DON MORRISON WINS

Portland Man Breaks 383 Out of 400 Targets.

TRAP TOURNAMENT ENDS

H. E. Poston, of Seattle, Is High Gun Among Professionals—Portland Club Takes One First and Ties for Another.

Don Morrison, of Portland, carried off premier honors in the first annual shoot of the Portland Gun Club on the Kenton traps, winding up the two-day trap competition yesterday with a total score of 383 targets in 400, leading all amateurs by a safe margin and equalling the score of H. E. Poston, of Seattle, a professional.

Morrison averaged 96 in the 400-bird shoot. He broke into the lime-light on Sunday, practice day, by taking the Chingren challenge trophy from F. C. Richl, of Tacoma, and came within two birds of taking it from H. E. Poston yesterday. Poston broke 96 birds, retaining the trophy he wrested from Morrison on Monday, but the latter's work on the traps was sensational.

The Portland Club managed to take one first and tied for another in the class tourney, the first of the kind ever staged in the United States. Dr. O. B. Thornton, with 377, tied with G. B. Gregory, of Vancouver, Wash., for high gun in class B, averaging a fraction over 89, nearly up to the class A standard. Class A shooters, were men capable of averaging better than 90; class B between 85 and 90, and class C under 85.

Ball James had a good week against Sacramento, winning two games, which places him above West instead of below him.

West instead of below him. The Portland twirlers in their order of rank up to this series follow: Higginbotham, 6 wins, 2 defeats; James, 4 wins, 3 defeats; West, 3 wins, 3 defeats; Krapp, 1 win, 2 defeats; Hagerman, 1 win, 2 defeats; Krause, 1 win, 4 defeats; Carson, 0 wins, 2 defeats.

De Witt Van Court, of Los Angeles, says Ad Wolgast is the best lightweight since "Kid" Lavigne. While Lavigne held his title twice as long as Ad he fell quickly when started down the trail.

Not one of the Oakland team is batting in the mystic circle of 300 swatters. Abbott tops the list with 299 and Cook is next with 287. This seems passing strange when you consider that the Oaks have complained of being afflicted with every other ailment except that of falling eyesight.

Frank Chance says he would give $10,000 for Joe Tinker as shortstop for the New York Americans.

Jack Atkin, Sacramento owner, vowed he would walk downtown from the ball park every time the Senators beat Portland last week. Atkin did not wear out much sole leather.

Ed Rogers, famous Carlisle and Minnesota football end, has been elected chief of the Chippewas in Minnesota. After the doubles practice, Rice and Jones played several sets of singles. The Australians showed great speed and have a graceful, easy stroke with much power behind it. No scores were kept in today's matches.

HILL SOUNDLY DRUBBED

LINCOLN HIGH WINS GAME BY 23-TO-6 SCORE.

Poor Work in Field by Academy Boys and Hard Hitting Result in Piling Up Runs.

Interscholastic Baseball Standings.

W. L. P. C.	Washington, W. L. P. C.
Jefferson	3 1-2
Lincoln	2 1-2
Columbia	2 1-2

The Hill Military Academy baseball team, of the Portland Interscholastic League, met its third and most decisive defeat of the season yesterday, when it succumbed to the Lincoln High sluggers by a score of 23 to 6. The game was due to this cause. With the exception of the first and seventh innings Lincoln managed to annex one or more scores in each canto. The batting of Freeman, who played his first game for Lincoln, was a feature. He connected safely five times in six attempts. Sensational catches by Dunagan and substituted star twister, Billy Lewis, before the initial inning was ended.

Good stick work on the part of Groce, Cooke and Freeman enabled the Lincoln players to cross the plate five times in the second inning. Van Zandt, who occupied the mound for Hill, had loose support in the field, and several runs were due to this cause.

The academy players drew first blood in the first frame, when two runs were scored, due to the wildness of Pitcher McTarnahan, who hit one batter and walked two others, and an error did the work. Coach Borleske took no chances and substituted his star twister, Billy Lewis, before the initial inning was ended.

Centralia defeated Tenino 3 to 1, while Tono took Mendota into camp 2 to 0. The games were fast, in spite of a muddy field. The surprise of the day was the playing of the Centralia team, which was only organized last week and which had only had four days' practice before the league opened.

He was first arrested for vagrancy, but in a short time the Town Marshal at Yacont perceived that his mind was not right. It is believed that the boy has relatives some place in this section of the Pacific Northwest.
