

WELL GRANT BRIDE OF NAVAL OFFICER

Couple Goes to Justice Court and Foregoes Usual Wedding Pomp.

EVENT ENTIRE SURPRISE

Lieutenant-Commander Cronan, Childhood Friend of President's Granddaughter, Courts by Letter—Relatives Not in Secret.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—(Special.)—Foregoing all the pomp and circumstance due to the granddaughter of President's greatest Generals, who later became President of the United States, Miss Nell Grant and Lieutenant-Commander William Cronan, U. S. N., today were married by Justice of the Peace Barnett, with only the clerk of the court, Jeremiah Collins, as witness.

The couple took out their marriage license at about 11:20 o'clock, and, with the document under the arm of the state, went to Justice Barnett's chambers and asked him to marry them. He called in his clerk to act as a witness and read the ceremony which made them husband and wife. They immediately going for lunch to the Grant home, on Washington street. The bride gave her age as 21 and Lieutenant Cronan gave his as 31. Later in the afternoon the couple left for a brief honeymoon trip.

Cronan to Return to Fleet. Upon their return they will be here for a few days before leaving for Annapolis, where Lieutenant Cronan is assigned to the torpedo boat destroyer Jewett. In the late summer they will be at Newport with the Atlantic fleet.

The bride is a namesake of General Grant's favorite daughter, the beloved Nellie Grant, who became Mrs. Sartoris. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Root Grant, of Washington street, this city, and a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death. She is a cousin of Princess Michael Cantouzescu Speransky, of St. Petersburg, and is a relative of Mrs. Julius Rosenberg, of Washington street.

Until the arrival of Lieutenant Cronan from the East day before yesterday his bride of today had not seen him for five years. The two had known each other since childhood, but became engaged by letter and had not met since, the exigencies of the navy making it impossible for them to meet.

Motives Kept Secret. Lieutenant Cronan, who is a fine-looking, alert-talented man of medium height, wears civilian clothes when married. Whatever reason may have actuated the young people in deciding upon such an unconventional wedding, they kept it to themselves. Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

Mrs. Cronan has a host of friends here who will be disappointed that they did not see a wedding with its usual pomp and circumstance. She is a niece of U. S. Grant, Jr., and of the late General Frederick Dent Grant, who was commander of the Department of the East at the time of his death.

GOVERNOR HUNT TO APPEAR

Arizona Executive to Attend Christian Citizenship Conference.

Arizona Executive to Attend Christian Citizenship Conference.

Governor George F. Hunt of Arizona has accepted an appointment on the commission on "Prison Reform" for the World's Christian Citizenship Conference, to be held in this city from June 23 to July 4.

McKenzie Cleland, of Chicago, is chairman of the commission, other members of which are: Governor West, of Oregon; Julian Leavitt, New York; Warden Thomas Tynan, Canon City, Colo.; Warden J. K. Coddling, Lansing, Kan.; Warden F. O. Hellstrom, Grove, N. D.; Major R. W. McClung, Lawton, Okla.; Miss Barnard, Oklahoma City, Okla.

IRVINGTON WANTS CHANGE

Association Asks to Have Cross-Town Route Further West.

The franchise of the cross-town carline on East Twenty-eighth street will not be submitted to the City Council until the new charter and new officers have taken charge. F. I. Fuller discussed the franchise with L. M. Lepper, chairman of the transportation committee of the Greater Irvington Association. It was considered best to defer the franchise until the change soon to come in the form of city government. The franchise will be brought before the commission government in July. Meanwhile the Greater Irvington Improvement Association has started a movement to change the route from East Twenty-eighth to East Twenty-second, East Twenty-first and East Twentieth streets.

BANKER'S CASE ON TRIAL

President of Skamakawa Institution Pleads Guilty.

CATHLAMET, Wash., May 15.—(Special.)—Judge Edward H. Wright opened a term of the Superior Court here Tuesday morning. The examination of the case of the State of Washington vs. S. D. Strong has been in progress since court convened. Strong is on trial charged with receiving a deposit in the Skamakawa Bank knowing of the insolvency of the institution.

