LOS ANGELES, May 20.—(Special.)—Walter McCredie's Beavers dived in on Hap Hogan's star mound performer, "Spec" Harkness, this afternoon in the first game of the series and piled up enough runs in the fifth inning to win the game, 4 to 3.

Five hits is what the Beavers did to their old teammate, "Spec," in that fifth frame—five singles with the score 2 to 0 against them.

Bill James started the game for the Beavers, but was rather wild, allowing the Tigers to put across two runs in the first inning. Both runs, however, were not earned runs, as Carlisle, after getting free transportation to first, went to second on Meloan's single, stole third and scored when Kores failed to cover second on Fisher's throw to catch Meloan. This proved the undoing of James, and he shot one out to the right of Fisher and Meloan trotted across the pan.

Beavers Bunch Bingles.

The Beavers came up strong in the fifth with blood in their eyes and, after McCormick skied to right field, Fisher singled to left. Higginbotham was then recalled from the clubhouse and was sent in two bat for James. He produced the necessary single to left, putting Fisher on second. Chadbourne then single infield, loading the sacks. Derrick also desired to get his name in the hall of fame and singled to left, scoring Fisher.

Doane fouled to McDonnell and Krapp scored on a wild pitch. "Spec" gave up hope after this and, after allowing Chadbourne and Derrick to score on Kores' single to left, was yanked out of the box, Raleigh taking his place. Rodgers finished the inning by forcing Kores, Hosp to O'Rourke.

The Tigers' third run in the fourth frame came when O'Rourke walked, reached second on James' balk and crossed the plate on Elliot's single to center.

Krause Finishes Strong.

Raleigh, who succeeded Harkness, and Krause, who took James' place, pitched no-hit ball after the fifth inning, Venice making one hit off Krause in that inning.

Patsy O'Rourke, formerly of Sacramento, made his first appearance in a Tiger uniform and received an ovation when he came to bat for the first time. D. W. VanCiee, formerly of the Southern California League, made his initial appearance as an umpire in the Coast League and acquitted himself well. Score:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Second Baseman Leard scored three runs for Oakland today and the Commuters thus captured the first game of the series from Los Angeles, 3 to 1.

Fine fielding won the game for the Oaks. In the sixth frame, with the score 1 to 0 against them, the Angels got three men on bases, only to have them die by a series of cleverly executed plays by Oakland fielders. Score:

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Bancroft's base running and Bill Speas' hitting gave Portland another victory over the Tacoma Tigers yesterday. Score 4 to 3.

The gist of it was that Southpaw Stanley, of Portland, had only one bad inning, whereas the Colts hammered Kaufman when hits meant runs. Not one of the six hits was wasted.

Girot twirled the last two innings for Kaufman, when the slim right-hander gave way to a pinch hitter.

Tacoma fielded poorly, although only one error figured in the scoring. In the ninth Portland filled the bases on two boots by Ruell and a walk, but Girot tightened and no further scoring was indulged in.

Portland tallied one run in each of the first, third, fourth and sixth frames.

Tigers Bunch Hits.

The Tigers did all their rocket shooting in the fourth inning, when they took the lead temporarily by cramming three runs across. Ed Kennedy drove in two of them after hits by McMullen, Keller and Neighbors.

The weather man furnished beautiful baseball weather and about 1200 fans were out taking a sun bath. While there was little of the spectacular in the repertoire yesterday, the assembled mob in miniature witnessed some baseball by the Colts that was real baseball.

Bancroft opened the game by singling. He promptly stole second, ambled to third on Mohler's out and crossed the plate on a dandy squeeze bunt by Fries. In the third Bancroft scored again. He received a life at first on McMullen's high throw, stole second and, on a perfect hit-and-run play, scored from second on Mohler's single.

Speas' Batting Wins Game.

A double by Bill Speas into deep left center in the fourth inning, followed by a pinch hit by Nick Williams, tied the game, 3-3, and this same grimy-shirted Speas won the game in the sixth by singling to center after a screaming three-bagger into right by Melchior.

Notes of the Game.

Keller showed poorly on the bases. He was caught by Stanley between second and third on one occasion and in the sixth gave a weird exhibition of blind-fold sprinting that was amusing. He tried to run his legs off from first to third on an ordinary fly to left field with only one man out. Of course, he was promptly doubled out.

Tacoma had men on second and third bases with two out, but a grounder to Bancroft relieved the tension.

Martinoni or Eastley will be on the warming pan for Portland today, with Girot the likely Tacoma flinger.

Bancroft is proving a veritable Aladdin in the field. The scrappy infielder works in perfect harmony with Coltrin and Mohler. Bancroft came in yesterday and took one that Stanley had slowed up and threw H. Harris out at first amidst tumultous applause by the 1200 fans. It was a neat play.

BEES' SPURT BEATS INDIANS

Kraft and Cadreau Batted From Box in Loosely Played Game.

VICTORIA, May 20.—Victoria pounded Kraft from the box in the fifth today after Spokane had gone into a two-run lead, and managed to nose out the Indians eight to seven in another loose game of ball.

The Bees found the veteran an easy victim and also batted Cadreau hard when the redskin took up the mound duties. Pappa, an outfielder, was sent in to finish the game and did well in the two final innings.

