

400 ATTEND REED COLLEGE MEETING

Conservation of Human Life and Health Under Discussion by Experts.

EXHIBITS TO SHOW WORK

Speakers, numbering 30, will include members of faculty from Universities of Three States and Other Noted Educators.

HOW TO GET TO REED COLLEGE.

There are three ways of reaching the college by electric cars: 1. Take Woodstock (WV) car to Reed College station and walk a few blocks west to the campus. 2. Take the Sellwood car, transfer at Bybee avenue for the Eastmoreland car and walk a few blocks north to the campus. 3. Take the Sellwood car, get off at Tolman avenue and walk nearly a mile east to the campus over Crystal Springs Lake. The best road for automobiles follows Milwaukie avenue to Bybee avenue, thence over the Eastmoreland viaduct and via hard-surface road on Thirty-fourth street to the campus.

How best to conserve human life and protect human health are the broad, humanitarian principles that govern the conference on the conservation of human life which opens at Reed College this morning and to attend which nearly 400 delegates from various parts of Oregon, Washington and California are assembled in the city.

Some of the best speakers from the state universities of each of the three states will be heard in the several sessions. Oregon Agricultural College, Washington State College, Stanford University, the health boards of the three states, as well as the churches and various other institutions that labor for the amelioration of human affairs will be represented.

More than 20 exhibits will show the methods and results of social and educational work. Practically all the speakers on the programme are Western men and women who are working on Western problems and an effort has been made to secure experts to speak on every subject that comes up for discussion. The exhibits show the work that is being done in Portland and Northwest for social welfare. There are over 20 speakers for the conference in addition to several members of Reed College faculty who will give addresses.

Reception for Delegates.

Tonight from 8 to 10 o'clock President and Mrs. Foster will hold an informal reception for the presiding officers, speakers, and regularly appointed delegates in the assembly hall in the Arts building. It is limited to the persons mentioned because of the size of the hall.

Students of the college will meet all visitors at the streetcar and will maintain an information bureau and will handle the checkrooms.

ORPHEUM LEADER MAY MAKE HOME IN PORTLAND

Jessie Busley. "If Portland were abroad instead of where it is tourists would be taking $5000 trips to rave over it and guide books would be full of its charm. As it is now you seldom hear of it except from a few actors who return from the West and tell you about it." So says Jessie Busley, who is passing the week in Portland as headliner at the Orpheum in "Miss 18."

When Miss Busley has not been haunting the Chamber of Commerce in search of all the booklets and business information she can find on Oregon and Portland she has been using much of her spare time on Columbia Crest, where she has frequently gone twice a day to enjoy the view which she declares is one of the most wonderful she has ever been her privilege to see.

Miss Busley has even gone so far as to suggest Portland as a possible home for her in the future, for she is one of the few theatrical people who has been prudent in money matters, and her great ambition is to retire at the end of a few years and establish herself in business of some sort. Miss Busley is an old-time friend of Lola Steers and Mrs. Schuman (Wynn Coman) and Miss Steers is entertaining at luncheon for her tomorrow.

Telegraphic Sport Briefs

SAN FRANCISCO.—In preparation for the 20-round bout scheduled for May 17, Jess Willard has not less than five men at his training quarters as sparring partners.

New York.—S. N. Doubt, captain of the Australian tennis team, which will compete here next month in the preliminaries for the Davis cup, arrived in New York on the liner Majestic.

Lausanne, Switzerland, May 8.—The Congress of the International Olympic Conference opened here. Most of the countries of the world were represented, 499 delegates being present.

Wichita, Kan.—Wichita, the home of automobile polo, is to send a team to Europe to play the game. The team will sail from New York May 29 for 15 weeks of competition in the principal cities of Europe, including London, Paris and St. Petersburg.

Chicago.—George Stovall's suspension was not lifted as a result of his conference with President B. B. Johnson, but Mr. Johnson will confer with the directors of the St. Louis American, probably on Saturday and at that conference the question of a pardon for the manager will be discussed.

Warrensburg, Mo.—Walnut Boy, famous pacing stallion, which made the fastest pacing record of any breeding horse on exhibition at the Columbian Exposition, Chicago, in 1893, is dead here.

Chicago.—Luther McCarty, heavy-weight champion prizefighter, has received offers from Promoters Coffroth and McCarey of the Pacific Coast clubs asking him to meet the winner of the "Gunboat" Smith-Jess Willard fight.

Sporting Sparks

The spitball is the deathknell of baseball, according to Frank R. Kison, former Detroit and Brooklyn star pitcher, who owns a large farm at Allegan, near Kalamazoo. He says there are many pitchers in the game today who wouldn't last 10 minutes but for the irrigated dirt.