EXPLOSION INJURES YOUTH

Salem Lad Blown Up by Bomb of His Own Construction.

SALLEM, Or., May 15.—(Special.)—Lester Young, 15-year-old son of Dr. E. F. Young, a veterinary surgeon, was badly burned about the face and it is feared he will lose the sight of his left eye, as the result of the explosion of a bomb which he had made.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL NEEDED

Eugene Trustees Put Questions Up to Voters.

EUGENE, Or., May 15.—(Special.)—A special school election has been called for Wednesday, May 21, to consider providing adequate facilities for the Eugene high school, which is now overcrowded and unsuited to teaching of some of the courses of study offered.

ACCOUNTANT GIVEN SPACE

Insurance Commissioner to Study Various Systems.

To be used as headquarters for compiling a new system of accounting for all the counties of the state, which he has been authorized to install by act of the Legislature, Insurance Commissioner Ferguson has been assigned two rooms at the Courthouse by the County Court. He will take possession June 4, the date the statute goes into effect, and his new system will be installed January 1, 1914.

SUNDAY IN THE COUNTRY

At Metzger, on the Oregon Electric, tickets, including lunch, 35c; buy them now at 722 Yeon bldg. Trains leave 10:20 and 12:30 streets at 9 A. M., Jefferson-St. depot at 2:30 A. M., Sunday.

Eugene Starts Fight on Fly.

EUGENE, Or., May 15.—(Special.)—An emergency ordinance passed by the City Council last evening makes it unlawful for any garbage or stable refuse

Be Here TODAY--the Salem Woolen Mills Clothing Company Sale Is at Its Best Now

This is no sale of odd lots, but the reductions we quote here cover our Entire Stock—which means you may choose from 3000 Suits at these savings. Buy while the assortments are complete

Save 1/4 on Any Suit You Buy

- $11.75 buys any $15.00 Suit.
- $22.50 buys any $30.00 Suit.
- $16.75 buys any $22.50 Suit.
- $15.00 buys any $20.00 Suit.
- $13.75 buys any $18.00 Suit.
- $26.25 buys any $35.00 Suit.
- $18.75 buys any $25.00 Suit.
- $30.00 buys any $40.00 Suit.

Cash must be realized quickly on this huge stock—that's why these sweeping reductions are offered. Schloss Bros', famously-good clothing tremendously underpriced to effect a quick disposal.

Why not come early, while the sale is young, and have FIRST choice of our superb stock? Throngs of shrewd buyers are selecting now. Don't wait until YOUR favorite Suit is sold.

Phegley & Cavender

FOURTH AT ALDER

Successors to Salem Woolen Mills Clothing Co.

ROAD IS NOT LIABLE

Love Message That Exploded No Fault of Company.

Iowa Supreme Court Says It Will Be Some Time Before Courtship Can Be Referable to Commands of Employer.

TORPEDO USED AS WEIGHT

Girl and Miss Frances Bryan, Secretary-Treasurer, A Strong Effort Is Being Made by the Association to Introduce Physical and Mental Training in the Schools Here.

RUSSELL AGAIN ARRESTED

Saloonman Taken by Sheriff Word for About Fifteenth Time.

J. J. Russell, part owner of a North End saloon, and seven patrons of his place were arrested by Sheriff Word yesterday on charges of gambling. In the same raid M. C. Peterson, proprietor of a saloon at 95 Fourth street, and eight of his customers were gathered in. The saloonmen were released on bail of $10 each and the other on bail of $10 each.

DECEHLE FUNERAL IS HELD

Late Orchestra Member Honored by Portland Musicians.

A large delegation of musicians, including many personal friends, attended the funeral yesterday of Gustav Decehle, one of the veteran flute players of the Pacific Coast. The pallbearers were: C. Edwards, H. W. Davis, A. DeCape, and H. O. Scaries, et al. Decehle was 74 years old and until a few months ago he lived at Altenheim, the German old folks' home.

PORTLAND WOMAN GLADLY RECOMMENDS THE NEW VEGETABLE PREPARATION PLANT JUICE

Mrs. John Bond Has Made a Personal Test of It and Is Now Telling All Her Many Friends and Acquaintances About the Benefits She Received.

