LOS ANGELES, May 18.—(Special.)—Jack Ryan, veteran moundman, pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Portland this morning on the Venice grounds, the first in the Coast League in several years, and the first hitless game in any of the principal leagues this season.

Ryan's "Come Back" Marvelous. Ryan's "come back" performance this season, which reached its climax today, will go down in baseball history as unique. He was unconditionally released two years ago by the St. Paul American Association team and early this season he asked President Berry, of Los Angeles, for a chance.

Ryan's performance was in direct contrast to the efforts of McCreddie's gunners in that forenoon tussle. Sergeant Alfred Carson, late of the Tigers, was the first to make his debut, but he didn't stick long.

Carson Greeted by Oslaught. The Sergeant was greeted by an onslaught in the opener that netted two tallies, and in the second he was bumped for another cut. McCreddie derided his piddling soldier man and "Rip" Hagerman, respondent in his ever-present smile, was seen on the slab at the start of the third.

Gene Krapp was the first to head the call of the shower. He got off to a flying start, retiring the Angels in regular order in the first and second chapters. In the third he was rapped for two tallies, with a scraggly error mixed up in the scoring.

Beavers Bunch Hits. The visitors tied up in the third. Fisher tripled to right center. Krapp walked. Chadbourne singled to left, scoring Fisher. Ed Kennedy drove the clout, sprouting headlong in so doing, but recovered in time to nab Krapp at third. Chadbourne took second on the mix-up and counted when Derrick doubled to left.

The sixth finished Krapp. Page walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on Lober's drive to right. Margart sacrificed Brooks Raymond to second and the blonde-headed youth rambled across the platter when Howard poked one over second.

McCorrick and Krueger whacked singles on Check in the seventh and Perritt was called to the mound. Fisher hit into a fast double play, McCorrick wadding to third, Fitzgerald, batting for Krapp, grounded out. Fisher, Page, Derrick, Doane, were hit by pitcher and Korea hit to mid-field, scoring one and making base counts of one and two, with the Caps still in the lead.

The Angels sewed up the game in their half, bumping Harry Krause for a brace. Score: Morning game—Los Angeles—Portland 4-0. Evening game—Los Angeles—Portland 4-0.

five hits in the third inning today, which brought them two runs. Young's error and two hits off Lively, who succeeded Williams, netted the Southerners one more score in the sixth and a 3 to 0 victory for the odd game of the series.

Two highly respected twirlers had their reputations sadly dented in the final go, for both Chech and Krapp were rip-sawed from the mound.

TIGERS HERE TODAY

"Iron Man" McGinnity Bringing Rejuvenated Team.

HYNES TO HURL FOR COLTS

Girot, Harris and Riordan Are ex-Portland Players With Tacoma Squad—Few New Faces Appear With Invading Club.

"Iron Man" Joe McGinnity, the famous New York pitcher, will bring his Tacoma Tigers to Portland today for a seven-game series that will give local fans their first glimpse of the rejuvenated Northwestern League squad.

Today's game, as usual, will start at 3:15 o'clock, with Hynes twirling for Portland and one of three, Girot, Kaufman and Kurfess, on the mound for Tacoma.

Tacoma has three ex-Portland players in the lineup, two catchers, Harris and Riordan, and Southpaw Girot. The infield is not new, with Nordyke, a Northwestern veteran, at first; Keller at second, McMullen at third and Burrell at short. Burrell is the former Syracuse University athlete, who was a star with Vernon two years ago, only to slough up at bat last season.

Two Outfielders Known Here. The outfield shows Neighbors and Kennedy and a new man, Harry Hynes. McGinnity's pitching staff consists of Belford, Concannon, Kurfess, Girot, Boice, Kaufman and himself.

McGinnity seems to have instilled new enthusiasm into Tacoma fans and at last good crowds are turning out to watch the games. This same pep has been inoculated into his players and the Tigers are up in third place and coming strong. They took four out of seven from Spokane last week.

The biggest upset of the week in Northwestern League circles was Vancouver's ignominious rout by Seattle. The Dugdale crew walloped Red Brown's six games out of seven and tumbled them from a first place percentage of .714 last Monday to a second place standing of .571 this morning.