Wilson had to be taken from the box in the ninth after handing out eight passes, four in a row, giving Spokane two runs, with a man on first. Narveson was sent in and retired the side. Charlie Brooks, the Bees' first baseman, broke a small bone in his ankle sliding into first base and will be out of the game for a few months. He made four hits in four trips to the plate. Smith replaced him at the initial sack. Score:

DELL HAS ONE UNLUCKY INNING

Fly Lost in Sun Costs Giants Three Runs and Games to Canucks.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 20.—Dell pitched brilliant ball for the champions for four innings here today and then when Strait lost a fly ball in the sun, after two men were down and which allowed three Beavers to cross the plate, he went to pieces. The next three batsmen were passed, forcing in the fourth run.

Decanniere was in trouble several times, but pitched himself out of some tight holes. Dell fanned 10 men but he also issued nine passes, six of which were given in the fourth inning. Score:

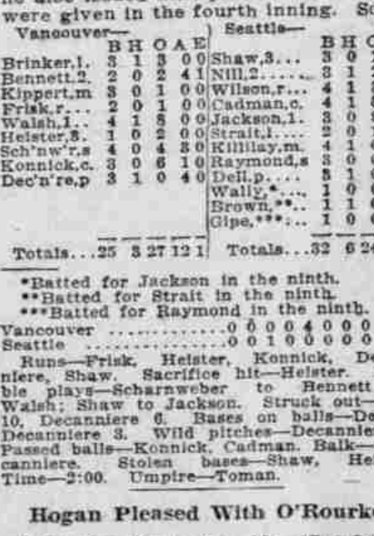
Hogan Pleased With O'Rourke.

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—(Special.)—Hap Hogan is elated over securing Patsy O'Rourke from Sacramento in trade for Hallinan. Hogan said today that he considered himself lucky in being able to obtain the scrappy little ex-Sacramento manager and thinks his new infielder will give his Venice Tigers just the dash they need to make them a winning combination. He used O'Rourke at second base against Portland today.



Lou Nordyke, Veteran First-Sacker, Who Asked For and Was Granted His Release by Tacoma Last Night.

Airlie High Team Victorious.

AIRLIE, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Airlie high school baseball nine has won games with Buena Vista, Monmouth and Independence, and are champions of the south division of Polk County. The team will meet Dallas High, champions of the north section, at Dallas on the day of the field and track meet which was postponed Saturday on account of the continuous downpour of rain.

I'm most out of breath—but I'm still after them—but aren't J. R. SMITH CIGAR CO. the professional "hold-outs"—resisting my salesman-ship is just plain "hard headedness."

I could sell this space to a hundred people—but I know what a fine domestic—long filler cigar Tom Keene is—and if they would only buy my space and tell the people—but what's the use, until I sell 'em—and I will.

NORDYKE IS LET GO

Tacoma First Baseman Released at Own Request.

BATTING SLUMP IS CAUSE

High-Priced Player May Catch On With Some Other Club or He Will Go to Apple Ranch at Wenatchee — Concannon Goes.

Lou Nordyke, one of the oldest and best-known players on the Pacific Coast, ex-manager of the Vancouver and Victoria clubs in the Northwestern League, was released by Manager McGinnity, of the Tacoma Tigers, last night at his own request.

The big first baseman has been slow striking his batting stride this Spring, and McGinnity's habit of benching the king-pin slugger in the pinches did not appeal to the popular Nordyke as conducive to an improvement.

Hence his request following Tacoma's second straight defeat yesterday by Portland. McGinnity apparently was glad to give him a release, because Nordyke is one of the highest priced players in the league. The release practically means the veteran's retirement from baseball after a service of over 12 years, 10 of which were spent on the Coast.

Apple Ranch Is Waiting.

"I may possibly catch on with some other club in the league, but I doubt it," said Nordyke last night. "If not I will retire to my apple ranch near Wenatchee."

Nordyke—one of the most popular athletes in the West—is well fixed, so need not worry about the future. In 1907 he purchased 13 acres of apple orchard at Leavenworth, Wash., and this is now rated at close to $2500 an acre. It bears annually several thousand boxes of Rome Beauties, Winesaps, Jonathans and Spitzenbergs.

Nordyke started out with San Francisco in 1901, being a teammate for two years of Hildebrand, Charley Graham, Iberg, Whalen, Parke Wilson and others. In 1903 he drew pay from Spokane in the Northwestern League, and in 1904 and 1905 with the famous Tacoma Tigers, whose ranks boasted such stars as Perle Casey, Hap Hogan, Orvie Overall, Truck Egan, Mike Lynch and others.

Career in Majors Brief.

Nordyke went to St. Louis in 1906, but was shunted to St. Paul, where he broke his leg, although remaining there through 1907. The next season found him managing Vancouver.

He led the Canucks to a pennant. In midseason of 1909 he was sold to Spokane and remained there two seasons, his terrific clouting helping to win the 1910 pennant. Last season he started as manager of Victoria, but broke his other leg early in the year and remained out of baseball.

Jimmy Concannon, Tacoma twirler, also drew a release yesterday. He has signed with Vancouver. The Tacoma pitching staff is now down to six men.