There seems slight chance of Jack Sheridan's team, in the Coast League, Sheridan is under pension from the American League, and if he works out here that stipend will undoubtedly be cancelled. Baum wrote Ban Johnson about it, but Baum has been too busy to answer.

Guigni, the St. Mary's boy with Nick Williams' team, is dead in one ear. If it is the ear toward the bleachers the lad should never have to worry, no matter if he does slump.

Ivan Olson was somewhat annoyed by a St. Louis bench-warmer in a recent game. He watched closely until he located the author and then, walking half-way over to the bench, he shot this at his tormentor: "You fresh bush leaguer, wait until you are a regular before you get so busy." The hand-shaking days are over.

CHUNG SHUT CONFESSES

Prisoner Admits Murdering Miss Uyida in Rookery Week Ago.

Full confession of the murder of Miss Uyida, a Japanese woman, found beaten beyond description in a rookery at Fourth and Flanders streets a week ago, has been made by Chung Shut, the Chinese arrested by Detectives Goitz, Boyle, Hill and Litherland, and previously charged with the crime by a coroner's jury. Chung made the confession to Deputy District Attorney Hammerly and Detectives Hill and Litherland.

The Chinese said that the woman was a relative of his cousin, who is away in Alaska with a fishing crew, and that in his absence she had been receiving visits from other men. He went to retrace with her, he says, and she became abusive and attacked him. Then he beat her with a hammer and stabbed her with a knife so that she died a few hours later. He says he did not intend to kill her.

After his arrest Chung attempted suicide by hanging himself in his cell, and his demeanor has been such that a confession was expected.

Boys to Aid in Publicity.

The Boys' Chamber of Commerce is preparing to join in the campaign to arouse interest in Oregon among people of the East, through the medium of personal letters by members of the organization to boys in the East. The Juvenile Chamber has been furnished with Ore-

Astoria Bar to Be Harrowed.

ASTORIA, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—The Port of Astoria Commission has awarded a contract to the Astoria Iron Works for the construction of a Y-shaped pier weighing approximately 4000 pounds, to be used for improving the south channel across the bar. The harbor first will be tried by opening the channel below Tongue Point, and when the freshet is on, so that the ebb tides at the mouth of the river will be especially strong, it will be operated on the bar.

Home Near Gardiner Destroyed.

GARDINER, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—The dwelling of Harry Henderson, on Smith River, 13 miles from Gardiner, was burned to the ground recently. The Hendersons were absent from home, attending a baseball game at Gardiner at the time, and nothing was saved of the household goods. In money, $480, Mr. Henderson left in the house, was lost.

Astoria Gets Wireless Operator.

ASTORIA, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—A wireless operator named Pope arrived Wednesday and is now in charge of the local Marconi station, which has been closed since the strike began.

Pianos at Wholesale Prices TO YOU FOR 8 DAYS MORE

The first 2 days of our selling Pianos at wholesale to the general public has been the means of making 17 families of Portland happy possessors of Pianos.

Hush & Lane, Piano Manufacturers, Apport

Every Customer a Retail Dealer

100 Pianos will be sold within the ten days beginning May 7, at 10 o'clock, to 100 Piano buyers of Portland and vicinity at wholesale prices. Only 8 more days left.

Having decided to discontinue a number of our outside agencies, all of these Pianos have been shipped to us and are now in our wholesale department, 433 and 435 Washington street, cor. 12th, and for the next 10 days will be offered to you on a wholesale basis.

We have now the largest and finest wholesale and retail salesroom in the city of Portland. Plenty of room and every convenience to make shopping a pleasure, whether you come to purchase or merely to look around.

WHY DO WE DO IT?

Because it is just as profitable to us, or even better, to sell 100 Pianos to 100 people than it is to sell 100 Pianos to one retail store.

We believe it is the better to sell 100 Pianos to 100 people, because each one of the 100 would be a "live" advertisement for the Hush & Lane Piano. All we ask, Mr. and Mrs. Piano Buyer, is that you examine Pianos elsewhere, then come to us and see if we cannot save you money, at the same time sell you a better Piano. IF YOU ARE NOT IN A POSITION TO PAY CASH, bring enough along to make a deposit. Pay the balance on WEEKLY or MONTHLY PAYMENTS. Prices during this sale range from $125, $145, $160, $180, $195, $225 and upwards. For the convenience of those who will not be able to come to our store during the day we will, during the ten days' sale, keep our store open evenings until 9:30 P. M.