That's quite some drop in seven days' time. Colts Gradually Gaining. The Portland Colts have crept up from the cellar to fifth place, at least, the past week, even though the count for the Victoria series was three games apiece. Spokane has dropped hard and Cohn's bunch presumably is in need of just as much strengthening as Portland before the Indians will become pennant contenders.

One thing sure, Manager Williams' shift of Speas to first and Callahan and Hellman to the outfield seems to have helped the Colts. Victoria has a stronger club than given credit for and the Colts gave them a battle royal all week long.

When Mohler gets back into the game regularly Nick's bunch should do even better. Guigni is playing good ball, but the team needs Mohler's generalship and steady effect both in the infield and outfield.

Williams' work behind the bat has been one of the pleasing features of the rearrangement.

Goldendale Team Victorious. GOLDENDALE, Wash., May 18.—(Special.)—The Mount Hood Hose Company team of The Dalles played at Goldendale today, and was defeated by a score of 10 to 3.

GAME IS PITCHING BATTLE

Narveson Holds Portland to 4 Hits and Wins 2 to 1—Swain and Guigni Star at Second, Each Playing Marvelous Ball.

Northwest League Standings. W. L. PC. Seattle 11 9 110. Victoria 10 11 133. Vancouver 10 11 133. Tacoma 10 11 133. Spokane 10 11 133.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Are you ready for the question? All in favor of Victoria signify by the usual sign. The "ayes" have it, Victoria wins the final game of the local Northwestern League series, the score being 2 to 1. The result puts the Bees in fourth place and Portland in fifth. Getting back to the past tense, the Bees' parting victory allotted them an even break on the series, three games apiece. Despite threatening rain clouds nearly 2000 fans turned out to say farewell to Lynch.

It was a pitchers' battle between Narveson of the Bees and Mays of Portland, and Mays had only himself to blame. He allowed five scattered hits, but in the first inning, walked two men and hit two others, one of his wide shots forcing in what eventually proved to be the winning tally. Mays fanned all three men later on, in the seventh inning.

Pitchers in Rare Form. But despite the loss of the contest, it was a good game mechanically and otherwise. Mays and Narveson were both in rare form and both had good support. It was Narveson's second victory of the week, the ex-Western Canada twirler having won the opening game, 3 to 1. He was nicked yesterday but for four safe blows, fanned five and walked only one, so was entitled to his game.

The Guigni standpoint the rival second sacker, Guigni of Portland and Cy Swain of Victoria, were as solid as granite. And they were kept merrily busy. The Swain sacrifice play, however, did not assist without an error and Guigni went assists and three put-outs.

To Guigni belongs the laurel wreath of the matinee, for he shut off one sure tally by a stellar retrieve of a liner of Melchior's bat. Swain occupied third at the time and would have scored and tallied but for Melchior's massacre at first. Guigni to Speas. Swain starred at bat with two hits.

Wildness Costs Game. In detail, Victoria scored one run in the first on Mays' wildness and the other in the third inning on an infield hit by Rawlings. Brown's sacrifice and Swain's single to right.

Portland tallied the one run in the last of the third on singles by Mays and Guigni and a double steal, in which Mays beat Meek's throw to second and the return by a full yard.

The game was rushed off by Umpire Casey in 1 hour and 30 minutes. The Victoria club left last night for home for a week's series with Spokane. The score: Victoria—Portland 2-1.

Seattle Makes It 6 Out of 7, Final Game Being Real Slugfest. SEATTLE, May 18.—Seattle made it six out of seven today by winning from Vancouver, 7 to 6, in a 10-inning game. Neither Gipe nor Hall pitched brilliant ball and the score was tied three times. The winning run was made by Jackson, who hit for two bases, was advanced to third on an infield out and scored on Raymond's single. Both teams got 13 hits, every man in the Seattle and every man except Frisk and Hall on the Vancouver team hitting safe at least once. Score: Seattle—Vancouver 7-6.

Notes of the Game. Yesterday's crowd moved off with mechanical precision, but it was sadly minus thrills. Speas threatened to start a few shivers in the ninth by singling, but Catcher Meek had his wits astir, called for a wide pitch out and nabbed Speas attempting to steal second. On a hit-and-run fizzle in the eighth inning, Meek was caught midway between first and second and tagged out. Swain followed with a two-bagger. Portland's infield, Coltrin, Bancroft, Guigni and Speas, is playing a bangup fielding game. One rippling double play belted out a ninth yesterday.
