of the City Council, the City Engineer, the City Engineer, the City Engineer, the Clerk and Judge of Municipal Court. If these are taken off the ballot there will be 11 proposed charter amendments remaining.

JUDGE GATENS NOT TO RUN

Juvenile Jurist Tells Friends He Will Not Seek Mayoralty.
After having considered requests of friends that he enter the race for Mayor under the commission government, Circuit Judge Gatens yesterday announced that he would not be a candidate. For several days he been urged by dozens of business men and others to become a candidate. "The Mayoralty of Portland should be alluring to the ambition of any man," said Judge Gatens yesterday, in announcing his intention to remain out of a race. "But there is important work for me to do in the Juvenile Court and for which I have planned. I should not want to lay down this work to enter a race for a position already sought by eminent gentlemen who are among my friends."

PREFERENTIAL VOTING IS HIT

Women Hear One Explanation of System and Reject It.
The preferential voting system was explained to a small crowd of women who gathered in the auditorium of the Medical Building yesterday afternoon. John T. Douglass was the speaker. He showed how the system is supposed to work and declared in answer to a question that, if the women vote to be certain to elect any individual, they should not use the second or third-choice vote for any other candidate.

A resolution was adopted, declaring the preferential voting plan to be a plan to put incompetent men in office, and the women present agreed to concentrate their votes on one set of men or women candidates for Mayor and Commissioners. They will try to do this in order to throw their influence to those whom they believe to be proper persons to hold office under the new charter and to avoid scattering their votes thereby assisting in putting those whom they do not believe are as fit.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, "Mother of Suffrage," saw herself in moving pictures yesterday for the first time. Mrs. Duniway was the honor guest of the meeting, and during a recess visited the Empress Theater, where moving pictures of women voting for the first time in Portland are featured. Mrs. Duniway was taken to the theater in an automobile, and her hosts marched from their place of meeting to the Empress.

Grant Going to Spokane.

To secure accurate information regarding the preferential election system which has been adopted in Portland in connection with the commission charter, City Attorney Grant will go to Spokane tomorrow night to pass two days looking into the workings of the plan there. Spokane has put the system into practical operation and has made a success of it, it is said, and Mr. Grant desires to get information on the methods employed. He will secure sample ballots and general information to be used in handling the situation at the coming election in Portland.

Grant Seeks Not Commissionership.

City Attorney Grant yesterday issued a formal statement denying reports to the effect that he is to be a candidate for Commissioner. "I am not a candidate, have not considered being a candidate and do not intend to consider entering the race for Commissioner," he says in his statement. "I am, however, in the field for the position of City Attorney and will seek the position when the Commission takes charge of the affairs of the city."

Olson's Expenses $71.85.

Fred Olson, who won the Republican nomination for Municipal Judge at the primary election yesterday, filed his statement of campaign expenses, amounting to $71.85. The bulk of the expense was incurred in the printing of cards and cloth banners which were tacked up about the city.

MINISTERS TO ACT

Candidates to Receive Support Will Be Selected.

CO-OPERATION IS FAVORED

Dr. E. C. Cline, Having Confidence in Committee, Declares Support and Predicts Accomplishment of Good.

The Ministers' Federation, at a meeting yesterday in the Young Men's Christian Association building, adopted the report of a committee that the organization will co-operate with all other organizations to obtain the best men for city offices. It was decided also to investigate the various candidates and have a report submitted upon them at the next meeting.

A conference will be held of all pastors of the city and two laymen from each church, at which a committee will be appointed to take charge of a campaign for the candidates agreed upon by the federation.

Committee of 100 Lauded.
Dr. Doynt lauded the committee of 100, declaring he was acquainted with every member.

Dr. Benjamin Young suggested that only ministers not members of the committee of 100 be named on the federation committee. All other members, however, insisted that Dr. Doynt serve, declaring that he could better serve the federation by being a member of both committees. Dr. Young insisted upon co-operating with all committees having the welfare of the city at heart. He declared that the committee co-operate with the municipal association.

"I know almost every member of the committee of 100," said Dr. C. E. Cline, "and I am confident all are actuated by the highest motives. Let it be understood that we stand with this committee of 100 and we can accomplish something."