The following interesting statement is from Mrs. John Bond, who resides at 1715 Clarendon street, this city. Mrs. Bond's husband is a millwright at the

Mrs. John Bond.

I have suffered torments for years with stomach trouble. My stomach would bloat and there was a distressing burning sensation in the pit of my stomach. My food did not digest, but would ferment and cause my stomach to bloat. My nerves became affected and I often went to bed hungry rather than suffer as I did after eating. I tried everything that was recommended to me and all kinds of mineral waters, but nothing seemed to help me until I began taking Plant Juice. I have used two bottles of it and it is certainly fine. I am now eating anything I want and my stomach seems to agree with me. I sleep good and wake up rested in the mornings. I am recommending Plant Juice to all my friends, for it is surely a great medicine.

There are many people in Portland today who will agree with Mrs. Bond in her opinion of Plant Juice, for it has restored hundreds of tired, sick and discouraged people to health and strength. No remedy ever introduced here has ever taken the firm hold on the people of Portland that Plant Juice has. As a tonic, vitalizer, invigorator and system cleanser it is without an equal. Those who suffer from ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys or blood should get a bottle from the Plant Juice man at the Owl Drug Company store, Seventh and Washington streets. If it does not benefit he will refund the money.

couver Barracks and remained in that position until he was about to retire on a pension.

For nearly a score of years, Oeschle had made his home in this city, where he played in theater orchestras and at concerts. He died last Monday, from paralysis, at the Multnomah County Hospital.

gott, 20; Evelyn Fatland, 24; Agnes Winchell, 9. For advisory membership: Men—Oscar Koenig, 25; Lloyd Carrick, 15. Women—Juanita Parker, 40; Mildred Linden, 25.

Arthur Hauok, who had the highest vote among the men, came to Beer from the University of California. Gladys Lowden, who had the largest vote among the women, is from Mount Holyoke College. William Boddy, is a member of the retiring council. Donald Lancelotti is a member of the junior football team next year and has served as president of the John Adams Debating Society. Jean Wolverton and Annie J. Harrison are members of the first class to enter Reed. Miss Wolverton has served both as vice-president and as secretary of the class of 1915. Oscar Koenig, elected an advisory member, is from Pomeroy, Wash. Miss Parker, the representative of the freshman girls, is a Portland girl. All nominations to the council were made by the retiring council with the exception of Mr. Boddy, who was nominated by a petition.

Missionary Society Meets Today. The Women's Home Missionary Society of Portland District will hold a district meeting at Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, East Ninth and East Pine streets, today. The morning session will commence at 9:30, the second at 1:30 P. M. and the third at 7:45. Mrs. Cotton Mather, National field secretary of the society, will make addresses at the two later meetings.

GIRL BAMBOOZLES GUARD Filtration With Bailiff Wins Permission to See Prisoner.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Garnet La Fairfield, a cabaret singer, repudiated today her confession that she supplied the knives with which Harry Evans and Peter Jensen, convicted prisoners, tried to cut their way out of Judge Cooper's courtroom last Tuesday.

She admitted that she had flirted with a bailiff and allowed him to take her to lunch, in return for which, she said, the bailiff let her see Evans, her sweetheart, so she could "hug and kiss him."

A TWO DAYS' SPECIAL INDUCEMENT TO MEN

We have just received 100 new Summer Suitings consisting of the very latest styles. Our regular price of this high-class suiting would be $35 and $40, but as the season is late we will place the entire 100 patterns at your selection today and tomorrow at

$25.00

These woolens are the latest creations for men and comprise the latest weaves in all the different shades.

Our Extra Special, the West of England Blue, regularly priced at $35, today and tomorrow at

$25.00

Best grades of linings and trimmings used. Entire satisfaction as to fit and workmanship guaranteed. We employ only Union Custom Tailors. Our designing and fitting is personally supervised by Mr. Chas. Henderson, late of Bell's, New York.

This offer will close Saturday evening at 10 o'clock.

PORTLAND TAILORING CO.

HENRY W. JACOBSON, Manager

Portland Hotel Block 322 Morrison Street