PAVING CONTRACTS GIVEN

Street Committee Awards Jobs Aggregating $142,746.
 Street paving contracts aggregating $142,746 were awarded yesterday by the street committee of the City Council. These, with others let in the last two months, raise the total of recent paving improvements to close to $750,000.
 The contracts let yesterday include the following: Victoria and other streets, to the Warren Construction Company for gravel bitulithic paving, $44,157; East Fifty-seventh street, from Sandy boulevard to Tremont, to

MOTORISTS EVADE LICENSE

Checking of Tags Ordered After Frauds Are Discovered.
 New methods of evading the state automobile law regarding licenses are being discovered daily by the police, the latest being the alleged use of one set of tags to cover both the automobile of a father and the motorcycle of his son. The defendant is F. Meeks, a youth living at 492 East Thirty-third street North, arrested yesterday by Patrolman Maxwell.
 Coming atop of the alleged discovery of the changing of a 1912 tag to one of the current year, for which the Warren Construction Company, for gravel bitulithic, $12,648; Millers avenue, from East Seventh to East Sixteenth streets, to the Linden, Kibbe Construction Company, for concrete, $15,619; East Thirty-seventh street, from Hancock to Rossmore, to the Oregon Independent Paving Company, for concrete, $5,418; East Lincoln and other streets, to the Pacific Bridge Company, for bitulithic redress, $61,903.

 Bids for the paving of East Clay and other streets were rejected because of the desire of the property owners of part of the district to have a different variety of paving from that to be used in the improvement as a whole. The lowest bid for this contract was $88,000, by the Barbour Asphalt Paving Company.

W. P. Rhodes is to answer in court today, the case is to be made the occasion of a rigid checking of licenses, as the police believe that numerous frauds have been perpetrated by persons seeking to evade the payment of licenses or to conceal their identity.
 J. C. Peters, a young demonstrator, sentenced to five days at the reformatory for driving an automobile while drunk and violating numerous other provisions of the ordinance, is serving his sentence. Notice of appeal was given when the sentence was imposed, but later young Peters abandoned the fight and asked to begin his term.
