versation ensued over the telephone, Donald talking from Vancouver: Ting-a-a-aling. "Hello! Sporting Editor Oregonian?"

The Buckaroos won at Pendleton, 5 to 1. The Bucks were outpiched, but otherwise they excelled. Wells, who pitched for Pendleton, was wild, but sood support pulled him out. Browning did well, but his teammates made er-rors. La Grande had men on three times, but three fast doubles, and Byrnes, the new catcher, stopped them. The score: R. H. Murray's work, leaves the issue shy some of the usual filaments of doubt. There is a heap of difference between umptring single and double. Perle Casey, last year in the Coast, this year in the Northwest, says he has to do twice as much hoofing around the diamond in his lonesome act as when working in double harness. "Tm the hardest worker in the bunch," said he, motioning his strike arm toward a knot of ball stark huddled under an awning away from the wet.
