

GRANGE HAS MANY MATTERS TO WEIGH

Co-operative Basis for Disposing of Products May Result at Albany.

SCHOOLS TO BE DISCUSSED

Uniforms for All Pupils and Lanches, Furnished by Districts, to Be Proposed at Annual Session of State Organization.

ALBANY, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—That the fourth annual session of the Oregon State Grange, which will convene in this city Tuesday morning for four days, will be the most important meeting in the organization's history, as indicated by members.

As the biennial election was held last year at Roseburg, no officers will be chosen at the coming session except one member of the executive committee. The retiring member of this committee is C. L. Shaw, of Albany. The other two members are E. Spence, of Oregon City, who is ex-officio a member by virtue of his position as State Master, and H. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, who was chosen last year for a two-year term.

Probably the most important matter which the State Grange will consider is that of co-operation among its members in selling farm products. It is said that an effort will likely be made to establish a market in Portland and perhaps in other cities of the state. A movement is reported to have been inaugurated for the Grange and the Farmers' Union to unite in such a project.

Increased Dues to Be Proposed.

Another proposal likely to be made to the State Grange is to increase the monthly dues of members from 10 cents a month to 15 cents, and it is said that 20 cents may be proposed.

Resolutions on various questions affecting the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College also may be brought before the session. A proposal to recommend legislation whereby the state shall furnish uniforms for all public school pupils will also be submitted at the coming session. At its last meeting the Linn County Council of the Grange endorsed the plan and directed that it be brought before the state session.

Those who are proposing the plan argue that children of poor parents dislike to go to school, in many cases, because they are not as well dressed and oftentimes suffer on that account and sometimes give up school work altogether. They also declare that a uniform would give school children pride in their work and increase school attendance.

In this same connection the advocates of the plan argue that the school districts should furnish lunches for all pupils at noon as they assert that poor children are often ashamed to eat with the other children and eat alone to avoid displaying the meager contents of their dinner pails.

Candidates Are Numerous.

One evening during the session will be devoted to the initiation of candidates and it is said that more than 100 will take the fifth and sixth degrees.

On the first evening of the convention at a brief informal reception the delegates to the State Grange will be welcomed to Albany by Mayor Gilbert and the Albany Commercial Club will tender the visiting delegates a banquet at the new First Presbyterian Church and will be served by the women of that church under the direction of the entertainment committee of the Commercial Club, of which G. T. Hickey, of Smith is chairman. Plates will be laid for more than 250 guests.

CURRY COUNTY TO FRONT

Timber Company to Spend $1,000,000 on Mill and Improvements.

GOLD BEACH, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—The Brookings Lumber & Timber Company, a Missouri corporation which is developing the large timber interests of southern Curry County, has secured a mortgage with the County Clerk here to secure a bond issue of $500,000. The St. Louis Union Trust Company, of St. Louis, Mo., is the trustee which is handling the bond issue.

The company is incorporated for $1,500,000, and will spend over $1,000,000 in building mill and other improvements in southern Curry County, before they begin cutting lumber for the market. This is the beginning of an epoch of development for Oregon's backward county, yet its natural resources one of its richest.

Superintendent Ward stated today that he hoped to have the plat of the new town of Brookings ready to file in the July term of the County Court. Work is progressing rapidly on the logging road, millpond, wharf and other improvements at the mouth of the Chetco, and about 200 men are now at work there.

STORAGE PLANT PLANNED

Medford Producers Decide to Spend $40,000 for Fruit Warehouse.

MEDFORD, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the members of the Rogue River Fruit and Produce Association Saturday it was decided to build a cold and dry storage plant to be available for the 1913 fruit crop. Twenty thousand dollars had been raised by the sale of first mortgage bonds, and it is planned to raise $20,000 more by subscription.

A subscription list passed around at the meeting brought in $4000 and it is expected that the remaining $10,000 can be raised within the next week or ten days.

In the opinion of the local growers a cold storage plant is a business necessity in order to make it possible to hold fruit, particularly pears, until the market is such that they can be sold advantageously.

The association has a block of land on the Southern Pacific right-of-way and for $40,000 a storage plant adequate for the needs of this district for both present and future can be constructed.

