"Special values for the boys"

Not very often do we say much about "bargains." It is only when something special comes up. In this case, an excellent buy makes it possible for us to offer popular double-breasted Suits for boys, in tweeds, homespuns and cassimeres, at $3.95. They're worth more. You'll realize that you are getting $5 to $10 value. Of course, there are presents—Balls, Bats, Gloves or Mitts, with every boy's suit.

The clothing value in your suit—

Before a suit is put on sale, it has been carefully selected from the well-made, all-wool fabrics of the House of Kuppenheimer, selected for Oregon climatic conditions. Then it is priced according to what it is worth to you—in quality of material, service and appearance. The popular price is twenty-five dollars. At this price you receive the quality and appearance to keep you well and serviceably dressed. There are other values at fifteen to forty dollars.
