are most interesting (see letter in southeast corner).

If the subject appeals to you, try leaving off coffee and tea entirely, use

Instant Postum and carefully note, day by day, the return to health and strength.

A level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more, and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a k vel teaspoonful in cup of hot water.

Dr. C. Irving Fisher, for a quarter century at the head of New York's great Presbyterian Hospital, says in the New York Times of March 23, 1913: "Coffee poisoning is becoming con-stantly more common id this country, especially among students, whom it harms more than it would harm almost anybody else.

"Coffee intoxication does not lead to wife beating, but its physiological ef-fects upon some of its victims are al-most as had as those of alcoholic poisoning.

"We continually find at the various clinics signs of the harm done by the excessive use of tea and coffee among children.

"Surely this is quite preventable. "Children not infrequently appear whose nervous and digestive systems have been wrecked by these two beverages.

The ceremony is the outcome of a romance of their school days, broken by separation when they left school, but reconstructed after a casual busi-ness letter brought the two to a re-membrance of their former friendship. Talking over their school days at a meeting at Seattle on an excursion trip brought the two to a decision that there was fate in their being reunited on the Coast after their years of sepa-ration, and the wedding followed, the ceremony being part of the vacation trip of the pair and their first visit to Milwaukee since they left home. 350 REBELS ARE KILLED Huerta Government Has Report of Victorious Engagement.