RECALL IS NOT PROBABLE

Walla Walla Mayor and Commissioners May Hold Jobs.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 11.—(Special.)—That the petitions demanding an election to recall Mayor Gibbs and Commissioner Struthers will be filed next week, and that the election will not be called, were statements tonight, the first by leaders of the recall movement, the second by Struthers.

Al Tabor, one of the circulators of the petitions, said that more than 100 required 1228 signatures and been obtained. The reason Commissioner Struthers assigns for his statement is that the recall provisions of the constitution law will be superseded after June 13 by the constitutional amendment regulating recalls. Under the commission law the clerk has 10 days to check names and the Commissioners must then call an election not less than 30 days hence. That would place it past June 13.

The amendment provides for an entirely different procedure. Charges must first be filed, an abstract made and printed on petition blanks and the petitions then circulated. When they are filed a sworn statement must be presented giving names of all interested, who have contributed funds, where the money was spent, etc. No charges have yet been filed, but are expected to be filed by June 13.

WOMAN LONG A RESIDENT OF ONTARIO PASSES AWAY

Late Mrs. Malinda I. King, of Ontario, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Malinda I. King died at her home in Ontario on May 8. She was born in Louisville, Ky., in September, 1836, and went with her parents to Nebraska in 1873. She was married to Gilbert I. King at Grand Island, Neb., September 1, 1875, and moved with her husband to Ontario, in January, 1885.

Mrs. King is survived by her husband, four sons, two daughters and two grandchildren. The children are Edward L. Arthur, S. and Homer G. of Ontario; Ira N. of Nelson, B. C.; Mrs. C. R. Arnold of Portland, Or.; and Mrs. L. G. Huston, of Ukiah, Or. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

contained in the heading of the petition. The charges are misconduct and malfeasance in office, it is stated, though they have not been given out. Commissioner Struthers states he has advice of attorneys for his statement as to no election. No attempt is being made to remove Commissioner A. K. Dice.

Father and Son Mangled by Log.

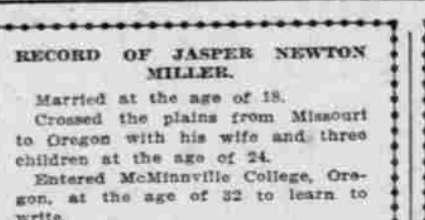

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—John and Emil Dreher, father and son, were badly bruised by a rolling log at a local sawmill on Thursday and are in the hospital. The father was caught by the log and the son went to his assistance, only to be caught himself.

Several who had planned to enter the race announced last night that they have decided not to run. Among these are Councilman G. D. Dunning, H. E. Abery and John Montag. All three have been presented with petitions completely signed and ready for filing. It is probable there will be others in this same class. Among those who are said to be still uncertain are C. N. Ryan, M. J. Murrain, I. D. Mahone, C. H. Thompson and J. E. Werlein. Arrangements have been made by

YOUNG MAN, 72 YEARS OF AGE, IS IN COLLEGE

Jasper Newton Miller, of Medford, Tells How He Cultivates "Habit of Youth"—Man Is Ambitious Student.

RECORD OF JASPER NEWTON MILLER. Married at the age of 18. Crossed the plains from Missouri to Oregon with his wife and three children at the age of 24. Entered McMinnville College, Oregon, at the age of 32 to learn to write. Entered the old National Business College in Portland at the age of 35 to learn plain and ornamental penmanship. At the age of 64 entered the Ashland Normal School to prepare as a teacher. At 72 years of age is learning bookkeeping in the Medford Business College.

Medford, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—Refusing to grow old and declaring that youth is a habit with him, Jasper Newton Miller, age 72 years, who resides near this place, is one of the most energetic, ambitious and popular students of accounting to be found in the classes of the Medford Business College. Mr. Miller walks six miles each day in order to reach school and often stays "after hours" to grasp some angle of the study to which he is applying himself.

"I have been trying to catch up with the age ever since I was born," said Mr. Miller with a twinkle in his eye in telling of himself, "and I think that I am close to winning the race now. I had been teaching in the country schools for a decade when I found that I was to keep abreast of the times I must know bookkeeping. So in the same way that I left the wagon-making trade at 32 to learn writing, because I found that without that knowledge I would always be handicapped, I entered the business college at 72 to learn bookkeeping."