Feeling Is Engendered.
Rev. J. K. Hawkins said he had been informed that four members of the committee of 100 were members of a political machine. This aroused the ire of Dr. Doynt who insisted that Rev. Mr. Hawkins name the men. He declined the charge when the Commission takes charge of the affairs of the city."

Rev. D. H. Trimble favored co-operation with other organizations, but not to the extent of adopting their programs unless satisfactory in every respect.

Rev. J. H. Bennett declared that unless all organizations working for a clean administration united upon a ticket there could be no hope of success. The federation will meet at 1 P. M. Friday to hear the report of the committee.

AUTO TAG COUNTERFEIT

W. P. RHODES CHARGED WITH BREAKING TRAFFIC LAW.

Mrs. E. D. Connell Pleads Guilty to Speeding and Is Fined—Cutting Corner Cost $20.

Counterfeiting of automobile license tags to evade the payment of the required fees, is charged against W. P. Rhodes, a lumberman, who is under arrest for driving an automobile without a license. The alleged fraud was detected by Patrolman Cameron, when he checked the car for standing in the traffic district.

The officer found a license number on the vehicle, 5447, and looking it up in the register, found it belonged to C. J. Richardson, an employe of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. Notification was sent Mr. Richardson that his car had been seized, but he said his machine was not down town, and that he had both of his number tags. This caused closer inspection and the charge of counterfeiting followed.

The officer says a tag of the year 1912 had been painted the color adopted for 1913, and the number changed with a die into a "3." When the owner claimed his car he was placed under arrest. In his defense he asserts that he has applied for license, and that the counterfeit tag only until he could procure a good one. His case was set over until Saturday.

Mrs. E. D. Connell pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of exceeding the speed limit. A fine of $20 was imposed.

Testimony that W. E. Sharp was intoxicated when he disobeyed the signal of a traffic officer and cut a corner cost him $20 in Municipal Court yesterday.

C. E. S. WOOD IS SPEAKER

Women Attend Progressive Club Luncheon and Answer Rollcall.

C. E. S. Wood addressed the members of the Progressive Business Men's Club and their wives and friends on the subject of "A Citizen's Duty in Nominating a Commissioner" at the Multnomah Hotel yesterday. Mr. Wood compared the new Portland charter to a modern engine which needed the right kind of human energy to put it in action.

"Commissioners should be selected for their fitness and should have shown efficiency before they are elected to office," said Mr. Wood. "To give out city offices to friends is entirely wrong. I have had in return for sign petitions of many friends because they were, I believe, not the best men for the offices which they sought."

The first "women's day" of the club was a success and each joined in the rollcall and told who she was. Dr. R. M. Emerson sang a few songs. W. S. Asher was chairman for the day. J. P. Kinder, president of the club, who has been in the East for eight weeks, returned Wednesday.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

ONE day, when Mr. Jones returned with what his weekly toil had earned, he found his little wife in tears and mood not suited to her years. It seemed the cook had bade "adieu," likewise the washerwoman, too.

At first within the House of Jones there followed sad despondent moans. No hopeful word could reconcile, no honied kiss inspire a smile. "I never knew before," said she, "how horrid household cares could be."

"Upon my word I'm up at six and working still as midnight ticks. I scrub and run and wash and shine to keep the little things in line, and yet around me here and there I see undone another share. I almost feel as if I'd like to join the other ones on Strike. Some morning try it—get a mop; go through from cellar to the top, and I will venture you must see, the greater burdens fall on me."

Now Mr. Jones was passing wise and later, sprang a glad surprise. Through friends who praised the "GOLD DUST WAY," he brought a package home one day.

From tears to sunshine, Wifey now has found the good of "Knowing How" and striking servants fail to stir, the placid calm content of her.

The Gold Dust Twins

The most rigid investigators praise the Campbell plant.

They point to it as a model establishment. Our kitchens are as clean as those of the finest private residences. The floors of solid cement are flooded every night with hot soda-and-water. Our blending-kettles and all utensils are regularly scalded and sterilized.

We employ no child-labor. And the personal neatness and cleanliness of our employes is compulsory.

These are some of the reasons why our product is so absolutely pure and wholesome. Try Campbell's Tomato Soup prepared as a bisque. And see if you ever tasted anything finer.