"Some people laugh at me, others think I am crazy but I am used to that. I was 64 years of age when I entered the Ashland Normal school and was the joke of the place for a few years. The teachers were kind to me. B. F. Mulkey, the principal, helped me. Professor J. D. Robb, of McMinnville College, encouraged and assisted me when at 32 I went to him to learn to write. In fact I owe a debt to the teachers of Oregon which I can never repay."

"What is the secret of my health and ambition? There is no secret. It is merely a habit—habit of body and of mind. I haven't touched tobacco for 32 years. I never drink intoxicants. I have gone to bed at 10 o'clock at night for 60 years. I eat practically no meat. My interests are more practical and modern. Yet he has a poetical turn. Here is his sympathy:

"I try to live in such a way that every 'now' shall come back from yesterday as a dream of happiness that is not all a dream and every tomorrow shall usher in a vision of hope dawning with the colors of pleasure most brilliant than the gorgeous colors of a rainbow in the wake of a receding storm."

Mr. Miller is a fluent speaker and has a memory as available as a card index. He can reel off names and dates and initials of Oregon people by the yard. His wife died nearly 10 years ago, but the three children, who crossed the plains in a prairie schooner, are still living. They are Earl L. Miller of Portland; James H. Miller, of Tucson, Arizona; and Mrs. Lillian Miller (married a man of the same name) of Eugene.

CANDIDATES LAST FILING DAY DAWNS

With Closing of Auditor's Office at 5 P. M. Further Entrants Are Barred.

GRAND RUSH IS EXPECTED

Six Petitions Known to Be Ready for Presentation, Bringing Total to 54, but Some of Those Announced Will Not Enter.

This is the last day for candidates to file their nominating petitions for the city election, June 2. At 5 o'clock P. M. City Auditor Barbur will close his office and begin to prepare the ballot. No candidate will be permitted to enter the race after his office is closed.

A rush is expected to mark the closing hours of the open period, many candidates having held up their petitions until the last day for various reasons. It is known for certain that six candidates will file between 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. and a large number of others whose names are not known are expected to appear with petitions. Those who have their petitions completed and will file today are Marshall N. Dana, W. T. Vaughn, Frank W. Winn, G. C. Craig, Albert G. Clark and T. N. Stoppenbach. All will enter the race for Commissionerships. No new names for Mayor or City Auditor have been mentioned, although it is said that there are candidates for the offices who have their petitions ready for filing today.

Hayes' List Reduced.

With the filing of the six mentioned the total number of candidates for Mayor and City Auditor, three, Christopher J. Hayes, an attorney, declares he has circulated the petitions of 32 candidates, says many of his candidates will be on hand with their petitions today. He said last night that he was not at liberty to mention any of their names. He originally announced that his list was 75. He has the number known to 22 now. None has filed as yet.

The work of arranging the ballot will require about two days' time, according to Auditor Barbur. The petitions which have been received have been dated so that each shows the exact hour and minute it was sent in. The names will be placed on the ballot in the order of filing.

Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in its Donnet.

A woman's heart responds to the sweetness of a pretty child, and more so today than ever before since the advent of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons. It penetrates the tissues, makes them readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.

Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for caking of the breasts.

And particularly to young mothers is this famous remedy of inestimable value. It enables them to preserve their health and strength, and they remain pretty by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion.

Auditor Barbur for the printing of 70,000 sample ballots containing the names of candidates and the proposed charter amendments. These will be given out for general distribution to voters as soon as possible. Instructions for voting will be included on these ballots. A comprehensive statement explaining the plan of the preferential voting system is to be made a part of the sample ballots.

Linn County Coincidence Unique.

ALBANY, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—A peculiar coincidence in relation to former county officers of Linn County developed yesterday when the County Court appointed two former members of the County Court of Linn County as viewers to report on a road applied for by a former County Clerk. H. M. Palmer, of Albany, ex-County Judge, and H. B. Sprenger, of Shedd, ex-County Commissioner, were named by the court to act with County Surveyor Geddes as a board of county road viewers to view a road applied for by several petitioners headed by Frank Crabtree, ex-County Clerk, who now resides about eight miles east of Albany. Ex-Judge Palmer and ex-Commissioner Sprenger were members of the County Court at the same time, both being elected in 1900 for a term of four years. Crabtree was County Clerk from 1898 to 1906.

Unique Syrian Paper Received.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 11.—(Special.)—N.
